CAPITAL KNOWLEDGE
LOUISIANA
Baton Rouge has the country's tallest State Capitol. It's 34 stories are most unique and reaches almost 500 feet up. Huey P. Long was responsible for the erection of this unique and stately building as it was built during his administration as Governor of the state. The building is something of a personal monument to him, as he was assassinated in a marble-lined corridor of the building in 1935. His grave is in a sunken garden on the Capitol grounds. Over 52,000,000 people have visited the building, which is a visit to remember. The old Capitol, with its winding stairs and dome with panes of colored glass, is also open to the public.
