Mrs. Don Juan LaNier
Warsaw Methodist Church Scene Of
LaNier-West Nuptials Sunday Evening

The Warsaw Methodist Church was the scene of a double ring ceremony Sunday evening, June 12 at five o'clock P. M. Miss Elizabeth Gordon West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Anchrom West of Warsaw, became the bride of Don Juan LaNier of Greensboro, son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. LaNier of Durham. Rev. N. H. Flowers, assisted by Rev. L. T. Wilson officiated.

Mrs. Ben Bowden, organist, and Mrs. Tommy Phillips, vocalist, rendered the nuptial music.

The church was beautifully decorated with a large center altar arrangement of white gladioli, white chrysanthemums, and pompons interspersed with Gypsifelia simplified by two single candelabra and cross on each side of the altar. Behind the chancel rail stood two large basket arrangements of white gladioli, white chrysanthemums, and pompons. Beyond these arrangements stood two seven branch candelabra, flanked by two large palms. Pew markers were of white gladioli and large white mums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a formal gown of sheer silk taffeta, fashioned with an off shoulder "V" neckline and abbreviated sleeves. Alencon lace accented the sleeves, neckline and Princess line front was extended across the back over a colonial bustle. Her two tiered veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a pearl crown.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white bride's roses and white stephanotis interspersed among white satin lavers and satin pearl centered white daises, offsetting a white phalaenopsis orchid.

Mrs. Roy Barwick, sister of the bride, was her matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of elegant pink, fashioned with fitted bodice. The "V" neckline was created by a deep bertha collar which also formed a brief sleeve. The bell shaped skirt was accented by inverted pleats at the side and back. She wore matching Dior bows with brow veil. Mrs. Barwick's flowers were a Cameo shaped bouquet of pink net and satin laves centered with pink roses and outlined in spiked ribbon swirls.

Bridal attendants were Miss Joanne Flowers, Miss Gloria Thomas, Miss Zona Quinn, Miss Sara Alice Fussell all of Warsaw and Mrs. Kenneth Midyette of Kingston. Their dresses were like that of the honor attendant and they carried similar bouquets.

William Dixon LaNier of Raleigh, brother of the groom, was best man, and groomsmen were Roy Blaud Barwick, Jimmy Newton Lanier both of Warsaw, Gerald Dixon of Durham, cousin of the groom, H. H. Pearson of Raleigh and William Averette of Oxford.

Mrs. West chose for her daughter's wedding a sheath dress of mauve silk crepe fashioned with a Chantilly lace bodice. She wore matching accessories and a deep purple orchid corsage.

The Mother of the groom wore a dress of pale pink lace over satin, with three quarter length sleeves and a white orchid corsage. She wore matching accessories.

For her traveling attire the bride chose a black suit with beige accessories and a white corsage. The couple went to Florida for their wedding trip.

The bride is a senior at Greensboro College. The bridegroom is a graduate of Wake Forest College and is employed at the General Adjustment Bureau Inc. in Greensboro. The couple will live in Greensboro.

and Mrs. William R. LaNier of Durham, Mr. William Dixon LaNier of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Person of Raeligh, Mr. and Mrs. William Averette of Oxford, and Mr. Gerald Dixon of Durham.

Miss West and Mr. LaNier presented their bridesmaids and groomsmen with gifts tied with white bridal ribbons.

In Memory Of Mother

The Gardens of Heaven have a gateway, that leads to the great divine.

There Mother will be waiting to greet me where the light of the Savior shines.

Two years have passed since she left us; such a sweet memory and guide; to the pathway that leads to heaven where in time I too can abide.

And as each day brings me closer to my earthly journeys end. May my life have been lived so that the Master will say-Enter thou in.

Now with the new born day I give myself anew to these.

Not my will but thine, O Lord - What Would Thou have me be? By June Bradshaw in memory of my mother, Mrs. Mary King.

Comm. Of Missions Met

The Commission of Missions of the Warsaw Methodist Church met at the church, Thursday evening with the chairman, Mrs. G. P.

Prigden, presiding. Mrs. Prigden read an article describing the need for winter clothing for destitute peoples and refugees overseas. It stated that one million pounds of warm used clothing and blankets were needed to keep thousands from freezing to death.

Mrs. Charles Carroll reported that the Ladies Class of the church was contributing monthly to an orphanage at Seoul, Korea, where the children's fathers are former U. S. soldiers and their mothers Korean girls, and the children have been rejected by both nationalities.

The circles of the Warsaw Presbyterian Church met last Monday and Tuesday nights at which time an interesting Bible Study took place.
