THE DUCK

The duck flew high up in the air, without a fear or care. The hunter lay low in the grass. He saw the duck as he flew past. The hunter planned to try his luck. The bullet whizzed, but missed the duck.

The duck then flew on to a pond. To find his friend, the snow white swan.

On the way he met his mate. Who took him to a nearby lake. Then they heard a lively clucking.

Of a hen, then saw some ducklings. Three, the fuzzy little balls. Then they saw him each and all. Soon they'd each learn how to fly. And they'd leave them by and by.

—Jesse Wilson, 6th Grade.

WANOCA :: WALLACE ::

"Tovarich," the world-famous comedy dealing with an exiled Russian Prince and Grand Duchess, which has been playing on the stage all over civilization for several years comes in film form to the new Wanoca next Monday and Tuesday.

Starring Claudette Colbert and Charles Boyer, it is said to be the most massive and expensive production that Warner Bros. have turned out since "Anthony Adverse" and "The Charge of the Light Brigade." The director selected to handle the making of the immense production was Anatole Litvak, Russian-born genius who several years ago in France made the highly successful "Be Mine Tonight."

Anton Grot designed the settings for "Tovarich." The largest one, a copy of the Belleville section in Paris, covered two acres and cost $60,000 to build.

Besides the players already named, the cast includes such popular actors and actresses as Basil Rathbone, Morris Carnovsky, Melville Cooper, Montagu Love, Heather Thatcher and Reine Riano.

The books in the central and grade libraries have been cleaned and mended.

Around one hundred and sixty new books and one unabridged dictionary have recently been added to the library. The securing of these books was made possible by the cooperation of the P. T. A. with the county and State aid.

DR. KOONCE AT ROSEHILL SCHOOL

Dr. E. T. Koonce spent four days in Rosehill school examining and treating children. Seventy-seven children were examined and given some form of treatment. Forty-one had teeth filled, seventeen had teeth extracted, and seven had their ears cleaned. There were 193 treatments in all including the silver nitrate treatments. There were no children who were not in need of the dentist's services.

Dr. Koonce did a very helpful piece of work, because there were many children, who would never have had the opportunity to visit a dentist.

DUPLIN :: WARSAW ::

WITH Edward G. Robinson in the title role, and James Stewart and Rose Stradner, glamorous new discovery from Vienna, in the romantic leads, "The Last Gangster," stirring drama of a man's term in prison, comes to the Duplin Theatre next Tuesday.

Robinson plays a gangster who serves ten years while his wife hides her identity to save their child from disgrace. Prison riots, a grim trip in a prison car, penitentiary life, gangland intrigues, dramatic action in newspaper offices and other vivid scenes form the background for the central romance.

The dramatic highlight is the scene in which Miss Stradner, as the disillusioned wife, tells Robinson that she must disappear with their child to save the baby from his father's disgrace. She encounters a newspaper man, played by Stewart, who not only falls in love with her, but saves her life and that of her child.

"Sailor" Vincent, Hollywood stunt man and bit player, was the happiest member of the Warner Bros. troupe on location at the U. S. Naval Base at San Diego, where "Submarine D-1," the melodrama that comes to the Duplin theatre next Thursday and Friday, was in production under the direction of Lloyd Bacon.

San Diego was one of Vincent's old stamping grounds when he was in the Navy and when he was for several years heavyweight champion boxer of Uncle Sam's fleet.

Although Vincent has been an actor for seven years, his reputation as a fighter is still good among the enlisted men and so far none of the younger generation has challenged him to defend his former honors.

Movie director Bobby Connolly, formerly of Broadway show fame, isn't so severe on press agents and newspaper men as some of his contemporaries, when he characterizes them in a picture.

In his current Warner Bros. comedy, "Expensive Husbands," which shows at the owl show next Saturday night at the Duplin theatre, a press agent, who plays an important part (the story being that of a Hollywood movie actress who is very much in the news) eats peanuts while talking to folks, instead of appearing as a drunk. Allyn Joslyn, who played the part, consumed about half a bushel of the goobers in one day's scenes and needed neither luncheon nor dinner.

MAGNOLIA

Mrs. L. E. Pope has returned from a visit to her mother and sisters in Pa.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrews were his brother, Mr. Raymon Andrews and wife of Clinton and Mr. and Mrs. Hillie Justice of Faison.

Mrs. J. I. Thorne of Farmville visited her mother, Mrs. Leah Croom last week.

Miss Elizabeth Girie is back on duty as third grade teacher in our school after an absence of two months on account of a fall she had back some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Sheffield are moving in town and are at home with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. John Earl Brown of Rosehill spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Mary Haste.

Aria Tucker entertained about twenty of her friends at a birthday party Friday afternoon. After enjoying games and frolics, Mrs. Tucker and Miss Elizabeth Tucker served the guests to cocoa, cake and fruits.

Mrs. Lester Matthews has had a second stroke of paralysis and her condition is quite critical. No hope is held for her recovery. Her son, Andrew of Chapel Hill is again with her. Lawson and James had not left her.

Several cases of the measles in town. We hope that we will not have an epidemic and have to close school.

Mrs. A. C. Camache and daughter, Kathleen of Wilmington spent Saturday afternoon with her sister, Mrs. C. V. Joyner.

Two showers were given for the newly wed, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Potter last week. Mrs. F. O. Hollingsworth gave one at her home Thursday night, and Mrs. Potter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Quinn gave one at their home Friday night.

A shower was recently given Mr. and Mrs. Bob Everett at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Lanier.

Rev. Mr. Andrews filled his appointment in the Methodist Church Sunday night, and delivered a fine sermon. He stressed the point to all church members that a church never rises above the membership and laid on the members the responsibility of making a strong church.

The Sunbeam Band of the Baptist church held a most enthusiastic meeting Sunday morning with 34 members present, eight visitors and two new members. They planned their Golden Jubilee work for the year, and the children were "jubilant" over their plans. Goldie Culbreth was appointed general Jubilee chairman with several others to assist her. Ethel Merritt was appointed membership chairman with Verley and Melrose Quinn. Ester Baker was made attendance chairman, with Mattie Bell Register and Daffney Bradshaw and Susie Lee Spell was made finance chairman with Clara Maye Baker and K. Taylor, Martha Emily Chestnut, Personal Service chairman, with Jean Wilson and Nazarene Strickland. Kenneth Johnson was appointed to read the Scripture in the meetings, and Pauline Jones, a group leader. The singing was unusually good with Eldred Evans at the piano. Several of the G. A.'s assisted in the meeting. Miss Macy Cox, leader, called on Mrs. F. W. Johnson for a short talk, and in impressive manner she spoke on the importance of being faithful to the work, commencing by Miss Cox and to be placed for each cent this year.

GIRLS AUXILIARY OBSERVED AGED WOMAN ON BIRTHDAY

The Girl's Auxiliary of the Baptist church cheered the heartily dear "Aunt Fannie" Wilson on her birthday and ten bright faced girls rushed in her room singing "Happy Birthday." They sang many of her favorite songs, filled her lap with love gifts, chatted awhile and as they were leaving sang, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." Everybody loves Aunt Fannie, and her bright smiles and gentle words makes everyone who goes to see her feel that "it was good to be there."

HARDLY CHEAPER

"Scientifically speaking coal is of the same composition as the diamond."

"Still, it is only a carbon copy."

NICE IRON HOBBIE!

"Hallo, where have you been?"

"To the station to see my wife off for a month's holiday."

"But how black your hands are!"

"Yes, I patted the engine."
