A Tribute To Mrs. Cates

June 18, 1947 The Town of Faison and all of Duplin County lost one of its lead-ing citizens Sunday morning, June 1st, when Mrs. H. R. Cates died suddenly of a heart attack, "Miss Cleo", as she was familiarly known to her host of friends, both white and colored, had been active for years in most all phases of community life. Her contributions to the various activities of her community. has done much to help make Faison a better town in which to live.

Her genial smile, her pleasing ersonality, and her willingness to help any worthy person or cause, will be greatly missed by this entire community.

Mrs. Cates was President of the Beard of Trustees of the Faison Community Building. It has been largely through her efforts that our mity Building has become the focal point of activity for both youth and adult groups in their ective organizations

Mrs. Cates was before her mar-riage Miss Cleo Mable of Decatur, Ga. She was graduated from Wesleyan College at Macon, Ga., and also attended Agnes Scott College in Decatur, Ga. She was a member of Phi Delta Theta Sorority. After her school days, Mrs. Cates was a teacher for a number of years and later worked with the Federal Reserve Bank in Atlanta, Ga. She came to Faison with her husband in 1931 and soon established herself as a cooperative citizen in her new home. Mrs. Cates will be rembered for her many altruistic, levements and her cheerful copply of life will live in the rts of those who knew and

New Cars On Display Saturday

Featuring the cab "that breathes" the new line of Chevrolet commercial cars and trucks goes on display Saturday, June 28 at the Warsaw Motor Co., in Warsaw. Produced in a wide variety of models, the new Chevrolet line is manufactured in nine wheelbases with gross weights ranging from 4,000 to 16,000 pounds.

Re-styled, the Advance-Design eries are attractive and provide more room, more comfortable seats and other improvements for the comfort and convenience of the man behind the wheel."

Chief of these is the cab that "breathes," in which a new ventilating system circulates fresh air in the cab and keeps windshield and windows free of fog.

"Windshield and side and real windows in the cab provide great er vision. Instrument controls are re-styled and rearranged for improved driver convenience," Mr. Wall said. A new dome light is another cab feature.

"We predict that the new truck: will be enthusiastically welcomed and endorsed by truck drivers and owners," Mr. Wall said.

Woodland Youth Hold Fellowship

The Woodland Youth Fellowship held their regular monthly meeting in the Woodland Methodist church Sunday night. During business plans were made to visit, and send cards and flowers to the sick of our community. It was decided that we would continue having choir practice on Thursday nights in the members' homes. Beginning with our next meeting we will have a study of the Old Testament and Bibical characters. Various mem bers will conduct the study.

After business there was a devo tional program which stressed temperance and youth's part in God's world. This consisted of Bible discussion, hymns, poems, a religious story, and prayer. Climaxing the program we had a Spiritual Life Clinic, which gave members advice on how to cure their sinful ailments During the social hour the hosts, Rommie Herring, Dave Miller, Alvin Dunn, and Mercer Williams served delicious soft drinks and cookies to the 45 members present. Several visitors from Pink Hill were resent. Mrs. Joe Westbrook dis missed the meeting with prayer.

Mrs. G. V. Gooding, of Kenans-ville, recently wrote the American Mission to Lepers, Inc and recei-ved the following reply: Dear Mrs. Gooding:

I am happy to be able to tell you that you can have the film "The Healing of M'vondo" for your meeting on Sunday evening, June 29. We shall mail it on Monday, June 23 so that it will be sre to reach you in plenty of time. Please start it back to us on Monday, June 30th. The rent is $2.00 plus postage. It is an excellent film in colors taken at Elat, Cameroun. I feel sure that it will be a blessing to your church and community. It is the story of a little boy who contracted the disease, goes to a colony, becomes an go home again. If we can do anything else to help you, let us know

I shall certainly try to include Kenansville on my fall itineray. Shall let you know as soon as plans are complete.
