

NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST

returned from her home in Columbia, where she spent a few days during the illness and death of her uncle.

Mrs. C. F. Howes and children, Charlie and Betty, spent Thursday with Mrs. J. Luther Powell in Wallace.

Dr. A. R. Mallard of Goldsboro, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mallard Sunday.

CIRCLE MEETINGS

The three circles of the Presbyterian Auxiliary met on Wednesday afternoon, January 12. Circle No. 1 was entertained by Mrs. Sallie and Mary Lou Wilkins.

Mrs. M. P. Allen and Misses Sallie and Mary Lou Wilkins spent Saturday night in Red Springs. Miss Carolyn Brinkley, a member of the local school faculty, has held in the home of Miss Emory

Turner. The subject of the program for the meeting was, "Fresh Blood from Afer," and the Book of Hebrews was used for Bible study. Each hostess served refreshments. The circles of the Baptist W. M. S. held their monthly meetings on Wednesday afternoon, January 12. The Katie Murray Circle was entertained by Mrs. L. W. Williams, circle chairman, and the members of the Rosa Houghton Powell circle met with their chairman, Mrs. J. E. Pope.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

Mrs. E. C. Marshall, E. L. Lanier, and J. B. Rouse entertained the Rosehill Woman's Club on Wednesday afternoon, January 19, in the home of Mrs. Marshall.

After the business session, the following program on Folk Music prepared by Mrs. L. K. Alderman and Mrs. H. C. Marshall was given: Song, "Old Folks at Home," by club. Discussion concerning folk music by Mrs. D. B. Herring. Songs, "Deep River," and "Steal Away," by Mesdames L. K. Alderman, J. T. Denning, W. I. Rouse, and Ward Farrior; vocal solos, "Swannanoa Tunnel" and "Wish I Were a Mole," by Mrs. C. F. Howes; song, "Froggy Went a-Courting," by club.

At the close of the program, refreshments were served by the hostesses.

of National Safety Bureau: "Practically all accidents are preventable by greater caution on the part of those involved."

WARSAW SOCIETY, PERSONALS

WARSAW PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY MEETS

The January Meeting of the Presbyterian Auxiliary was held in the church Sunday afternoon, with the President, Mrs. B. C. Sheffield, presiding.

The poem, "My Purpose for 'A New Date'" was her theme and this message brought courage to each one for the tasks of the year.

Plans were made for a special "The Year" was used as the call to worship. An inspiring devotional was led by Mrs. L. B. Huie. Study of the book of Ephesians in February, and Jan 30-Feb 6 was announced as the week of prayer for Foreign Missions.

An important program on Foreign Missions was led by Mrs. W. J. Middleton. She told something of the effect of the war in China on our Mission work in that country. The most distressing news was of the burning of our own Worth Hospital in Kiangyin, China. The meeting closed with prayers for the Foreign Mission Work.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Vickery, Miss Ruth Weistel and Miss Hester Anne Farrior, visited in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Farrior Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Potter spent the week end with Mrs. Potter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gresham. Mrs. James Strickland visited her sister, Mrs. J. L. Orsman in New Bern last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Teacher of Rosehill were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Best Sunday. Bill Carroll, Charlie Sheffield, Nickie Kannon, Mrs. Ida Sutton, Mrs. J. C. Robinson, Mrs. Bill Taylor motored to Wilmington Sunday to look over the M. S. British Battleship.

Circle No. 1 of the M. S. Church met in the home of Mrs. D. L. Carlton Monday afternoon. Mrs. Wayne Jordan conducted the devotional, taken from Luke 9:60. Business was planned for the year work.

The Sallie E. Johnston Bible Class of the M. S. Church met at the home of Mrs. Wayne Jordan last week, the new officers for the coming year are: President, Mrs. Joe Surratt, Vice-President, Mrs. C. F. Carroll, Secretary, Mrs. C. W. Surratt, Teacher, Mrs. E. B. Hinman. Special features of the social hour was Ventriloquist performed by Franklin Thomas, dummy, "Willie McGoogan, Contest winner Mrs. J. K. Rice served date pudding, whipped cream, nuts and coffee.

BUCK-HINES

Miss Martha Hines and William McGilvrey Buck, both of Warsaw, were married Thursday afternoon, January 19, at 4:00 P. M., at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hines, on Hill Street. The Rev. D. L. Jones of the Presbyterian church officiated, using the ring ceremony. An improvised altar, with background of ferns and palms was arranged in the east end of the reception room. The mantles were banked with melior Begonia, fern, and smilax. Elsewhere throughout the receiving rooms, southern smilax was used in profusion. Mrs. J. E. Williams, aunt of the bride, furnished the following nuptial music: "Love's Confiding," Farrar; "Simple Confession," Thome; "Ave Maria," January Mascagni; Processional from Lo-hengrin "Bridal Chorus," Wagner; during the ceremony, "O, Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star" from Wagner's Tannhauser was played; Mendelssohn's Wedding March was used as recessional.

