

OF INTEREST

Miss Mary Edith Kessell, of Longwood College was at home on the past week end.

L. E. Wood, Jr. who is a student at Taylor Military Academy, Winchester, W. C. spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wood.

Miss Helen Williams, who is a member of the Franklin school board was at home for the past week end and had as her guest, Miss Joyce.

Miss Evelyn Brinkley spent the week end at Rocky Mount.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Joyce Williams entertained on Tuesday afternoon, celebrating her ninth birthday. Bingo was played for a while, and then a musical program was given by the hostess and the guests. Dorothy Johnson won the bingo game and Charles Marshall was voted winner in the Amateur contest.

At the close of the games, the birthday cake was out and served with coffee and whipped cream to the following guests: Katherine

Young, Joannie Tenchey, Patsy Wilson, Ruth Miller Roring, Ellen Fussell, Sally Gray Herring, Dorothy Johnson, Gwendolyn Fernald, Evelyn Harden, Janice Henry Hugh Wells, Jr., Julian Ward, Jimmie Allen, Charles Marshall and Jerome Herring.

MUSIC CLUB MEETS

The Roschill Music Club met Tuesday night, February 15, at the home of Mrs. C. F. Hawes, with Mrs. J. T. Denning as assistant hostess.

A program of "Expression in Music," prepared by Mrs. E. B. Marshall and Mrs. L. A. Wilson, was given. Mrs. Wilson gave a discussion on the program topic, and the following musical numbers were given as illustrations: Piano Solo, "Scherbert's Serenade" by Mrs. L. K. Alderman; Duet, "Song of India," by Mesdames H. C. Marshall and J. T. Denning. The hostess served a sweet course.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Reid Fussell announce the birth of a daughter in February 18.

New York — Planning to spend not less than $1,000,000 at the New York World's Fair 1939, Brazil has signed a contract for 43,000 square feet of exhibit space.

KENANSVILLE SOCIETY NEWS

MRS. N. B. BONEY Correspondent

Miss Saba Fickett accompanied Mrs. Robert Carroll Wells to Wilmington on Tuesday of this week, shopping.

Mrs. N. B. Boney accompanied Mrs. Litchfield Huie of Warsaw to Wilmington on Tuesday where they attended an Executive Board Meeting of Wilmington Presbytery which was held in the church of the Covenant.

Miss Hattie Pollock of the local school faculty spent the past week end at her home in Trenton. Misses Martha Fickett and Pattie Loftin of Raleigh spent last week end at Sarecta with James William Fickett.

Mrs. E. L. Stevens of Warsaw has been spending some time here with her mother, Mrs. L. A. Beasley who has been quite ill with bronchitis.

Mrs. John A. Gavin and Miss Martha Southerland went to Magnolia on last Saturday afternoon to visit Miss Ella Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Boney and children spent last Saturday afternoon in Wallace. Jimmy Jerritt, Jr., spent last week end at Sarecta with James Earle Jones.

Misses Elizabeth Ward and plans were made for serving supper at the Stewardship Meeting to be held in the church on March 2nd.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

The February meeting of the Kenansville Jr. Woman's Club was held on Monday night of this week in the club room at 7:30, at which time the members of the Senior Woman's club were invited guests. The president, Mrs. Robert Grady presided over the business session. The program which followed was in charge of Miss Marietta Heese, chm. of Fine Art Department. She introduced Mrs. H. C. Shelby of Goldsboro who gave a splendid musical program by playing a group of pieces from the works of Schumann, MacDonnell, and Chopin. She also gave some interesting sketches of the three composers. A social hour was enjoyed during which time, the hostesses, Misses Margaret Williams, Hattie Kornegay, Mildred Fete and Ruth Murray, served tempting refreshments.

WARSAW SOCIETY, PERSONALS

MRS. G. P. FRIDGEN Correspondent

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY OF WARSAW CHURCH

"The Secret of Leadership" was the topic of a most impressive devotional period at the opening of the Auxiliary meeting at the church on Monday afternoon. The life of Moses was used by Mrs. B. C. Sheffield to develop the subject.

The program was led by Mrs. W. E. Hines, using the topic, "The Negro — A Near and Needy Responsibility." This subject brought out the marvelous economic and educational progress of the race and the great need for more trained Christian leaders among them. Assisting in the program were Mesdames J. W. Farrier, L. B. Huie, W. F. Bridgers and Miss Nell Bowden. During the business session plans were made for serving supper at the Stewardship Meeting to be held in the church on March 2nd.

U. D. C. MEETING

The February meeting of the James Kenan Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was held in the home of Mrs. J. A. Powell, with Miss Eula Pawell, Mesdames Emma Chambers, Homer Snyder and Mrs. J. T. Gresham as hostesses.

Mrs. J. W. Farrier, local president, introduced Mrs. L. Baggett of Whiteville District President, who spoke of the chapter on the main features of the work for the year.

