MRS. WILLIAM CARL ADAMS

Miss Waller Weds Mr. Adams in Church Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Helen Kornegay Waller, daughter of S. J. Waller of Mt. Olive and Mrs. Helen K. Waller of Rose Hill to Mr. William Carl Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover A. Adams of Seven Springs took place Wednesday, August 28 at the Outlaws Bridge Universalist Church.
The Rev. Bowering officiated. Miss Kay Johnson, soloist, and Edgar Wells, Jr., organist presented a program of Wedding Music.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a costly lace gown with peral neckline edged with a wide tucked fold of tulle and applied lace medallions, pointed bodice and lace tunic over the full skirt. The veil, just ruffled formed a chapel train. Her two-tiered veil of imported illusion was attached to a pearl tiara. She carried a white orchid on a white prayer book.
Little Miss Joy Hudson, niece of the bridegroom was flower girl. She wore a white organdy dress with matching flowers.
Mr. Adams, the bridegroom's father was best man.
A reception was given by the bride's mother following the ceremony in the Fellowship Room of the Church.
Mrs. Adams was a student at Meredith College last year and will enter Atlantic Christian College as a sophomore in September. The bridegroom graduated from Dell School of Medical Technology and has served two years in the army. He will continue his studies at Atlantic Christian College this fall.
Following their wedding trip the couple will be at home in Wilson.
