Dr. Wilson at Stanford

Rev. G. A. Wilson D. D. is preaching at Stanford Presbyterian Church this week. Attendance is increasing each night. Good singing is being led by the senior and junior choirs. Services will continue on through Sunday evening. Dr. Wilson is preaching each night at 7:30. Sunday's service will include a morning service at 11:15 and an evening service at 7:30. Sunday school will be held at 10:00 Sunday morning.

Dr. Wilson is preaching great gospel sermons. The sermon for the first part of the week were given over to "Why be a Christian". All who hear him are blessed spiritually. He is not afraid of the Bible Truths and presents the truth in a way that all can understand. You can't afford to miss any of the remaining services.

Universalists Meet at New Building For Pre-Convention Session Sunday

Children's Book Week Will be Observed Soon

It is expected that a children's book week will be observed in Kenansville in the near future. Fifty to 100 children's books will be available to the children of the community at the Kenansville library during that week, and the library will be open all day. The Library Commission at Raleigh will have charge of the Book Week.

First Thanked by Congress. The first naval officer to receive the thanks of congress was John Paul Jones.

The Board of Trustees of the Universalist Convention of North Carolina met at the new Parsonage and Community Center for a pre-convention meeting Sunday afternoon, September 26. Steve Wilkins, president, Jno Williams, Secretary and Messrs. Horace Ward, Paul Price, Major Sutton and Earl Matthis were present.

Universalist all over the State are looking forward to the 32nd Annual Session of the Universalist Convention of North Carolina and the Women's Universalist Missionary Association meeting in Rocky Mount September 30 to Oct. 3rd. A large delegation is expected to be leaving for Rocky Mount from the Outlaw's Bridge Universalist Church.
