COUNTY DEATHS
will be greatly missed.

Her funeral was conducted in the Baptist Church at 2:30 Saturday by her pastor, Rev. E. C. Chamblee, assisted by Rev. A. J. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Goldsboro, and Rev. F. L. Goodman, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Kenansville, in the presence of a large crowd of sorrowing friends who gathered to pay their last tribute to one who has meant much to the community. The choir sang "The Gift of God's Love," and "Softly and Gently" Messrs. P. J. Jr., and B. G. Tucker were soloists. Active pallbearers were Messrs. J. A. Smith, J. P. Tucker, S. M. T. and H. G. Tucker, Harry Potter and Woodrow Wilson.

Honorary pall bearers of Magnolia; Messrs. H. B. Gayler, C. V. Joyner, Dr. R. F. Quinn, J. E. Hamilton and T. M. Rogers; B. W. Pickett, Robert West, of Warsaw; E. V. and Robert Carroll Wells, of Kenansville; Julian T. Gaskill, J. Lester Godwin, B. R. Ward, John Peacock, Scott B. Berkley, H. W. Tatum, Herbert Horne and L. A. Denning, of Goldsboro.

The flower girls were members of the Girls' Auxiliary and other friends. They were directed by Mesdames C. V. Joyner and M. T. Tucker. Interment was in the Butledge Cemetery in Kenansville. Her grave was completely covered with beautiful floral designs, expressions of love and friendship of the grief stricken family and friends. All her children were present and sons-in-law, Messrs. J. H. Alpers, of Richmond, and J. O. Andrews, of Raleigh. Her sister, Mrs. Dora Cox Herring, of Goldsboro and other out-of-town relatives were Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Carroll and two children, of Angier, and Mrs. Lou Carroll, and son, Wade, of Parkersburg. Many friends from Goldsboro, Warsaw and Kenansville were present.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."
"God night, beloved, peaceful be thy rest
Lay down thy head upon the Savior's breast
We loved thee well, but Jesus loved thee best
Good night, good night, good night."
