Regional Staff Increased by 2
 C. Carter Chase, of Whitestone, Va., and Sterling S. Landess, of Fayetteville, Tenn., have arrived in Raleigh to assume duties assigned to them in the Regional offices here in connection with the new farm tenant program, George S. Mitchell, Regional Director of the Farm Security Administration has announced.

These are the only new additions necessary in the regional staff on account of the new work, the Regional Director said, the work in connection with the new program to assist tenants to become home owners being largely absorbed by existing FSA personnel.

These two men are assigned to the Rural Rehabilitation Division of which J. B. Slack is Assistant Regional Director in charge. Mr. Chase has been designated chief of the Farm Tenant Loan Section of that Division and Mr. Landess, Assistant Chief.

Mr. Chase took his B. S. in Agriculture at V. P. I. and for the past 15 years has been connected with the Agricultural Extension Service in Virginia, as County Agent and District Agent. Mr. Landess is a former District Rural Rehabilitation Supervisor for Tennessee and Western N. C. following his graduation from the University of Tennessee.
