

VOLUME XXVI No. 18

KENANSVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, THURSDAY MAY 7, 1959

SUBSCRIPTION RATES $3.00 per year in Duplin and adjoining Counties; $4.00 outside this area in N. C.; $5.00 outside N. C.

TEN CENT

Soil Survey Released

The soil survey of Duplin County, North Carolina, which was made in cooperation with the North Carolina Agricultural Experiment Station and the United States Department of Agriculture, has just been released from the Government Printing Office. Like others in the soil survey series the Duplin County survey will show the character of the soil in any part of the county. Each farmer will be able to determine from it the kind of soil on any part of his farm and the best uses for that particular soil. Among others who will make extensive use of this survey are: Staff members of your Agricultural Experiment Station and Agricultural Extension Service, other State agencies and Federal agencies working with farmers in the county, students and teachers of soil science, prospective purchasers, land appraisers, industrialists seeking new sites, engineer planning highways, and in fact anyone concerned with the uses of rural lands in the county. During the next several days copies of the survey will be forwarded to the schools in the county for use in the agricultural departments and to the office of the County Farm Agent, and others in the county who have an interest in receiving a copy of the survey can obtain a copy of same by writing to Congressman Barden at his Washington, D. C. office, as long as his supply lasts.

Briefs

Nurses Asso. To Meet

District No. 14, North Carolina State Nurses' Association will meet at the Duplin County Health Department in Kenansville on Tuesday, May 12, at 7:30 p. m.

Visit Kenansville

The Fifth graders of the Chinquapin School, with their instructor Mrs. Hazel Brinson, visited Kenansville on Tuesday morning. The boys and girls visited the Court House, Duplin Times office, Health Department and Agriculture Building and had picnic lunch at the Springs.

Beulaville Lions

The Beulaville Lions are busy making preparations to raise funds for a town Playground for the youngsters of Beulaville. They met on Monday night of this week and planned to have a fish fry and stew in June to raise funds for completing the tennis courts and buying playground equipment.

Carl Goerch To Speak on Duplin

On Carolina Chats, Sunday night, May 10, Carl Goerch will speak on Duplin County. He will speak over station WPTF at 6:15 p. m.

President Theta Chi

Larry G. Bailey of Faison is president of the Theta Chi fraternity at East Carolina College. The fraternity has recently presented to the Student Government Association at the college a tape recorder for use by blind students.

Fried Chicken Supper

The Beulaville Band Boosters Club is sponsoring a fried chicken supper on Saturday night, May 9, at the Beulaville School lunchroom.

Joe Costin Elected President SE Section

Joe Costin, Duplin County Sanitarian, was elected President of the Southeastern Sanitation Section at a meeting held in Clinton last week. Mr. L. H. Caton, of Fayetteville was elected Vice-President and J. Carlisle Hinnant, of Goldsboro was elected Secretary and Treasurer.

Beulaville Town Board Hear Paul Van Camp

The Town Board of Beulaville had a special call meeting on Friday night of last week to hear Mr. Paul Van Camp, an engineer from Southern Pines, discuss the sewer system for Beulaville. No definite plans were made at this date.

Music Recital

Mrs. Ben Bowden will present (continued on back)

RESULT OF TOWN ELECTIONS: FAISON AND ROSE HILL HAVE BUSY DAY

Town elections held in Duplin County on Tuesday, May 5, were rather quiet, with a small vote and an occasional spurt of activity cropping up through the county.

The town of Faison had a rather spirited race with Cecil D. McCullen defeating Dave Oates for Mayor by 180 votes to 82 respectively. For Commissioners, W. A. Thompson led the ticket with 213 votes, C. A. Precythe, 186; Joe Hollingsworth, 184; C. A. Decker, 178; J. L. King, 169. W. H. Clark and J. E. Andrews, Sr. were defeated. New members on the board are J. L. King and C. A. Decker.

