

SMALL NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST

Mr. E. T. Allen and son, Jim, spent the week end with...

Miss Emma Hanna, of Goldsboro, was a recent visitor here from W. C. N. U.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Fussell stopped in Goldsboro Friday. They were accompanied by Miss Betty Fussell.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stokes and baby, of Kenansville, visited Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Teachey, Sunday afternoon.

Miss Virginia Slaughter, of Goldsboro, was the week end guest of Miss Mildred Stanley.

Billy Blanchard, State College Student, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Blanchard.

James Newkirk, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Newkirk, who had an appendicitis operation at Wilmington, is getting along very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Fussell and Miss Betty Fussell left Monday morning for Florida, where they will spend a few weeks.

Miss Elva Horton, of Rocky Mt., spent the weekend with Mrs. L. A. Wilson.

Miss Virginia Ward, of Raleigh, recently visited her mother, Mrs. Berta Ward.

Miss Lila May Carr, who has been a patient in James Walker Hospital for some time is still seriously ill.

Mrs. J. C. Mallard, Jr., spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Yelverton, near Fremont.

Ivey Hanes, who had an appendicitis operation in James Walker Hospital recently, is improving.

Harvey Boney, Jr., who is a student at W. C. N. U., spent the weekend at home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Herring, of Goldsboro, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jordan, of Wilmington, were guests of Mrs. B. D. Herring, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Herring and B. G. Herring spent Sunday with Mrs. Aiva Herring, near Seven Springs.

Mrs. Annie Usher, of the Concord community is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. E. L. Harrell spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. P. S. Newton, in Wallace.

Miss Martha B. Yelverton visited her parents in Stantonsburg during the weekend.

Mrs. W. B. McGee, of Rocky Mount, recently spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Belle Sellers.

Mrs. Lon Smith spent the weekend in Clinton.

Mrs. E. F. Williams, M. F. Allen, Herbert Cottle, J. H. Barnes and Miss Bessie Johnson attended a Baptist W. M. S. meeting of the Wilmington association in Wallace one day last week.

Mrs. E. L. Harrell spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. P. S. Newton, in Wallace.

Miss Martha B. Yelverton visited her parents in Stantonsburg during the weekend.

Mrs. W. B. McGee, of Rocky Mount, recently spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Belle Sellers.

Mrs. Lon Smith spent the weekend in Clinton.

Mrs. E. F. Williams, M. F. Allen, Herbert Cottle, J. H. Barnes and Miss Bessie Johnson attended a Baptist W. M. S. meeting of the Wilmington association in Wallace one day last week.

Mrs. E. L. Harrell spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. P. S. Newton, in Wallace.

Miss Martha B. Yelverton visited her parents in Stantonsburg during the weekend.

Mrs. W. B. McGee, of Rocky Mount, recently spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Belle Sellers.

Mrs. Lon Smith spent the weekend in Clinton.

Mrs. E. F. Williams, M. F. Allen, Herbert Cottle, J. H. Barnes and Miss Bessie Johnson attended a Baptist W. M. S. meeting of the Wilmington association in Wallace one day last week.

Mrs. E. L. Harrell spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. P. S. Newton, in Wallace.

Miss Martha B. Yelverton visited her parents in Stantonsburg during the weekend.

Mrs. W. B. McGee, of Rocky Mount, recently spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Belle Sellers.

Mrs. Lon Smith spent the weekend in Clinton.

Mrs. E. F. Williams, M. F. Allen, Herbert Cottle, J. H. Barnes and Miss Bessie Johnson attended a Baptist W. M. S. meeting of the Wilmington association in Wallace one day last week.

Mrs. E. L. Harrell spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. P. S. Newton, in Wallace.

Miss Martha B. Yelverton visited her parents in Stantonsburg during the weekend.

Mrs. W. B. McGee, of Rocky Mount, recently spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Belle Sellers.

Mrs. Lon Smith spent the weekend in Clinton.

Mrs. E. F. Williams, M. F. Allen, Herbert Cottle, J. H. Barnes and Miss Bessie Johnson attended a Baptist W. M. S. meeting of the Wilmington association in Wallace one day last week.

Mrs. E. L. Harrell spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. P. S. Newton, in Wallace.

Miss Martha B. Yelverton visited her parents in Stantonsburg during the weekend.

Mrs. W. B. McGee, of Rocky Mount, recently spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Belle Sellers.

Mrs. Lon Smith spent the weekend in Clinton.

Mrs. E. F. Williams, M. F. Allen, Herbert Cottle, J. H. Barnes and Miss Bessie Johnson attended a Baptist W. M. S. meeting of the Wilmington association in Wallace one day last week.

