Junior-Senior Banquet Held

The Annual Junior-Senior Banquet of the Pink Hill High School was held at Hotel Kinston at 7:00 p.m. Friday, April 4. A turkey dinner was served. The rainbow color scheme was used throughout. Shirley Howard was toastmaster and the address of welcome was by Betty Howard. The toast to the Juniors was given by John R. Spence and the faculty by Lou Ann Davis. Florine Deaver gave the toast to the school. The song "Some Where Over The Rainbow," was sung by the group. Principal Frank Wiley gave the toast to the seniors and Mr. David Green said the benediction. At 9:00 p.m. Paul Stanleys Band from Goldsboro, played for a dance.

Rosalind Russell, star of stage, screen, and radio, borrowed from Old World folk-lore the idea of decorating an Easter egg tree at Easter time. Decorating trees with gaily-colored eggs at this season once was a cherished family custom in many localities of Europe, according to the Poultry and Egg National Board. Miss Russell, currently starring in "Bell, Book and Candle" in Chicago, said she finds it is "just as much fun and more practical" in her case to adapt the idea of an Easter egg tree as a centerpiece.

Pink Hill Group In Lenoir's First Music Festival

Pink Hill High School's Ensembles under the direction of Mrs. Jack Perkins offered three numbers: Coward's "I'll See You Again," a popular number, "You Made Me Love You" and Perry's "Smilin' Through" at the Lenoir County's first public school music festival which was held in Granger High School Auditorium, Kinston, Thursday evening. Lou Ann Davis rendered a soprano solo and Dorothy Carol Stroud and Ann Rufin were accompanist.

Effective chemicals for thinning fruit blossoms are now on the market. They can be applied with only a small amount of the labor needed for hand thinning. By reducing heavy fruit set, the treatment tends to stabilize yields and to correct alternate bearings—that is, heavy one year and light the next.
