DUPLIN, WARSAW—
Fibber McGee and Molly, who have tickled the risibilities of millions with their wholesome fun over the ether waves, will be heard and seen for the first time in "This Way Please," which comes to the Duplin theatre Monday December 20th. Jack Benny's radio star, Mary Livingstone, also makes her screen debut in the picture. With Ned Sparks, Betty Grable, and Buddy Rogers, this picture bids fair to rank as tops among the better musicals.
"Hold 'Em Navy" the picture which has been rated as the best and truest picture of the U. S. Naval Academy, comes to the Duplin screen Tuesday to thrill the hearts of thousands. The picture boasts some good acting by Lew Ayres, Mary Carlisle, John Howard, Benny Baker and Elizabeth Patterson.
Thursday marks the advent of a great picture to the screen of the Duplin Theatre, Deanna Durbin and Adolphe Menjou, in "100 Men and a Girl." Little Deanna Durbin, golden voice of the screen, plays the part of the daughter of a very good, but shiftless man, Adolphe Menjou, who is continual ly getting into trouble with his unemployed musician friends. Follow the intricate plot of this unusually good picture and hear beautiful songs and soul-stirring music, such as is not often found in a motion picture.

Love as primitive as the forest, as undying as the mountains marks Rex Beach's "The Barrier," story of the great north woods, one of the greatest films of all time. This story comes to the Duplin theatre with an all star cast headed by Leo Carrillo in his first great dramatic role Saturday.

CHOCOLATE
Mr. Joe C. Maxwell is very feeble, he is confined to his bed part of the time.
Mr. Durham Grady, who was injured in a wreck recently, and was taken to a Kinston hospital, returned to his home in Chocolate Sunday afternoon. We hope for him a speedy recovery.
Mr. Walter J. Rhue left for Los Angeles California, Saturday A. M. He accompanied his brother who is a lawyer of that place.
Mr. R. G. Maxwell visited his brother J. C. Maxwell and other relatives in Chocolate Monday afternoon. William Outlaw was a long too, to see that he didn't use his two crutches too much. Uncle Bob is just as jolly as ever since his accident, in fact he seems to be growing younger everyday.
Mr. John William Gooding and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rhue made a business trip to Kinston Friday night.
Mrs. Herman Outlaw, "Posie" visited Mrs. Mabel Holt Friday afternoon. It's always such a pleasure to have her in the home.
Miss Annie Maxwell and Mrs. Magnus Outlaw made a business trip to Goldsboro Saturday afternoon.
Christmas is just around the corner now. "Old Santa" has even come to town to look around and find out what the children want. Now all of you little tots must be sweet to him and you should hang up an extra stocking for him the night before Xmas with a little gift for him, he likes to be remembered too.
Several of our relatives in the colder regions plan to spend the holidays in Chocolate. Dr. S. P. Watson and family; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holt of New York City, Rommie Holt of Chicago and others. We hope to have them present.
Maxwell's Mill has been frozen over, which, indicates cold weather.
Among those visiting Mrs. Mabel Holt Sunday night were: Misses Annie Maxwell, Ruth Denning, Aida Kornegay, Louis Keatheley, M. L. Grady, Ben Frank Outlaw, Hildreth Kornegay, J. F. Williamson and J. Johnson. So pleasant to have them all.
Mrs. W. J. Rhue and children are with her parents while Mr. Rhue is gone to California.
There was an awful wreck at Pink Hill Friday night, one man killed and another in an unconscious condition. Blake was the name of one, and they were both identified and their people notified. They lived near Wilmington. Our sympathy goes out to their loved ones.
Miss Annie Maxwell, Mrs. Mabel Holt and Hildreth Kornegay visited Mrs. J. C. Maxwell and family a while Sunday night.
Mr. John Dave Grady has purchased the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rhue in highway No. 111, known as the Putsey Grady place, and will be moving into it in the near future. Mr. Rhue may settle in California.
When our "Duplin TIMES" is published next week, Christmas will be here. So right here this writer will take time to say to all, Merry Christmas to everybody, every-where, and a very happy new year and may it be prosperous.
Let's all Call "Three Cheers" for our Editor, Robert Grady and his entire staff for the work they are doing in making it possible to have and read one of the best little papers published, The DUPLIN TIMES.

B'Ville Lawyer Becomes Father
Grady "Red" Mercer, well-known Beulaville attorney, returned this week from Lancaster, S. C., to report the birth of a bouncing baby girl to his wife, the former Miss Mary Scarborough, of Lancaster, last Thursday, December 9th. Both mother and child are reported as getting along well.
Mrs. Mercer has been spending some time with her mother in Lancaster in expectation of the arrival of the little visitor, who is to be named Ella Ross.