Rose Hill had an unusually large vote. With 450 registered, 381 voted. C. W. Surratt, Jr. who ran for mayor won with 249 votes, against M. F. Bostic who received 137 votes. In the Commissioner race, L. Clayton Herring 259 votes; Homer C. Brown, 242; Samuel Cavanaugh 213; M. E. Edwards, 191; Gerald Carr, 187; Harvey R. Braddy, 197; William H. Fussell, 222; Ben L. Harrell, 142; with write-ins for M. L. Carr, 93. Incumbent commissioners are Clayton Herring, Homer C. Brown, Samuel Cavanaugh; New Commissioners are Gerald Carr and Williams H. Fussell.

Wallace election day was quiet and brought the following results: Mayor Melvin Cording, who ran with no opposition, was retained for a second term. G. G. Walker, T. J. Baker, S. W. Gowen, Roy S. Cavanaugh and W. H. Rose were elected to the town board of commissioners. Walker, Baker and Gowen have served previously. Cavanaugh and Rose are newcomers.

Others running for the town board were W. C. Worsley, Jr. and George T. Blanton. A total of 420 votes were cast.

Election returns from Warsaw, which was a quiet election, were as follows: Mayor Ed Strickland, who had no competition, received 179 votes. For Commissioner: John A. Johnson, 195; W. J. Middleton, 182; D. J. Rivenbark, 181; W. E. Bartlett, 173; Sanford Packer, 165; E. L. Mathis, 128. All of the commissioners elected are now serving with the exception of W. J. Middleton, who goes in as a new commissioner.

Kenansville was quieter than I would no more quarrel with a man because of his religion than I would because of his art. —Mary Baker Eddy quiet. Mayor L. R. Sharpe had no competition and received 39 votes. For commissioner, with no competition: P. E. Kreisch, 39; I. R. Caison, 39; Joe Quinn, 39; Leo Jackson, 39; Ralph Brown, 37; J. B. Wallace, 1 write-in; McCoy Kennedy, 1 write-in; W. E. Craft, one write-in.

The town of Beulaville cast only 90 votes. Gordon Muldrow, Mayor had no competition. Commissioners received votes as follows: Andrew Jackson 61; D. E. Houston, 69; Perry Williams, 60; Harry Horne, 60; Herman Gore and Eugene Ekum tied for fifth commissioners place. Both refused to call for a second election, which called for a meeting of the board to vote on the incoming officer. Herman Gore was elected.

MFY Sub-District Met In Pink Hill

The Kenansville Sub-District Methodist Youth Fellowship met at the Pink Hill Methodist Church, Monday April 27 at 8:00 o'clock p. m.

Miss Vicky Oats, form the Magnolia MYF, gave the devotion. Rev. Haywood L. Harrell conducted the program on "Boy-Girl Friendship Workshops in The Local MYF's." He discussed the need for such workshops and displayed materials which might be used in such workshops. He also offered his assistance to MYF's in arranging for workshops.

Miss Mary Ellen Surratt, Sub District president, presided over the business session. Upon roll call by Miss Linda Bennett, secretary, 77 youth from the following churches answered: Chary, Faison, Pink Hill, Rose Hill, Wallace, Woodland, Kenansville, Magnolia, Warsaw, and Unity.

Melvin Williams led recreation. Refreshments of punch and cookies were served on the Church lawn by the Pink Hill MYF assisted by Mrs. L. H. Turner and Mrs. C. C. Jones.

Due to conflicts with some of the school commencements, the May meeting will be held at the Rose Hill Methodist Church on Monday night, May 11th at 8:00 o'clock.

ASC To Begin Crop Allotment Measurements Monday In Duplin

Farmers in Duplin County are notified that the Duplin ASC office will begin measuring land (allotted crops) Monday.

Rufus Elks, ASC office manager, said that all farmers are urged to be at their farms and ready to accompany the person who will measure his crops. If the owner of the farm cannot be present, he is advised to have someone on the farm who can direct the ASC representative in charge of the measuring.