Little "Boots" Maroney, dressed in yellow taffeta, carried a basket showered with yellow streamers. George Bennett, Jr., dressed in brown, carried the ring in a calla lily. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Elizabeth Hines, who wore an afternoon dress of ashes of roses, with mink lace of matching shade, brown accessories, and carried an arm bouquet of gerberas, Fisher carnations pink roses and sweet peas, tied with pink and lavender net. The bride wore a costume suit of Forst-Hoffman wool, Indian ruse, cross-fox collar, a veiled velvet cone hat, and other accessories of brown; her corsage was of brown orchids and lilies of the valley, tied with gold. The mother of the bride wore brown velvet with a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Marie Buck-Bennett, the groom's mother, were wine, velvet. Her corsage was a blue and white. Her bridesmaid, Mrs. J. L. Orsman, was dressed in a graduate of East Carolina Teachers' College (W. E. T. C.) Greenville. The groom graduated with honor from Riverside Military Academy. He is proprietor of the new drug store in Warsaw. After a trip to Florida the couple will be at home here.

A reception followed the ceremony. Mrs. W. P. Bridges and Miss Nell Bowden repaired at the front door. Mrs. W. F. Blodgett had charge of the register. Mrs. Wayne Jordan, Mrs. J. K. Rice, Mrs. J. A. Wilson received in the dining room where reception cake and coffee were served. The bride was centered with a silver bow of bride's roses, gerbera and fern; on each side were lighted tapers tied with net and valley lilies, in silver tapes of graduated height. As guests left, they were presented small silver boxes containing slices of wedding cake, by Mesdames Clarence Brown and Herbert Best, Jr.

Mattie Cleo Jarman Passes Away

Mattie Cleo Jarman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jarman of near Beulaville, died at her home Friday morning about 10:00 o'clock from pneumonia and other complications. The child was born April 24, 1932.

Funeral services were conducted in the Hallsville Presbyterian Church by the pastor of the family, Rev. F. L. Goodman, with interment in the cemetery by the church.

The deceased is survived by her father and mother and two brothers: Delma and Clifton, both younger than she was.

MRS. MARY GRACE CANFIELD

Mrs. Mary Grace Canfield, well known in North Carolina and in the New England states will speak at the Sunday Morning Service at the Community Church, Universalist at Outlaw's Bridge, January 23. Mrs. Canfield will speak on the History and the Adoption of the Constitution of the United States. Service will begin at 11 o'clock.

Special invitations have been mailed to teachers in the surrounding schools and to all those students and especially interested in American history.

MELVIN J. MAAS, Member of Congress from Minnesota: "An adequate navy will be far less expensive than a war which may result from a weak navy."

WILLIAM E. BORAH, U. S. Senator from Idaho: "I can see no recovery for a vast portion of our people so long as private interests fix prices, thereby continuing to deplete purchasing power."

THOMAS REED POWELL, professor

"When constitutional monarchs misbehave, something may have to be done about it."

Are You Reddy
FOR winter's social whirl! Be sure you're neat as a pin, and you will be popular wherever you go!

GOLDWAYNE LAUNDRY & DRY CLEANERS
Goldsboro, N. C.

Our truck is in Calypso, Paison, Warsaw, Magnolia, Rosehill, and Kenansville each Tuesday and Thursday, Mr. Riggs, Driver.

Something To Steer
GAUGE your expenditures by what you're earning every time.

Warsaw Drug Company
Warsaw, N. C.

ROOSEVELT BIRTHDAY BALL

DANCE

WARSAW

THURS. NIGHT JAN. 27TH.

THOMPSON GYMNASIUM

PAUL JONES

AND HIS ORCHESTRA

Sponsored By The Warm Springs Foundation
All profits go to Foundation to Fight Infantile Paralysis.
Script: $1.00 to Everybody

DUPLIN THEATRE
WARSAW, N. C.

Program Week of January 24th—

MONDAY, January 24th. One Day Only —
"Second Honeymoon"
With Tyrone POWER and Loretta YOUNG

TUESDAY ONLY, January 25th —
JACK POT $30.00
"Night Club Scandal"
With John Barrymore, Lynne Overman, Charles Bickford

WEDNESDAY, January 26th —
The First Picture of the South Seas Ever Filmed in Color.
"Ebb Tide"
With Oscar HOMOLKA, Frances FARMER, Ray MILLAND

THUR. & FRI., Jan. 27th-28th —
New Songs, New Steps, New Laughs in
"A Damsel in Distress"
Starring Fred Astaire, George Burns, Gracie Allen

SATURDAY, January 29th —
Double Feature Starting at 1:30
"Whistling Bullets"
Starring Kermit Maynard
"Judge Priest"
Starring Will Rogers

COMING ATTRACTIONS: "Perfect Specimen," "Navy Blue and Gold," "Texas Trail," "Merry Go Round," "Murder of Greenwich Village."