Duplin's Largest Town County's Trading Center

Warsaw, Sept. 30—Warsaw enjoys the distinction of Duplin County's largest town, and its trading center, and justly so, because it can boast of having struck a happy medium seldom reached by any town.

In Warsaw there are to be found merchants in every line of business, handling any and all products needed for the farm, home or business by the people of Duplin County, and offering them at popular prices, prices made possible by their experience and volume of business. In this respect Warsaw is equal of many much larger towns or cities.

But at the same time it suffers none of the drawbacks of the larger cities such as that of losing personal contact with patrons.

Warsaw is not that large—no, here you find that merchants know each other and cooperate with each other, and know and like their customers, so that they make every effort to see that they are pleased. Patrons are not misled by false promises. They know the people who make these promises and expect them to keep them.

The merchants of Warsaw do not depend upon transient trade, or that which is continually moving about, seldom trading at the same place more than once. Their patrons are people of the county and community, whose patronage is steady and continuous; so that it is necessary to please them every time they buy in order to keep them.

Under this straight-from-the-shoulder policy Warsaw merchants have grown and expanded to take care of the steady increase of business from the entire county until they can truthfully say that it is no longer necessary to go out of the county with your money to increase the revenue and pay taxes of another county with your trade.

Come to Warsaw to do your trading, where you can get the best of everything at the lowest possible prices, and find a bargain every time. Warsaw merchants will always welcome you and see that you are pleased.

DUPLIN—WARSAW—

Jack Pot night will be on Wednesday this week instead of Tuesday. Next week it will be just as before, on Tuesday.

Warner Baxter and Joan Bennett will be seen for the first time in Technicolor in "Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1938," the spectacular musical comedy which opens Monday and shows through Tuesday at the Duplin Theatre.

Offering a glimpse of next year's fashions in girls, gags, gowns, love, songs and dances, this merry story of Manhattan centers around the romance of New York's leading couturier, played by Baxter, and a charming debutante, played by Joan, who jilts a millionaire (Alan Mowbray) on her wedding day to become a mannequin.

Also featured in the cast are Helen Vinson, as Baxter's selfish, stagestruck wife; Mischa Auer, as a penniless Russian prince; Jerome Cowan as the shady theatrical producer who stars Helen in a flop show that it takes Baxter's last cent to back; and those gorgeous Walter Wanger Models, "the most photographed girls in the world."

A powerful sea drama taken from real life brings Gary Cooper and George Raft to the screen as co-starring mates of a slave ship in "Souls at Sea" coming next Thursday and Friday to the Duplin Theatre. With them are Frances Dee, Henry Wilcoxon, Olympe Bradna and a score of other important players. The story is a dramatization of the famous packet "William Brown" and the trial of its captain for manslaughter on the high seas. The story was written from the testimony of survivors which Paramount found in old newspaper files of the 1840s.

Harry Carey, one of the best-known action stars on the screen, and John Beal, the brilliant dramatic player who has soared to film fame in recent months with his memorable portrayals, are co-starring in "Border Cafe," RKO Radio's action and romance drama with a New England and Rio Grande country background. Armida heads the supporting cast, which includes George Irving, Leona Roberts, J. Carol Marsh, Marjorie Lord, Lee Patrick, Paul Fix, Max Wagner and Walter Miller. The picture will be shown Wednesday at the Duplin Theatre.

Edward Everett Horton, estimates that he swallowed more than a gross of pills during the production of Universal's "Oh, Doctor!" which will be the owl show attraction at the Duplin Theatre next Saturday night. Playing the role of a hypochondriac, Horton

Warsaw School Faculty Named 1937-38 Term

The Warsaw schools opened for the 1937-38 school term on Monday, September 27, almost one month later than other schools in the county. The remodelled grammar school was not entirely finished. It is still to be painted. The new arrangement of the building will add more rooms, and it will be entirely safe from fire and crumbling walls.

The teaching staff of the Warsaw schools is given below:

First grades: Miss Maggie Bowden, Warsaw; Miss Albena Grimes, Greensboro.

Second grades: Miss Nell Bowden, Warsaw; Miss Solilo Ross, Washington.

Third grade: Miss Annie Jones, Camerac.

Fourth grades: Miss Emily Lawrence, Surfresboro; Mrs. Elizabeth Royal Clifton, Faison.

Fifth grade: Miss Doris Whitehurst, Bethel; Mrs. Rose E. Hollingsworth.

Sixth grades: Miss Esther Lominack, Mig. Sadler, Kinston.

Seventh grade: Homer Triplett, Eureka.

High school: Miss Hazel Johnson, Ingold, English.

Miss Evelyn H. Squires, Wake Forest, English.

Fred Kuntz, Warsaw, History-Civics.

Clyde Mackmon, Whiteville, Math.

Miss Joan Thomas, Farmville, Science.

W. L. McMill, Warsaw, Agriculture.

Mrs. J. B. Miller, Home Economics.

Superintendent: J. B. Miller, Science.

Mr. Miller comes to Warsaw highly recommended. He holds the degree of A. B. and M. A. from the University of North Carolina.

Mrs. Miller, who is Vocational Home Economics teacher, will be on duty for ten months and began work several weeks ago.

SCOUT COURT HELD, WARSAW

The Court of Honor for this district was held in Warsaw Gym Friday night with representatives from three of the four troops present for advancement. Scout Executive George Hamer had charge of the court.

The Charter for the Kenansville Troop No. 50 was given by Mr. Hamer and accepted by Troop 50 at the close of the court. Warsaw troop 50 won the events of the evening by a close score over Clinton troop 39, and were again given the banner which they have been holding for several months.
