Honorees At Cake Cutting

Following the rehearsal Thursday evening, the Baysden-Whaley bridal party was entertained at a cake cutting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Thigpen. The dining table, covered with a lace cloth, was centered with a crystal bowl of white roses, flanked by burning tapers. A lovely, three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom was first cut by the bride and groom elect and then served to the other guests by Mrs. Ervin Lanier, the maid of honor. Miss Polly Brown presided at the punch bowl. The bridal party included about 20.

Mrs. L. M. Holloway

In the passing of Mrs. L. M. Holloway, 70, our town and community feel that they have lost a most loyal friend. Many expressed her life thus: "She was the best person." She was the wife of the late Rev. Lloyd M. Holloway, Baptist minister, who held his last pastorate here. He is remembered for his useful and untiring works - especially during the years of "depression". After his death, Mrs. Holloway made her home in Cameron, S. C., with her brother, J. O. Wesner, Sr. She had been in declining health for 2 years. She died in the Tri-County Hospital, Orangeburg, S. C., Tuesday morning, May 20 at 10 o'clock.

Funeral services were conducted from the Hallsville Baptist Church Thursday morning. Rev. N. E. Gresham of Jacksonville and Rev. A. L. Brown officiated.

Pallbearers included Alston Carroll, Willie Wilson, L. H. Thomas, R. L. Evans, C. L. Wade and Carl Smith. A special musical duet, "Beautiful Garden of Eden" was sung by Mesdames Orzo Thigpen and Sudee Brown. She was buried beside her husband in the Hallsville cemetery. Quinn-McGowen, funeral directors of Warsaw, were in charge of arrangements.

Among those from a distance attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Wesner, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Wesner, Jr., and Miss Hazel Riley of Cameron, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bender, Misses Gertrude and Ellen Bender, Earl Bender, Jr., and Mrs. L. L. Ogden of Pollocksville.