Mrs. E. L. Harrell spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. P. S. Newton, in Wallace.

Miss Martha B. Yelverton visited her parents in Stantonsburg during the weekend.

Mrs. W. B. McGee, of Rocky Mount, recently spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Belle Sellers.

Mrs. Lon Smith spent the weekend in Clinton.

Life and Death

By J. P. PHILLIPS
In The News and Observer

Rosehill, Jan. 23.—Friends hope that the storm will not be repeated, but they have been smiling since Christmas with "Aunt Sarah."

"Aunt Sarah" is Mrs. Sarah Wells, 37 years old, and she lives in the home of a nephew, Daniel Williams, who accident occurred when Mrs. Wells slipped at the top of stairs. She did not recover because of reaching the first floor, where she promptly recovered her senses with "I can walk."

Small and spry, quick-witted, laughing and sweet, Mrs. Wells takes life as a great adventure. Her smiles and happy talk are revealing.

Mrs. Wells says that her husband, the late Daniel Wells, who was also from Duplin County, served through the entire Civil War. She recently attending a ball at the old Adams School for Boys in Magnolia when her future husband was a member of the regiment.

Mrs. Wells' closest living relatives are a granddaughter and great granddaughter in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Ringer is a lawyer, married a lawyer and has a lawyer for her father-in-law. Mrs. Ringer, formerly Miss Gladys Wells, attended high school in Clinton, was a high ranking student at M. C. C. W. Greenboro, and graduated in 1924 as the first law student at Ann Arbor, Mich. Five years ago when Mrs. Wells was 82, she made a two-way bus trip to see her granddaughter and reached each destination without a jar to her health.

Mrs. Helen Marsh Best was the guest of her cousin, Mary Graham Herring of Rocky Mount Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Pridgen and Catherine Pridgen spent the week end with their daughter, Mrs. E. Wilson Shoulers of Rich Square.

Miss Edith Surratt returned to Greensboro after a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Surratt.

Mr. Eland Pickett visited relatives in Marion, S. C., last week. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Miss Hatch, Mrs. Baker's sister to our town from Clayton. Also Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pettey and two small children from Magnolia.

Those attending the M. E. Missionary Institute, Grace Church, in Wilmington, from Warsaw were Rev. A. J. Andrews, Mrs. Eland Pickett, Mrs. C. W. Surratt, Mrs. Charlie Carroll, Mrs. D. E. Carlton, and Mrs. Park Pridgen.

Mrs. G. B. Bennett entertained at a lovely tea Thursday afternoon, at her home on Hill Street, honoring Mrs. McGilvray Rank, recent bride.

Mrs. W. P. Pridgen received at the door and Mrs. Herbert Best, Jr., received in the library, where punch was served by Miss Alice Stranghan and Mrs. Graham Phillips. Mrs. Ben Bowden had charge of the registration. Mrs. J. W. Purrier ushered guests from the library to the drawing room, where the receiving line was composed of Mrs. George Bennett and Mrs. R. E. Wall, Mrs. W. E. Ringer, Mrs. McGilvray Rank, Mrs. W. J. Middleton and Mrs. R. A. Cottle. Mrs. Litchfield Hule mirrored in the dining room. The dining table was covered with a late cloth, and centered with a silver urn of pink carnations placed on a reflector.

On glass candleholders holding burning tapers were placed at each end of the table.

Mrs. Henry Stephens, Jr., and Mrs. E. B. Johnson sat at table and served bride's cake and pink and white cream. Mrs. R. E. Best poured coffee. Mrs. Robert West, Mrs. F. E. Maroney, Misses Saba and Mary Ella Bennett assisted in serving cakes, mints and nuts. Mrs. J. E. Pierce made adieu. Dainty confections in the color motif pink and white were presented each of the 150 or more guests who attended.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Life and Death

By J. P. PHILLIPS
In The News and Observer

Rosehill, Jan. 23.—Friends hope that the storm will not be repeated, but they have been smiling since Christmas with "Aunt Sarah."

"Aunt Sarah" is Mrs. Sarah Wells, 37 years old, and she lives in the home of a nephew, Daniel Williams, who accident occurred when Mrs. Wells slipped at the top of stairs. She did not recover because of reaching the first floor, where she promptly recovered her senses with "I can walk."

Small and spry, quick-witted, laughing and sweet, Mrs. Wells takes life as a great adventure. Her smiles and happy talk are revealing.

Mrs. Wells says that her husband, the late Daniel Wells, who was also from Duplin County, served through the entire Civil War. She recently attending a ball at the old Adams School for Boys in Magnolia when her future husband was a member of the regiment.