The general program of the year is the study of "Some Phases of the Economic Life of the Old South." The study was introduced in January by Mrs. D. E. Keat, using the topic, "The Economic Army Behind the Fighting Men."

the study was completed by a study of "The Culture of the South." This paper by Mrs. E. L. Stevens, Jr. was a commendable portrayal of the large part this group played upon the economic, social and business life of the nation.

The second paper was one on current events given by Mrs. C. A. Wood. Each time the program included one historical paper and the happenings of the day. The conclusion of the program the hostesses served a most delicious plate of chicken salad with coffee and cake. The occasion featured Washington's Birthday, and were prepared and served by Miss Hattie Chambers, Mary Ann Ruth Hood, Grace Hood, members of her Home Economics Class at grantham school.

MINERAL SPRINGS CLUB MET FEBRUARY 18TH

The meeting was held at Bowden's Pond through the courtesy of Mr. Fred Hears. He had a heater installed and the building lighted so that the club may have its monthly meeting and hold socials in the hall.

Miss Jaymie Martin gave demonstrations on the major project foods. Mrs. E. B. Hales reported the pressing need of librarian and what it would mean to the club and community. Mr. Henry Middleton gave timely reminders of the garden and its needs to every family. The club felt that Bowden Pond is a very desirable place for their club meetings and a most helpful program, that more people and the community shows a liking for it. A fish fry is given for all club families.

The Sallie E. Johnson Class held its regular meeting in the home of Miss Bland Fickett Feb. 15. Mrs. Surratt, Class president presided over the meeting with a program of the Bible Class, and the feature of the meeting was a cellanous shower given by Robert Lewis, recent bridegroom. Mary Stevenson, Mrs. Lewis' granddaughter pulled a table high with gifts into the reception room, and placed the feet of Mrs. Robert Lewis. A delightful salad course was served by Mrs. Leon Britt assisted by Miss Mildred Currie and Catherine Fridgen.

Circle No. 1 of the M. E. Church met in the home of Park Fridgen, Feb. 11. Mrs. L. Miller joint hostess. Mrs. J. E. Jordan, Circle president had charge. The meeting opened with a song by Mrs. Matt. 6:23-30. The business session was transacted and a short period enjoyed. Mrs. Miller served by Catherine Fridgen served by tartlets, toasted nuts, and coffee.

The Y. W. A., met in the home of Bertha Miller and Evelyn as joint hostess.

Mrs. E. E. L. Wheelless, local president, had charge of the program. A most vital subject, "Missionary Activities in China," was presented. A shower was planned for Mrs. Edgar Pollock in the near future.

A very interesting game was played last Friday night when the Warsaw High school boys played the Warsaw town boys; and Warsaw high school girls against Warsaw town girls. The high school boys and girls won over the town boys and girls.

Wallace boys and girls played the Warsaw teams in Wallace and won over Warsaw girls by a score of 32-11. However, Warsaw boys brought home a score of 30-9 from the Wallace boys.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Floyd spent the week end in Fayetteville visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Surratt visited B. E. Surratt in Greensboro this past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Potter of Currie spent the week end with Mrs. Potter's parents, Mr. and

Mr. J. E. Hays, a states and son Charles of Lanesville, the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hays, Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. W. Shoulers and son, Wilson, were week end guests in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Park Fridgen.

Mrs. Joe Fickett has returned to her home near Newville after spending a week with Mr. Bland Fickett.

The sick in town are all improving, friends will be glad to learn.

OUTLAWS BRIDGE

Mrs. J. H. PARKER Correspondent

The Community Club held its regular monthly meeting at school building Saturday afternoon with Mrs. L. O. Hays as presiding. During the session new officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. M. L. Hays; Secretary, Mrs. J. H. Parker.

THERE'S A REASON
Why You Should Use
ECO-CO Fertilizers
 "For the Land's Sake"
 See
ENGLISH & OLIVER
 Mount Olive, N. C.

"FARMERS" QUALITY
FERTILIZERS

Planters' Friend 4-8-4	Special Truck Grower 5-7-5
Meal and Tankage Mixture 3-8-3	Dark Horse 4-8-4
Farmers' Challenge 4-7-5	Crop King 3-8-3

OUR SHIPMENTS OF POTATOES, BEANS, PEAS AND SEEDS OF ALL KINDS
 HAVE ARRIVED AND WE ARE IN A POSITION TO SUPPLY YOU AT LOW-EST PRICES — SEE US BEFORE YOU BUY

WE DELIVER ANYWHERE

RICKS BROTHERS
THE HOME OF GOOD FERTILIZERS

J. E. STEPHENS, Agent
 C. E. STEPHENS, Kenansville, Agent
 Buyers of Cotton and Cotton Seed

1155 Royster Tobacco
Farmers Write Royster!

They sold an average of 1,000 pounds of tobacco per acre in 1937.

ROYSSTER AVERAGE WAS
$300.25 PER ACRE IN 1927

Royster Canna for Sale By
J. E. JONES