Bowers - Kennedy Wed In Beulaville

Miss Norma Faye Kennedy and John O. Bowers Jr. were married January 21, 1960 in the Sandy Plain Free Will Baptist Church, with the Rev. S. A. Smith, Beulaville, N. C. and the Rev. J. J. Brooks, Concord, N. C. officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kennedy, Beulaville, N. C. and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Bowers, Sr. of Decatur, Georgia. The bride and groom attended schools in Atlanta, Georgia.

Music was presented by Mrs. Mervin Sumner, Organist and Miss Pamela Sumner sang, "God loves His Children"; "Whither Thou Goest" and "Gentle Saviour Walk beside Us."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length dress of white chantilly lace over taffeta, fashioned with elaborate bodice sabrina scalloped neckline and the traditional long sleeves ending in calla points over her hands. Her voluminous skirt featured multiple tiers of scalloped lace. Her 2 tiered finger tip veil of pure silk french illusion was attached to a crown of lace pearls and sequins. She carried her Bible topped with a purple throated orchid.

Her Sister, Mrs. Tommie Fitzgerald Bostic, was matron of honor. She wore a green velvet dress and carried a green muff topped with a corsage of white carnations.

Little Pamela Sumner was flower girl as well as vocalist and was dressed similar to the matron of honor. Arthur Frederick Kennedy, brother of the bride was ring bearer.

Mr. John D. Bowers Sr. was his son's best man and ushers were Wilbur Sumner and Edward Earl Kennedy cousins of the bride and Tommie Fitzgerald Bostic, Brother-in-law of the bride.

The newly-weds will live in Beulaville upon their return from the Western part of North Carolina, Kentucky and Georgia.

of Beulaville, North Carolina. He was graduated from Wake Forest College in 1957 and worked with the Commercial Credit Corporation, Lumberton, North Carolina until he joined the Bank staff.

He is married to the former Dare Roberts of North Wilkesboro, North Carolina. They live at 2111 Carrington Road, Lynchburg.