Mrs. Wells' closest living relatives are a granddaughter and great granddaughter in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Ringer is a lawyer, married a lawyer and has a lawyer for her father-in-law. Mrs. Ringer, formerly Miss Gladys Wells, attended high school in Clinton, was a high ranking student at M. C. C. W. Greenboro, and graduated in 1924 as the first law student at Ann Arbor, Mich. Five years ago when Mrs. Wells was 82, she made a two-way bus trip to see her granddaughter and reached each destination without a jar to her health.

Mrs. Helen Marsh Best was the guest of her cousin, Mary Graham Herring of Rocky Mount Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Pridgen and Catherine Pridgen spent the week end with their daughter, Mrs. E. Wilson Shoulers of Rich Square.

Miss Edith Surratt returned to Greensboro after a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Surratt.

Mr. Eland Pickett visited relatives in Marion, S. C., last week. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Miss Hatch, Mrs. Baker's sister to our town from Clayton. Also Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pettey and two small children from Magnolia.

Those attending the M. E. Missionary Institute, Grace Church, in Wilmington, from Warsaw were Rev. A. J. Andrews, Mrs. Eland Pickett, Mrs. C. W. Surratt, Mrs. Charlie Carroll, Mrs. D. E. Carlton, and Mrs. Park Pridgen.

Mrs. G. B. Bennett entertained at a lovely tea Thursday afternoon, at her home on Hill Street, honoring Mrs. McGilvray Rank, recent bride.

Mrs. W. P. Pridgen received at the door and Mrs. Herbert Best, Jr., received in the library, where punch was served by Miss Alice Stranghan and Mrs. Graham Phillips. Mrs. Ben Bowden had charge of the registration. Mrs. J. W. Purrier ushered guests from the library to the drawing room, where the receiving line was composed of Mrs. George Bennett and Mrs. R. E. Wall, Mrs. W. E. Ringer, Mrs. McGilvray Rank, Mrs. W. J. Middleton and Mrs. R. A. Cottle. Mrs. Litchfield Hule mirrored in the dining room. The dining table was covered with a late cloth, and centered with a silver urn of pink carnations placed on a reflector.

On glass candleholders holding burning tapers were placed at each end of the table.

Mrs. Henry Stephens, Jr., and Mrs. E. B. Johnson sat at table and served bride's cake and pink and white cream. Mrs. R. E. Best poured coffee. Mrs. Robert West, Mrs. F. E. Maroney, Misses Saba and Mary Ella Bennett assisted in serving cakes, mints and nuts. Mrs. J. E. Pierce made adieu. Dainty confections in the color motif pink and white were presented each of the 150 or more guests who attended.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Life and Death

By J. P. PHILLIPS
In The News and Observer

Rosehill, Jan. 23.—Friends hope that the storm will not be repeated, but they have been smiling since Christmas with "Aunt Sarah."

"Aunt Sarah" is Mrs. Sarah Wells, 37 years old, and she lives in the home of a nephew, Daniel Williams, who accident occurred when Mrs. Wells slipped at the top of stairs. She did not recover because of reaching the first floor, where she promptly recovered her senses with "I can walk."

Small and spry, quick-witted, laughing and sweet, Mrs. Wells takes life as a great adventure. Her smiles and happy talk are revealing.

Mrs. Wells says that her husband, the late Daniel Wells, who was also from Duplin County, served through the entire Civil War. She recently attending a ball at the old Adams School for Boys in Magnolia when her future husband was a member of the regiment.

Mrs. Wells' closest living relatives are a granddaughter and great granddaughter in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Ringer is a lawyer, married a lawyer and has a lawyer for her father-in-law. Mrs. Ringer, formerly Miss Gladys Wells, attended high school in Clinton, was a high ranking student at M. C. C. W. Greenboro, and graduated in 1924 as the first law student at Ann Arbor, Mich. Five years ago when Mrs. Wells was 82, she made a two-way bus trip to see her granddaughter and reached each destination without a jar to her health.

Mrs. Helen Marsh Best was the guest of her cousin, Mary Graham Herring of Rocky Mount Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Pridgen and Catherine Pridgen spent the week end with their daughter, Mrs. E. Wilson Shoulers of Rich Square.

Miss Edith Surratt returned to Greensboro after a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Surratt.

Mr. Eland Pickett visited relatives in Marion, S. C., last week. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Miss Hatch, Mrs. Baker's sister to our town from Clayton. Also Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pettey and two small children from Magnolia.

Those attending the M. E. Missionary Institute, Grace Church, in Wilmington, from Warsaw were Rev. A. J. Andrews, Mrs. Eland Pickett, Mrs. C. W. Surratt, Mrs. Charlie Carroll, Mrs. D. E. Carlton, and Mrs. Park Pridgen.