"This is a big job and we have to get it done in a hurry," Elks said. "It will be to the advantage of the farmers to cooperate with us to the fullest extent in order that we can get through with this as soon as possible."

Quality Feeder Pig Sale Held

More than 700 pigs from Duplin and surrounding counties were sold at the Quality Feeder Pig Sale at Wells Stockyard in Wallace Thursday.

Average price of pigs weighing from 40 to 65 pounds, according to Farm Agent V. H. Reynolds, was $10 to $15. Pigs weighing 66 to 125 pounds were sold for 19 to 22 cents per pound, he said.

Reynolds pointed out that over 400 of the pigs sold will be shipped to Ohio to be "fed out."

Next sale will be on Thursday, June 18.

Reynolds said anyone wishing to enter stock in the sale may do so by contacting him at the County Agent's office for a consignment blank.

The 4-H Junior and Senior King and Queen chosen Thursday night at the annual 4-H night. Reading from left to right are: Glenn Williams, Junior 4-H King, Mary Linda Grady, Junior 4-H Queen, Lorraine Ivey, Senior 4-H Queen; Melvin Williams, Senior 4-H King. Standing are: Mrs. Lois Britt, and Mr. Lawrence Keece, 4-H Advisors.

County 4-H Health King - Queen Chosen

The first H in the 4-H Emblem stands for Health. The 4-H boys and girls of Duplin County assembled on Thursday night of last week for the election of the Junior and Senior Health King and Queen for Duplin County to reign for 1959. The kings and queens are selected on the basis of the individual work and progress. These kings and queens represented 1800 4-H boys and girls of Duplin.

4-H Supervisor of boys, Lawrence Keece, was announcer for the program. A parade of the candidates of each school, both junior and senior, was held as follows:

Kenansville - (Q) Janis Alpha Rose Hill - (K) John Steve Wilkins, (Q) Stella Walks
Wallace-Rose Hill - (K) Dallas Knowles, (Q) Bobby Jean Fields
Warsaw - (Q) Joan Brown
Magnolia - (K) A. Q. Smith, Jr., (Q) Mary Ann Martin
Faison - (K) Owen Jones, (Q) Sue Carol Coley
B. F. Grady School - (K) Glenn Williams, (Q) Mary Linda Grady
H. F. Grady Sr. - (K) Melvin Williams, (Q) Gail Grady
Kenan - (Q) Lorraine Ivey
Calypso - (K) Bradford Brock, (Q) Carol Kirby
North Duplin - (Q) Susan Clifton

Chinquapin Jr. - (K) Earl Cavanaugh, (Q) Remona Jean Brown
Chinquapin Sr. - (Q) Joyce Ann James
Beulaville Jr. - (K) Ferris Bizzard, (Q) Shirley Albertson
Beulaville Sr. & Cedar Fork - (Q) Jo Ann Cowan
Potters Hill - (Q) Peggy Jo Turner
Bowden - (K) Poythress, (Q) Annette Holmes

The various clubs of the county, each put on a stunt. Talent in all fields was displayed by the boys and girls. There was accordion playing, drum and trumpet, tap dancing, singing, piano playing, majorettes, autoharp playing. One girl of Chinquapin played her own composition on the piano. There was an unusual amount of talent at the talent show. The talent program was ended by Drew Grice of Warsaw playing his banjo and singing.

The high light of the evening was the crowning of the Junior Queen, Mary Linda Grady of B. F. Grady School and Junior Health King, Glenn Williams of the B. F. Grady School. Senior Health Queen winner was Lorraine Ivey of James Kenan High School and Melvin Williams of the B. F. Grady School.

Patients At Duplin General Hospital

The following patients were admitted to Duplin General Hospital during the past week.

