KINSTON'S PARAMOUNT THEATRE OFFERS NEW STARRING TEAM!

"The Baroness and the Butler," 20th Century-Fox's greatest contribution to the sophisticated screen comedy, has more than its share of accuracy in thematic detail.

This sparkling hit, which co-stars William Powell and Annabella, is the gay story of a butler

ROBERT TAYLOR IN HIS GREATEST FEATURE AT KINSTON'S PARAMOUNT!

"A Yank at Oxford," starring Robert Taylor, and with such American and British favorites as Lionel Barrymore, Maureen O'Sullivan, Vivien Leigh, Edmund Gwenn and Griffith Jones in prominent supporting roles, opens a 3 day engagement starting Sunday at the Paramount Theatre.

The story, as the title indicates, relates the adventures of the star athlete of a small American College who is awarded a scholarship to Oxford. Robert Taylor enacts the title role. Maureen O'Sullivan is seen as the English girl whom he meets at the university. Griffith Jones plays her brother, Vivien Leigh is the flirtatious wife of an Oxford bookseller, who becomes involved with the under-graduate. Lionel Barrymore plays the American father who has made many sacrifices to send his boy to Oxford, and who comes to see him stroke the Oxford boat victory over Cambridge, only to discover that his son has been "sent down."

The picture's Oxford sequences were filmed against authentic back-grounds in England. Jack Conway, of "Tale of Two Cities" fame, directed.

"LOVE AND HISSES" FOR MONDAY EVENING

At least part of the news about "Love and Hisses" ought to be on Page One as an extra. "Simone Simon sings! And how the glorious glamor girl sings!

The story tells us that Ben Bernie, the "old Maestro," discovers (Simone Simon) a great singer. He asks "old pal" Winchell, America's one-man newspaper, to build her up in his column. Winchell turns the band leader down, as should be expected, so Bernie schemes a plot. Adopting an exotic masquerade, Simone lets Winchell "discover" her himself, and the columnist showers reams of publicity upon her.

Just before Bernie's new club is to open, with Simone as star, she reveals the plot to Winchell. Dismayed at having been taken in, Winchell plans a four-star vengeance upon his favorite enemy. Revenge by any other man is sweet, but by Winchell it's hilarious.

The climax brings the two feudists together at the opening of Bernie's club, featuring their co-discovery, Simone, singing for them both. The ending is happy, even though the truce may be temporary.

Employees Now 65 Should Report To Board

Employees who have reached 65 since January 1, 1937, and who have earned wages in "covered employment" since last June should report each day to the Social Security Board Field Office, 118 1-9 South Salisbury Street, Raleigh, N. C. Such workers are entitled to 3 1-3 percent of the wages which they earned in covered employment since December 31, 1936, and prior to reaching age 65, according to Stacy W. Wynn, manager of the Raleigh Field Office which serves this county. An employee does not have to stop work in order to receive a lump-sum payment. "Covered employment," generally speaking, means employment in commerce and industry.

A lump-sum payment is now due the estate or relatives of a worker who has died since December 31, 1936, provided the deceased worker was paid wages in covered employment after December 31, 1936, and before he reached 65.

Employers must notify the Bureau of Internal Revenue on Form 88-3 within 15 days after the employee reaches the age of 65, or dies. At the same time, in order to assist the employee or his family, the employer is urged to file Form 04C-1001, "Statement of Employer," with the Raleigh office.

At the present time there are a number of persons eligible for lump-sum old-age insurance payments, who have received no money because they have not yet filed claims applications. Some are wage earners who have become 65 years of age since January 1, 1937, and others are the next of kin of deceased wage earners. The necessary claims forms can be secured from the Raleigh Field Office of the Social Security Board.
