Bride Elect Honored

Miss Jewel Porter, bride-elect, who will be married on May 1st, in the Warsaw Baptist Church to H. C. Allen, Jr., was complimented Thursday evening when Miss Janice Draughon entertained at a tea towel hemming and shower, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Draughon.

Throughout the rooms were lovely arrangements of yellow rambler roses and wisteria. The dining table, overlaid with a lace cloth, was centered with a novelty bride's doll, made from kitchen utensils and dish towels. This was presented the honoree.

Miss Draughon, who will sing in the wedding, presented Miss Porter with a gift of crystal and she also received the tea towels.

Mrs. J. A. Porter, mother of the honoree, poured punch and Mrs. Draughon assisted her daughter in serving sandwiches, cheese biscuits and macaroons.

Celebrates Their Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Strickland Strickland celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Wednesday evening when they were honored at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Belton Minshew, on College St. Mrs. Strickland, before her marriage on April 23, 1922, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Grady, near Warsaw, was Miss Myrtle Grady.

The Minshew home was artistically decorated with bridal flowers of white snapdragons and carnations; and on the buffet was a massive arrangement of the same.

The dining table overlaid with a lace cloth, was centered with a three tiered wedding cake, topped with a silver anniversary symbol, surrounded by roses, fern, lilies of the valley and burning bridal tapers, tied with miniature silver bells. In the gift room were arrangements of spirea and fern.

Greeting the guests at the door were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Strickland and Miss Hazel Strickland introduced them to the receiving line composed of the honor guests, Miss Verna Strickland, Mr. and Mrs. Belton Minshew and son Bradley Minshew. Receiving in the gift room was Mrs. Hubert Brown of Kenansville, and Miss Gaynell Taylor presided at the register, and showed the way to the dining room, where they were served individual bridal cakes, mints and nuts by Misses Sara Gaylor, Jo Anne Britt and Georgia Anne Hopkins and Mrs. M. V. Orr, Jr. Miss Mae Brock poured punch. In the den guests were presented attractive bridal favors by Mrs. Stacy Britt and goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Milford Quinn.
