Basic Sewing
 "Basic Sewing Construction" was the demonstration given to members of the Peony Branch Home Demonstration Club when it met last Wednesday afternoon at the clubhouse.
 The meeting which was opened with the singing of "Holy, Holy, Holy" was presided over by Mrs. E. C. Wray who gave the devotional following the singing of the hymn.
 During the business meeting plans were made for a club "cook-out" on June 11 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Torrans to announce the county dress revue will be held.

 Reports were heard from Mrs. J. B. Torrans, Citizenship leader, who gave a summary of her speech given at a recent Home Demonstration club meeting in Kenansville.
 Mrs. Mae Spicer, home agent, gave a most helpful demonstration on sewing construction, giving helpful pointers concerning the correct use of the sewing machine including the use of its attachments; correct choosing of patterns; the selection of materials; and many other helpful phases of sewing.
 At the close of the meeting Mrs. Leo Banton, hostess, served delicious strawberry shortcake to the new members attending.

INDIANA
 The Hoosiers aren't particularly proud of the huge amount of masonry that is their State Capital at Indianapolis. More symbolic of the city is the 285 foot-high Soldiers and Sailors Memorial with fountains splashing in summer and an elevator running to the top. No. 1 tourist attractions are the Motor Speedway where the 500-mile races are held, the World War Memorial Plaza which includes American Legion headquarters, the Scottish Rite Cathedral with its 63 bell carillon. Other attractions are the home of James Whitcomb Riley, poet and the children's hospital named for him.