MAGNOLIA:
Helen M. Southerland
Mary Lou Kelly
Randy Larren Lanier
CHINQUAPIN:
Baby Boy Lanier
Emma Lee Pickett
KENANSVILLE:
Seymour Teitelbaum
Ronald Gene Brown
Lucille C. Stokes
Veronica Mae Miller
Baby Girl Miller
Carey Austin Williams, Jr.
WARSAW:
Marietta Smith Frazier
Marion Sutton
LEWISVILLE:
Lewellyn L. Holland
Baby Boy Holland
JOYNSONVILLE:
Joy Johnson Davis
Marie Harvey Best
Leo Eston
Richard Earl Miller
Thelma Gore Powell
GOLDSBORO:
Polly Anderson
MT. OLIVE
Betty Ray Turner
ALBERTSON:
Paul Winston Williams
FAISON:
Anna Foss Powell
Baby Boy Powell
Henry C. Precythe
Della Davis Williams
BEULAVILLE:
(continued on back)

Cedar Fork Holds Mother's Day Program Sunday

A special Mother's Day Program is planned for Sunday May 10 at the Cedar Fork Baptist Church. The service will begin at 11:00 a. m.

The outstanding feature of the program will be the Southwood High School Chorus of Kinston, N. C. presenting a concert of sacred music. The Chorus consist of 48 high school students under the direction of Mr. Joe Jackson. Jackson is choir director at Cedar Fork.

After this special service a dinner on the grounds is planned.

Rev. Norman Aycock, Pastor of Cedar Fork extends a cordial invitation to everyone to attend this special service.

"Atoms for Peace", a free Mobile exhibit presented by the United States Atomic Energy Commission, is shown above. The exhibit, a walk-through type, deals with the peaceful uses of atomic energy.

It will appear in Kenansville on vacant lot next to Post Office on May 9th. The Kenansville Jaycees are sponsoring the exhibit here as a public service.

The Mobile Exhibit will be at James Kenan High School on May 11th from 11:00 a. m. to 2:30. Then the exhibit will move down town in Warsaw between the A & P Store and Andrews Super Market from 3:00 p. m. to 6:00 p. m. The Warsaw Junior Chamber of Commerce will be sponsoring the free exhibit at the school and in Warsaw.

Miss Mozingo Speaker At Sub-District W. S. Of C. S.

The Spring Meeting of the Kenansville sub-district Woman's Society of Christian Service was held on April 28 at King's Methodist Church near Faison. The theme of the meeting was "The Master Callest for Thee." Mrs. Adrian Davis, sub-district leader, presided. The devotional was given by Mrs. B. R. McCullen. Officers are: Mrs. Adrian Davis, wife of the local pastor, Mrs. W. R. King, president of the hostess society, welcomed the group.

Special music was rendered by the "Double Octet" of Hobbs High School under the direction of Mr. Dennis Price.

During the business session the officers for the next two years were installed by Mrs. A. B. Lanier of Rose Hill. The officer from Calypso: Mrs. C. W. Surratt, Jr., assistant leader from Rose Hill; Mrs. William Westbrook, secretary from Albertson. The roll call of local societies and reports of presidents heard. Mrs. Shelton Boyd, president Goldsboro District W. S. C. S., introduced district officers present who made a few remarks. A life membership was presented by the Calypso society to their retiring president, Mrs. Albert Williams. The speaker for the meeting was Miss Alice Rose Mozingo, Goldsboro District Representative, N. C. Conference Youth Caravan to Europe. Miss Mozingo told of her activities on the Caravan and showed slides of places visited.

The meeting was adjourned with benediction and grace by Rev. B. R. McCullen. Lunch was served to about 38 ladies by the hostess society.

The object of art is to crystallize emotion into thought, and then fix it in form. —Francis DeSales

OPEN HOUSE SET - The Gold Medallion House, pictured above, will be on display to the public this weekend May 8, 9, and 10 from 10 p. m. until 8 p. m. during the period. The house is an all-electric home and has incorporated in it the most modern electrical features. Included in the house is indirect lighting, light in electrical appliances, an intercommunication system and electrical heat and air conditioning. The house, in Warsaw has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Strickland and will be occupied after the open house by the Strickland family. (Photo by Paul Barwick.)

