

Railroad Purchases in North

This map is one of a set of state maps recently presented to the special Senate committee investigating unemployment and relief by J. J. Pelley, President, Association of American Railroads, Washington, D. C. Each map is a page in a city or town where one or more railroads purchase materials and supplies in 345 cities and towns in 88 of the 100 counties in the state.

Railroads Spend in 88 Counties in State; Communities

The railroads in 1937 bought materials and supplies or fuel in 345 cities and towns located in 88 of the 100 counties of North Carolina. This fact and the nation wide spread of railway purchases was revealed in a series of exhibits which J. J. Pelley, President of the Association of American Railroads, recently presented to the special Senate Committee now investigating Unemployment and Relief.

For the nation as a whole these exhibits showed that year purchases of materials, supplies and fuel amounting to a total of $900,000,000 were made by the railroads in 12,174 cities and towns located in 2,637 counties of a total of 3,027 counties in the 48 states of the nation. These purchases included approximately 70,000 different items and affected industry and agriculture everywhere.

In 1929 and 1930 railway purchases of materials, supplies and fuel averaged $1,185,000,000 annually. In the five years from 1931 to 1935 this yearly average dropped to $559,819,800. In 1936 railway purchases of materials, supplies and fuel increased to $803,421,000. Encouraging traffic volume in the first half of 1937 resulted in a further increase in railway purchases of materials, supplies and fuel, the total for the year amounting to $900,000,000.

Presbyterians Study Religious Education

At a special meeting of the Religious Education Committee of the North Carolina Synod of the Presbyterian Church in America, held in Winston-Salem on last Tuesday, definite plans were made to carry the work into the new year. The Children's Division will conduct district one day religious schools in several churches of the synod with one in Kenansville about the first of May. The Vacation Church schools will be reorganized this year, with a
