Mrs. Murphey's Aunt Succumbs

She was the daughter of the late Samuel James Boone and Harriet Ann Boone. She had been a resident of Wallace for 49 years, moving there from the Oak Plains section. She, with her two sisters, Cora and Laura, owned and operated the first and only millinery store in Wallace for a number of years. Upon the death of her sisters, "Miss Minnie" sold her business to Harry Kramer and was employed by his firm until 1948, at which time she was forced to retire because of ill health.

"Miss Minnie" as she was affectionally called by all, was a devoted, loyal member of the Wallace Presbyterian Church and attended regularly until illness prevented her from doing so.

Her was a character of faith, strength, courage, oyalty and love as shown during the long period of her illness. The many friends who stood by her until her passing attested to this fact.

Surviving Miss Minnie are one niece, Mrs. Clarence Murphy of Kenansville, and two nephews, Clarence Boone of Clinton, and Walter Boone of Norfolk, Va. Six great-nephews survive also.

Funeral services were held at Norman's Memorial Chapel on Friday, December 1, with Reverend James M. Atwood of Wallace and Reverend Richard Holsouser of Kenansville officiating.

Interment was at Rockfish Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Harry Kramer, Frank Williams, Bill Bowder, Daniel Williams, Steve Gowen, and Roy Carter.

Morning Club Met

The Early Morning Home Demonstration Club met Nov. 21st at 7:30 p. m. at the club house. The meeting opened with the group singing, "Come Ye Thankful People, Come." Mrs. Paul Ingram read Psalm 100 for the devotional, followed with prayer by Mrs. Roy Dunn.

Project leaders reporting were: Mrs. Rivers Winstead, Citizenship; Mrs. R. G. Quinn, Safety; and Miss Cora Wells, Education.

During the business session minutes of the October meeting were read and approved. The roll was called with 19 members and 1 visitor present.

Plans were made for a workshop on making feather hats, to be held at the club house Nov. 28th at 7:30 P. M.

Mrs. Mary Kennedy announced that her lawn would be landscaped and planted Nov. 24 and invited the members.

A committee was appointed to prepare sunshine baskets for the shut-ins and elderly people in the community.

A most interesting demonstration on "Family Team Work" was given by Family Life leader, Mrs. John Matthis. The meeting closed with the club collect as a prayer.

During the social hour the hostesses Mrs. Carl Powell and Mrs. Allen Dunn served ice cream, pound cake, nuts, and coffee.

The seven deadly sins take to the road as envisioned by the Rev. E. W. Andrews, writing in the Reader's Review.

SLOTH, or laziness, is the sin that makes the motorist unwilling to take the time to correct mechanical faults in his car. It prevents the taking of simple precautions. It produces a lethargy deadly to body as well as to soul.

GREED is so obviously a traffic sin that the greedy driver has a specific title-road hog. The greedy one demands more than his share of the road, demands the right to be first across at an intersection.

LUST, in a sexual sense, produces some accidents through one armed driving and distraction. But just for speed and excitement is deadlier in traffic.

GLUTTONY, particularly in the use of alcohol, dulls the sense, weakens the reflexes, spoils judgment. It is one of the deadly killers on the highway - and as deadly for the drinking pedestrian as the drinking driver.

ENVY is a class killer. The driver who resents being passed or left behind at a signpost is being moved by envy to behavior that jeopardizes life.

ANGER is a familiar phenomenon in drivers. The fault in the other driver-whether it be a real fault or an imagined one stirs resentment and often provokes hazardous response. We understand our own faults; excuse them by saying we are only human and therefore subject to an error. But similar faults prove to us the inhumanity of the "enemy" in the other car whose fault imperils or inconveniences us.

In traffic, petty irritation can be as deadly as roaring wrath.

PRIDE. Behind every one of these driving sins lies the central sin of pride. Once encased in sheet steel, with the power of more than 100 horses responding to the gentle touch of a foot, we find ourselves lifted to a false sense of greatness.

Eastern Star Met

Mrs. J. B. Stroud assisted by the Chaplain, Star Points and Mrs. N. B. Boney presented a short Thanksgiving Program when Kenansville Chapter, No. 215, Order of the Eastern Star met last week for its bi-monthly meeting. The worthy Matron Violet Rogers and Worthy Patron, A. C. Holsan were in their respective stations. Plans were made to have the annual Christmas program at the next state meeting on December 12th at 7:30 p. m. A good attendance is anticipated. At the close of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed. The refreshments committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Westbrook, Mrs. Pearl T. Kornegay and Miss Bessie Kornegay served fruit cake topped with whipped cream and a cherry followed by coffee, to the present.

Week Of Prayer

A series of services were concluded on Friday evening at the Baptist Church.

Mrs. Jack Brinson, W. M. S. president, opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, program chairman of Ella Coope Circle, opened the meeting with "The That Pious Glad Tidings as her theme for the program. The poem "Lovest Thou Me" by Elizabeth Reynolds was presented by Mrs. Jim Bunce; Tidings of redemption; Mrs. E. C. Tyndall; Why we should pray and to whom, Mrs. Amos Brinson; appeal for the Lottie Moon Christmas offering, Mrs. Colon Holland. New Era in Christian Music, Mrs. Jack Brinson.

Closing meditation and prayer was given by Mrs. Willard Brinson and the offering was taken by the girls auxiliary members.

Birth Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Monroe Williamson announce the birth of a son, Stephen Monroe, Jr. on December 2, 1961 in Duplin General Hospital, Kenansville, N. C. Mrs. Williamson was the former, Nancy A'phin.

Women Of Church Met

The General meeting of the Women of Grove Presbyterian Church was held last Monday night at 7:30 in the Lucy Jolly Building. There were 12 members present. In the absence of the president, the vice-president, Mrs. J. B. Wallace presided. The devotional was conducted by Mrs. Mattie W. Sadler. The program, entitled "Jesus Christ the Light of the World," introducing you to the World Council of Churches was in charge of Mrs. N. B. Boney who was ably assisted by Mesdames G. V. Gooding, Ruth P. Grady and Martha Sitterson.

With The Duplin Circuit Rider

The way to have good neighbors is to be one. The world needs good neighbors in Kenansville and everywhere else. Franklin Roosevelt instituted the good neighbor policy as our American policy. Jesus recognized the good neighbor policy as cardinal to God's law as the second commandment. The prophets centuries before had so recognize love of neighbor. Attend the church of your choice next Sunday and learn how to be a good neighbor.
