Miss Williams Hostess To Garden Club

Miss Margaret Williams was hostess to the members of the Kenansville Garden Club on Monday evening. She entertained them at a delicious barbecue chicken supper at the Roscoe Jones Cafe.

The table at which the guests were seated was covered with red, white and blue candles centered on the table and guests were seated by place cards of miniature George Washington hatchets. The roll call was answered with statements of George Washington's career.

After the dinner, a business session was held, and a report was made by the committee on the 25 dog woods which had been planted in Kenansville recently.

Mrs. Roy Sitterson made a talk on bulb arrangements and showed many beautiful illustrations for bulb arrangements, both in vases and in out-of-door borders.

Mrs. J. R. Grady spoke on "Planting For Fall Bloom". She stated that fall colors were to be obtained from trees, blooming shrubs, perennial plants and annual plants.

Mrs. Dobson Entertains At Bridge Party

Mrs. P. J. Dobson was hostess to her bridge club Thursday evening at 7:30. Mrs. J. A. Hines was visitor for the games. Winning high score was Mrs. D. S. Williamson. Mrs. Hines was remembered with a gift.

Following progressions the hostess served individual cherry pies. The members voted to give three dollars to the Red Cross drive.

Hillbilly Hit Parade
The top ten tunes of the week as selected from your cards and letters

Compiled by NELSON KING and MARTY ROBERTS

- Hi ya friends and neighbors; We sure look forward to this weekly chance to visit with you-all through this fine paper;... each night when we spin the tunes you ask for on the WCKY HILLBILLY HIT PARADE, we feel that we are sittin' right there with you... Let's see... oh yes, we've got some notes here from some of your favorites who are making personal appearances around. JIMMY DICKENS and WEBB PIERCE at Albuquerque, N. M. on Feb. 20. Next day, MINNIE PEARL joins the boys for a show at El Paso, Texas; LONZO & OSCAR at Panama City, Fla. Feb. 25; Altha, Fla., 26th and Ft. Walton, Fla. 27th; MARTHA CARLSON, in Georgia Feb. 26, 27 and 28 (sorry we don't know the towns); GEORGE MORGAN, Saginaw, Mich. Feb. 25, Kitchener, Ont. Feb. 26 and Niagara Falls, N. Y. Feb. 27. Billboard Mag. reports that Rep. Arthur Winstead (Miss.) has offered a bill in Congress to designate every May 26 as NATIONAL HILLBILLY DAY, in recognition of the contribution made to American music lore by the writers, singers and players of hillbilly music. In his speech about the bill, Congressman Winstead paid tribute to JIMMIE ROGERS, whose memorial dedication we reported in this column two weeks ago. WINSTEAD told fellow Congressmen "the popularity of hillbilly music began with ROGERS." JOHNNY LYONS is out of the army after 26 months service. He has returned to his home in Sidney, Ohio, while readying a new connection... RED GARRETT is heading for eight
