CROP PRODUCTION LOANS

At 5 Cent Per Year

I am glad to announce to the farmers of this section that I have made arrangement with—whereby they will loan money, on proper security, for crop production purposes at less than one-half of one per cent per month.

Four County Agricultural Credit Corporation, Dunn, N. C.

There will be no stock to buy in the Corporation, no inspection fees to pay, as is necessary when borrowing through other lending agencies. See me at once—and let me explain my money-saving plan more fully.

My Office, Mount Olive, N. C.

MANY ATTEND J. F. CROOM FUNERAL IN MAGNOLIA SUN.

Magnolia.—Funeral services for John F. Croom, 80, were held at the home, Sunday, January 3, at 3 P. M., conducted by Rev. E. C. Chambers, pastor of the local Baptist church, assisted by Rev. J. B. Clark, Methodist pastor of Farmville.

An immense crowd of relatives and friends from many sections of Eastern Carolina, estimated at about six hundred, attended the funeral of this prominent business man, who has meant more to the laboring people of Magnolia, than any former or present citizen. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Leah Robinson Croom, five daughters, Mrs. E. B. Hunter, Mrs. J. M. Harris and Miss Louise Croom, of Farmville, and Mrs. Edwin Jenkins, of Fair Bluff, and two sons, John B. Croom, of Magnolia, and Forest Croom, of Wilmington.

Active pallbearers were J. W. Hofter, Wallace; J. Herbert Horne, Goldsboro; L. D. Dail, M. T. Pickett, E. C. Wilson, J. B. Tucker, O. G. Bradshaw, L. M. Sanderson, Magnolia.

Honorary pallbearers were: L. A. Readey, L. V. Wells, J. W. McGowan, Henry Dail, Kenansville, Henry Stevens, Jr., George B. Bennett, E. D. Johnson, J. T. Graham, Warsaw; J. A. Harrell, A. G. Smith, J. S. Carr, Robert M. Carr, pathy.

The chairman, Mrs. L. E. Hule, called the meeting to order with a beautiful reading, and conducted of the Bible Study from the Book of Hebrews.

The topic of the program was, "Fresh Fruits From Afar."

This program was led by Mrs. D. E. Best, and was of much interest because of the effect of war conditions upon foreign missions. Meadames J. T. Graham and Ben Bowden assisted Mrs. Best in presenting the program.

Those attending were: Meadames L. B. Hule, D. E. Best, J. C. Robinson, J. W. Farrior, E. P. Edwards, J. T. Graham, Ben Bowden, L. Rackley, F. P. Fonvielle and Miss Annie Ross Williams.

After the program the hostess served delicious ice box cake with cream and coffee. The plates were lovely with little bouquets of violets and quince.

PHILLIPS-DAVIS

Miss Ruby Herring Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Davis, of Goldsboro, to Andrew Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Phillips, of Warsaw, on December 26 in Raleigh. At home, Warsaw.

BEAR MARSH

Miss Anna Brock, of Warsaw, is spending a few days here with relatives.

Mrs. Emma Fato and daughter Miss Christine Fato, of Doris, and Beverly Brock returned home last Friday from Bamberg, S. C., where they spent several days with Mrs. Fato's sister, Mrs. Joe Reed.

Miss Mary Brodgen returned to Flora McDonald College, Red Springs, Tuesday, to resume her studies there.

Boyd Walker left Tuesday for Campbell College after spending the holidays here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walker.

Mrs. Dora Swinson and daughter, Miss Mary Swinson, and Benjie Bell, visited at Mr. and Mrs.

W. B. Kivorian, W. L. Syrd, Wallace; E. B. Murray, E. F. Blanchard, J. M. Jernum, Stokes Wells, T. A. Barden, Roschill; Dr. B. F. Quinn, A. D. West, J. P. Tucker, E. B. Gaylor, J. A. Smith, L. F. Byrd, T. M. Rogers, E. G. Garris, L. F. Wilson, F. D. Scott, Willie West, Jada Kivorian and Jethro Johnson, Magnolia.

The flower girls were the intermediates of the Baptist and Methodist churches. The floral offerings were perhaps the most profuse ever seen in Magnolia, which was fitting, as Mr. Croom was such a great lover of flowers, and had brightened thousands of homes in this country and abroad with bulbs grown by him and his son J. B. Croom, and hosts of relatives and friends banded the room in the home encircling the casket and completely covering the grave and a circle around it.

Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Brown, of Raleigh, assisted the local choir with music. Mrs. Brown at the piano and Mrs. Brown as leading soprano. She also sang a solo, "It is Well With My Soul." Other songs by the choir were, "How Firm A Foundation," and "Abide With Me."

Mr. Croom will be keenly missed by a host of friends and in his family, to whom we extend sympathy.

Joe King's, of Rones Chapel last Sunday.

Messrs. C. C. Ivey, John Vase, Levi Swanson and Miss Eva Vase, of Sumner's Cross Road, visited Miss Annie Swinson last Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Rose and baby, Libby, were weekend guests of Mrs. Rose's mother, Mrs. Sudie Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Southerland moved near Warsaw last week. We regret very much to lose them from our community.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wynn, and little son, of Oxford, returned holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davis.

Among those visiting Miss Annie Swinson Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Phillips, of Trenton, Master Billy Tyndall, of Mt. Olive; Aldine Whitfield, of Rones Chapel and Miss Eunice Walker, of Smith's Chapel.