Supt. O. P. Johnson presenting a two year scholarship from Wilmington college to Mary Brown Moore of Wallace (on his right) who won out in Duplin County Spelling Bee sponsored by the Wilmington-Star Newspapers. On his left is Vicky Oast of Magnolia, runner-up in the contest.

Mary Moore Winner In Spelling Bee

Mary Brown Moore, an eighth grader of Wallace School, was the winner in Duplin County for the Southeastern North Carolina Spelling Bee held in the Kenansville auditorium on Monday afternoon. There were eleven contestants from the Duplin Schools. The elementary school bee, conducted annually in nine counties, is sponsored by the Star-Newspapers of Wilmington. For her prize, Mary Moore received a two-year scholarship to Wilmington College and has the opportunity of representing Duplin County in the regional finals at Wilmington on May 15. She won a medal which is presented by Duplin to the winner in the county.

Mary Moore is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moore of Willard and attends the Wallace School. This is the second year in which she has represented the Wallace school.

Vicky Oast, the runner-up, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Pope of Magnolia and is in the eighth grade also. She automatically becomes alternate for the regional bee.

Other contestants were: George Edward Clark, Jr., Warsaw Elementary; Loreta Andrews, Chinquapin School; Dianne Outlaw, Kenansville School; Linda Flowers, Faison Elementary; Peggy Lou Bostic, Potter's Hill School; Nancy Ward, Rose Hill School; Beverly Denny, Beulaville School; Sandra Lee Swinson, Calypso Elementary; Elton Davis, B. F. Grady School. Each contestant was presented a paper mate pen by the Star-News.

All of the contestants were from the 6, 7th and 8th grades.

Mr. Lauren Sharpe was the pronouncer and judges were Messdames J. E. Fulford, Warsaw; B. B. Longest, Rose Hill; J. R. Grady, Kenansville. Superintendent O. P. Johnson presented the scholarship and Mr. Doyle Howard was the representative from the Star News.

TIMES SPORTS By Joe Costin

NORTH DUPLIN PLAYS RICHLANDS FOR DISTRICT CLASS "A" TITLE

The Rebels of North Duplin defeated Southport yesterday 3-2 and thus swept the two-game series and now advances in District two play. The outstanding club from upper Duplin took the first game 9-0 over Southport. L. J. Grantham, one of the best high school hurlers in the state, pitched a one-hitter in the shut-out and struckout 16 and walked only three men.

In the game played yesterday at Grubbs Field, North Duplin spotted the champs from Brunswick County two runs in the first inning and then rallied for a 3-2 victory. In the fifth four walks, one hit batter, and a sacrifice accounted for North Duplin's two runs, one being the winning run. Charles Swinson, the looking catcher for the Rebels got the two hits given up by the Southport pitching.

Coach Dick Kaleel started Clayton Swinson against the Southport team and he gave up only two hits.

North Duplin will now advance to the district title against the team that knocked them out last year Richlands. Richlands defeated Vanceboro 3-1 early in the week to win a sudden-death playoff and will meet the strong Duplin team for the title.

WALLACE-ROSE HILL WINS CONFERENCE CROWN

The Bulldogs of Wallace-Rose Hill High posted a 5-0 win over Pamlico last Friday to win the Coastal Plains Conference Championship.

Mac Horrell, one of the big men with the stick for the Bulldogs also hurled a one-hitter at the Pamlico team. He also had two for three at the plate to help his cause.

James Kenan High School Commencement

The James Kenan High School Commencement schedule has been announced by Prin. J. P. Harmon.

Graduation exercises will be held at 8:15 on Tuesday, May 19 in the Kenan Memorial Auditorium. Dr. L. Stacy Weaver, president of Methodist College Fayetteville and President of the N.C. Education Association will be the speaker.

Rev. Lauren Sharpe, pastor of the Baptist Church, in Kenansville will deliver the Baccalaureate Sermon on Sunday evening, May 17 in Kenan Memorial Auditorium.