Injured In Fall
Mrs. Kate Carroll suffered painful injuries when she fell yesterday about noon at the home of her son Luther Rice Carroll of Wesley Chapel.

Mrs. Carroll was walking through the dining room when she was stricken with a fainting spell. She fell to the floor cutting a half-inch gash in her head. The injury was not serious.

Wallace Book Club Holds Initial Meet
The first meeting of the Wallace Book Club for the 1943-44 year was held at the home of the Chairman, Mrs. H. M. Morrison, September 9.

Plans were discussed for meeting twice each month; one meeting for the program and social hour and the other for exchange of books only. The program chairman reported that it had been decided to use GOOD HOUSEKEEPING CLUB SERVICE edited by Mrs. Theresa Booth Wells. Plans were discussed for observance of National Book Week in November. A list of the new books were read. At the end of the club year these books will be donated to the Public Library of Wallace.

The good attendance and enthusiasm of the group promises a very successful and profitable year.

During the social hour the hostess served fresh peach ice cream and cookies.

Tri-County Will Hold Annual Meet Oct. 1
The annual meeting of the Tri-County Electric Membership Corporation will be held on Oct. 1, 1943 in the Goldsboro Community Building. Reports of the past year's operations will be presented at that time, and a Board of Directors will be elected for the ensuing year.

A short address will be made on the regulations of the WPB governing utility operations as they apply to this cooperative.

Farmers whose stock production is sufficient for them to qualify before their County War Board can be connected, and their premises can be wired under these regulations. Farmers who are in position to increase their stock production by the use of electricity and electrical apparatus are urged to take advantage of present regulations which permit them to be connected.

One Man Has 30 Boys cutting Pulp
