

Members in Duplin Chairman of Governor's Hospitality Committee

Raleigh.—The Governor's Hospitality Committee has been organized to include every county in North Carolina as a result of the appointment by Governor Olin B. Ray of 100 county chairmen who in turn will appoint the members of the county hospitality committees. Henry L. Stevens was appointed chairman of the Duplin county committee.

Each county hospitality committee will cooperate with the Governor's Hospitality Committee, which is composed of all the members of the State Board of Conservation and Development, in attempting to arouse a greater degree of interest among the people of the state in showing real North Carolina hospitality to all who come here from other states, either as tourists or permanent residents.

Governor Ray and those who have been cooperating with him in the State advertising campaign, are convinced that the state should do everything possible to induce visitors to return to the state again and again and that they will not become "repeaters" unless the people they come in contact with while here the first time show a spirit of hospitality and friendliness. He feels that while the advertising program now being pushed by the Department of Conservation and Development will bring tens of thousands to North Carolina who have never visited the state before, it will be dependent upon the people with whom these visitors come in contact here, as to whether they return or eventually become North Carolina residents.

As soon as the county chairmen name their hospitality committees, a comprehensive program will be presented to these committees by the state committee which is expected to bring about cooperation from every section of the state. Each county committee will be urged to work with all organizations and persons who in any way come in contact with the traveling public and to enlist their interest and support in making North Carolina the "friendly state."

It's better business to put fertility in the ground and keep it there until it can grow crops at a profit than it is to "mine" the earth of its plant food and sell it at a loss.

CHOCOLATE

(Intended For Last Week)

Well, we are having a nice visit from "Jacky Frost" and "Mr. Cold" in and around old Chocolate now.

Invitations have been sent out to the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Westbrook, for Dec. 8th, 1937. Congratulations to them, and we all hope for them a very happy and pleasant celebration. It isn't often that a husband and wife are fortunate enough to travel the highway of life together for fifty long "or short years." I hope to be present.

H. D. Maxwell, Hugh Maxwell, W. B. Gooding and others attended a supper at the Masonic Lodge in Kanesville last week. The fruit cake and other servings were delicious.

W. B. Gooding and Warren Maxwell were busy surveyors in Jones County last week.

Byron Simmons gave a tobacco party last week. Many of his friends enjoyed the fun, and also the refreshments.

Mrs. Sam Hill and children, of Deep Run, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson and grandfather, Joe G. Maxwell last Saturday.

Flavius Williamson, Pink Hill electrician, installed a new radio for Mrs. Winifred Williams last week near the old home of Dr. J. F. Maxwell. She is a sister of Miss Mamie Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Hess Davis have moved into their new home on Highway 111 the past week. They formerly lived in the home of Brennan Holt. Congratulations to them.

Mrs. J. W. Rhns and children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gooding last week.

Miss Dorris Smith, faculty member of Stanhope school spent the weekend with her family here.

The ladies in our midst are busy burning leaves, and cleaning up for Thanksgiving.

Our new highway by Maxwell Mill soon be completed. The convicts, and the entire crew seemed to enjoy the cold drinks served by Mr. Maxwell, who is a real friend to all.

Show Decrease In Welfare Cases

Raleigh.—It has been announced by the State Board of Charities and Public Welfare that during October 23,075 needy persons received a total of $178,108.01 through the provisions of two sections of North Carolina's Social Security program.

The report showed that 14,925 aged needy persons received $136,069.59, while 8,150 dependent children were recipients of $42,038.42. The state average for Old Age Assistance was $9.12, while that for Aid to Dependent Children amounted to $5.16.

During September 11,777 needy aged received $106,973.82 for an average of $9.08, and 6,501 dependent children were awarded $32,861.99, an average of $5.05 per child.

In October, Guilford County led in both divisions with 902 aged persons getting a total of $12,229.87, an average of $13.56, and 448 children receiving $3,875.50 for an average of $8.20.

Camden County was low in both divisions, paying out only $118 to 12 aged persons for an average of $9.83, and $15 to one dependent child.

More Duplin County farmers have planted winter cover crops this fall than in any previous season.

Auto License on Sale December 1

Raleigh.—Owners of automobiles throughout North Carolina will receive registration cards for the new year about December 1, according to information given out at the State Department of Revenue, which is preparing to issue license tags for 1938 to the largest number of cars ever to operate over the state's highways.

Clerks in the department are preparing the cards and mailing them out as rapidly as possible.

Under the new schedule of license tag prices adopted by the 1937 General Assembly car owners will be able to get their tags for slightly lower prices this year than in the past. Tags will be on sale and may be used on automobiles after December 1, it has been announced.

But while there has been a reduction in the licensing fee, there has so far been no reduction in the tax on the fuel these cars use and there still remains the threat of diversion of a large amount from state highway funds to other purposes, according to S. Gilmer Sparger, Secretary of the North Carolina Petroleum Industries Committee, with headquarters here.

"Under our revenue act, diversion is dependent upon other revenues of the state," said Mr. Sparger, who was a member of the 1937 State Senate. "If other revenues are not sufficient to meet appropriations the budget bureau is authorized to tap the highway funds to the extent of $2,000,000. This should not be the case," he continued, "for if we continue the practice of diversion, North Carolina will soon be in the same boat with Massachusetts, which has been warned by the Federal Bureau of Public Roads that it will lose $1,000,000 per year federal aid unless diversion of $8,000,000 in highway funds, authorized in the dying moments of the legislature, is avoided."

Eastern visitors to the 1939 World's Fair on San Francisco Bay will have a choice of seven major transcontinental routes.
