Hinson, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Raiford Bostic, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wood, George Henry Best, and Mr. Strickland.

Youth Music Club

The Warsaw Youth Music Club met Wednesday, March 1st when Mrs. W. J. Middleton, Jr. presenting a program, "Youth Musician - Susan Walters", Susan, the eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Justin Walters of Hattiesburg, Miss. will perform for the Music Educator's National Conference in Asheville on April 20th. At ten months Susan sang and at thirteen months she "picked out" the notes of "Three Blind Mice" at the keyboard. When she was two she was playing her own accompaniments and making up little tunes. She appeared in public recital when she was three years old. It was evident then that the Walters family had a prodigy on its hands. The Los Angeles Composer, Dr. Elliott Griffis remarked, "a female reincarnation of Mozart". Susan's father is minister of Music and Mrs. Walters is organist at the Main Street Baptist Church in Hattiesburg, Miss.

Students who performed on the student recital were: Donna Sue Edwards, Harriet Moore, Laurie Gresham, Mary B. Draughon, Cindy Jones, Mary Sheffield, Brenda Bostic, Marsha Jordan, Ann Holt Jordan, Patsy Sheffield, Betsy Van, Catherine Buck, William Outlaw, Louise Bundy Jones, Abigail Warren, Gayle Revelle, Kathy Benton, Linda Grice, and Jane Blackmore.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Raiford Bostic and Mrs. W. M. Buck.

Mrs. Mathis Club Hostess

Mrs. Elbert Matthis entertained members of her bridge club last Tuesday evening at her home at 8:00 p. m.

Mrs. J. N. West was high scorer and received a set of mixing bowls as her award, and Mrs. Allen Draughon, Jr. second high scorer received a beverage bottle as second high winner. Others playing were Mrs. John A. Johnson and Mrs. F. A. Mitchner.

Mrs. Matthis served soft drinks and toasted pecans, and at the conclusion, apple jacks, topped with whipped cream, and coffee.

Calvary Brotherhood Met

The Brotherhood of Calvary Baptist Church met last Tuesday evening at 7:00 o'clock at the Warsaw Restaurant.

Following a delicious supper, the president, Ennis Tadlock, presided over the business meeting at which time Johnny Chestnut was elected stewardship chairman of the organization. The program, "Give of Your Best to The Master" was presented by Mr. Tadlock who assisted by Rev. Eugene Hagar, Rev. Paul Mull, Waitis English, Furney Jones, and Colon McLaurin.

Fifteen members and one visitor attended the meeting.

First Baptist Brotherhood

Members of the Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church met last Wednesday evening in the Fellowship room of the church with nineteen members attending.

Following a barbecue dinner served by circle number seven of the W. M. S., president Elbert Matthis presided over the brief business meeting.

In the absence of the program chairman, an open forum was held concerning a project of refinishing the floors in the educational plant of the church.

Mrs. Sheffield Hostess At Bridge

Mrs. Bill Sheffield entertained at a bridge luncheon last Thursday morning at 11:00 o'clock at her home.

Those attending were Mesdames: J. T. Gresham, Edwin Sheffield, F. A. Mitchner, J. H. Hines, Maurice Jordan, Allen Draughton, Jr., and Miss Fannie Thomas.

At the conclusion of several progressions, Mrs. Sheffield served barbecued chicken, butter beans, corn, molded salad on lettuce, banana bread, hot biscuits baked Alaska and coffee.

When scores were tallied Mrs. Jordan received high score award, and Mrs. Draughton received the second high award.

Has Slumber Party

Donna Kay Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Wood, celebrated her 13th birthday with a "slumber party", inviting some of her friends. Last Friday evening, Terry Wilson, Allie Sheffield, Linda Grice, Donna Sue Edwards, and Annette Wahab enjoyed a hot-dog and hamburger supper held on the lawn of the home. Cupcakes and soft drinks were also enjoyed.

Johnstone Bible Class Met