Mrs. G. B. Bennett entertained at a lovely tea Thursday afternoon, at her home on Hill Street, honoring Mrs. McGilvray Rank, recent bride.

Mrs. W. P. Pridgen received at the door and Mrs. Herbert Best, Jr., received in the library, where punch was served by Miss Alice Stranghan and Mrs. Graham Phillips. Mrs. Ben Bowden had charge of the registration. Mrs. J. W. Purrier ushered guests from the library to the drawing room, where the receiving line was composed of Mrs. George Bennett and Mrs. R. E. Wall, Mrs. W. E. Ringer, Mrs. McGilvray Rank, Mrs. W. J. Middleton and Mrs. R. A. Cottle. Mrs. Litchfield Hule mirrored in the dining room. The dining table was covered with a late cloth, and centered with a silver urn of pink carnations placed on a reflector.

On glass candleholders holding burning tapers were placed at each end of the table.

Mrs. Henry Stephens, Jr., and Mrs. E. B. Johnson sat at table and served bride's cake and pink and white cream. Mrs. R. E. Best poured coffee. Mrs. Robert West, Mrs. F. E. Maroney, Misses Saba and Mary Ella Bennett assisted in serving cakes, mints and nuts. Mrs. J. E. Pierce made adieu. Dainty confections in the color motif pink and white were presented each of the 150 or more guests who attended.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Advancing the shad season, according to fishermen who attend the shad camp will permit catching during late January and February when prices are high and will permit fishing in late April and May when water temperature is high and will permit catching the shad during the season.

Southern Echo—Gill-net fishing January 23 to April 10, and pound-net fishing January 26 to April 15.

Life and Death

By J. P. PHILLIPS
In The News and Observer

Rosehill, Jan. 23.—Friends hope that the storm will not be repeated, but they have been smiling since Christmas with "Aunt Sarah."

"Aunt Sarah" is Mrs. Sarah Wells, 37 years old, and she lives in the home of a nephew, Daniel Williams, who accident occurred when Mrs. Wells slipped at the top of stairs. She did not recover because of reaching the first floor, where she promptly recovered her senses with "I can walk."

Small and spry, quick-witted, laughing and sweet, Mrs. Wells takes life as a great adventure. Her smiles and happy talk are revealing.

Mrs. Wells says that her husband, the late Daniel Wells, who was also from Duplin County, served through the entire Civil War. She recently attending a ball at the old Adams School for Boys in Magnolia when her future husband was a member of the regiment.

Mrs. Wells' closest living relatives are a granddaughter and great granddaughter in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Ringer is a lawyer, married a lawyer and has a lawyer for her father-in-law. Mrs. Ringer, formerly Miss Gladys Wells, attended high school in Clinton, was a high ranking student at M. C. C. W. Greenboro, and graduated in 1924 as the first law student at Ann Arbor, Mich. Five years ago when Mrs. Wells was 82, she made a two-way bus trip to see her granddaughter and reached each destination without a jar to her health.

Mrs. Helen Marsh Best was the guest of her cousin, Mary Graham Herring of Rocky Mount Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Pridgen and Catherine Pridgen spent the week end with their daughter, Mrs. E. Wilson Shoulers of Rich Square.

Miss Edith Surratt returned to Greensboro after a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Surratt.

Mr. Eland Pickett visited relatives in Marion, S. C., last week. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Miss Hatch, Mrs. Baker's sister to our town from Clayton. Also Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pettey and two small children from Magnolia.

Those attending the M. E. Missionary Institute, Grace Church, in Wilmington, from Warsaw were Rev. A. J. Andrews, Mrs. Eland Pickett, Mrs. C. W. Surratt, Mrs. Charlie Carroll, Mrs. D. E. Carlton, and Mrs. Park Pridgen.

Mrs. G. B. Bennett entertained at a lovely tea Thursday afternoon, at her home on Hill Street, honoring Mrs. McGilvray Rank, recent bride.

Mrs. W. P. Pridgen received at the door and Mrs. Herbert Best, Jr., received in the library, where punch was served by Miss Alice Stranghan and Mrs. Graham Phillips. Mrs. Ben Bowden had charge of the registration. Mrs. J. W. Purrier ushered guests from the library to the drawing room, where the receiving line was composed of Mrs. George Bennett and Mrs. R. E. Wall, Mrs. W. E. Ringer, Mrs. McGilvray Rank, Mrs. W. J. Middleton and Mrs. R. A. Cottle. Mrs. Litchfield Hule mirrored in the dining room. The dining table was covered with a