aville Girls Win County Basketball Championship With 8-0, Record. James In Ties Beulaville For County Championship In Boys Div. With 6-2, Records.

Swansboro 10-2.

Beulaville tied the score 20-20 and 26-26, and went out front 35-33 with

and I must say congratulations are in order for this fine team.

DCC SPORTS

S. C. MUTCHERSEN FRANKING M.

lin County Class A Basketball rnament Gets Underway February 27, 28, Mar. 2, 3. Support Your Teams

James Renan Tigers and spin Indians split a double-this past Friday night. The boys took a 10 point lead in end of the score for the seventh quarter and went on to week. "We have a much better ball Carr's high flying Indi-club than our 1-7 record indicates." a, in a very important con-"We have made a lot of improve game. The win tied James with Beulaville for ties ments and I feel like we could still make some". In the Chinquapin game Joyce Barnes lead the Tiger DCC, and dropped attack with 17 points, but Clara Whaley was high for the evening fourth. Coach Jim in a Tiger girls, out scored Jerwith 22. was to late by that time as

Th enew high school all-star foot-

won 56-30. es Kenan's ace sharp shooter ball game, scheduled to be inauhell led the Tigers with gurated next Thanksgiving at Green while high honors for the ville, holds much promise for Easwent to Indian Scotty Halso tern Carolina's small-school senior 0. Big Johnny Pat Harmon standouts. Affording recognition for 15 for JK Allen Fountain had Class 2-A and Class players in the wight Smith 6, Woody Oakley uddy Pope 2, Dwight Kirby 2, of them to achieve a college schol-Lee West 1. Johnny Laiper was arship they might otherwise miss, high for Chinquapin with 9, is one of the two principal purposes ald Batts, third with 8. of the all-star undertaking, founder h Lanler's much improved Walter Jones of Farmville pointed

This same Swansboro team snap-ped an 18 game winning streak by be proceeds, which will go to the Boys Home of North Carolina, Inc., at Lake Waccamaw. Coach Irvin Dobson's Beulaville girls suffered their first defeat of be beschelte at game after the first quarter. Large Swansboro team snap-ped an 18 game winning streak by White Oak earlier in the week. In the boys game, Swansboro star-ted at a fast pace and swamped the Panther's of Coach Billy Bostic, 70-44. Beulaville was never in the ball game after the first quarter. the proceeds, which will go to the Boys Home of North Carolina, Inc., at Lake Waccamaw.

girls suffered their first defeat of the basketball season last week at the hands of Swansboro, 40-36, in overtime. The Swansboro girls got off to a fast pace 14-5 in the first quarter, but the Panthers came the basketball season last week at points. Charlie Lanier and Lonnie Thigpen had 7 each for Bostic's team. Swansboro's Ernest Wiggins the hands of Swansboro, 40-36, in overtime. The Swansboro girls got off to a fast pace 14-5 in the first quarter, but the Panthers came had 18 for high. back in the second to outscore

The North Duplin girls swamped the B. F. Grady lassies last week, 46-16 in a conference game. And the Rebel boys downed Larry Stewart's one minute and 29 seconds left in the game. Ginny Hancock, Swansteam 55-49.

boro's top scorer, tied the score Coach Richard Kaleel's Rebel with 40 seconds, 35-35. In the over-time two foul shots by Nora Miller and a goal and a free shot by Hangirls ran past the Grady Panthers real easy as six Rebel girls got in the scoring column. Alice Lewis and cock sewed it up for Swansboro. Kaye Davis led the Rebel attack It was the first defeat for the outwith 10 points each. High scoring Parm McCullen, with only limited action, had 9, Mary Sloan and Jostanding Panthers team in 16 out-ings and put them in a class all by themselves in the conference. It is Ann Turner 6 a piece, and Sandra the first time a girl team has ever Johnson 5. Mary Harper and Joan gone undefeated in conference play. Westbrook had 8 and 7 points re They ended the season with an 8-0, spectively for Grady. Duplin County Conference record

Another note of interest the score was 11-0, in favor of the Rebel girls in the first quarter and the score

champion

Sat. 9:00

at the half was 26-4. The Grady boys led by Braxton Smith got off to a good start in the first quarter and held on to win 55-49. Smith scored 22 for the win-ners, Donald Grady had 19, and Graw Marter 9. Decret Mariner he Gray Harper 9. Roger Mozingo led the Reb attack with 18, and Tommy Tucker and Donald Andrews ended the scoring with 13 and 10 respec-tively.

The North Duplin Rebels traveled up to Brodgen earlier this week and dropped a doubleheader to the strong Wayne teams. The girls bow-ed 49-26, and the boys fell 64-59. The Brodgen girls led by Edith Outlaw outscored the Rebel lassies 31-13 in the second half to make it a very poor contest. Outlaw scored 29 points and Jane Wiggins had 13. Pam McCullen led North Dunlin with 10, Jo Ann Turner and Alice Lewis had 5 each. Bobby King took high honors away from the Rebels ace, Roger Mozingo, scoring 25. Mozingo had 16 and Tucker 7. Allen Swinson Winter Camporee led the Brodgen team with 22.

At Tuscarora

In Farm Income How does North Carolina agricul-

ure stand, farm income-wise, in elation to the rest of the nation? Fourth in cash receipts from crops; fourth in poultry; 19th in livestock; 11th in total receipts. These statistics were noted by Wayne Corpening of Winston-Salem, vice president and agricultural tions on Saturday. The Soil Conmanager of Wachovia Bank, at the recent tenth annual Farm Press. Radio and Television Institute at life North Carolina State College. the Boy Scouts of America are all joining hands to make this one "In the past ten years, the state's farm cash receipts have risen from of the most outstanding Conserva-$816 million to $1.2 billion a year," tion events ever staged in this said Corpening. Livestock income doubled in the areas will be set up 1. Soil profiles for instruction decade - from $160 million to $320 million, he said. "But we can't be satisfied with soil types and land capability. that." he added. "Our packing plants are operating at only 70 per cent of capacity." ing. There's potential for $40 million more in business a year in meat processing, he said.

irea.

2.

3.

The following demonstration

Pine seedling planting.

in between the hours of 3:00 p.m.

and 6:00 p.m. A registration fee

Camp sites will be assigned at Scouts should come in uniform.

he time of registration.

Wildlife food shrubs plant

Wood lot management. Pond Management for fish

4. Fngineering - soil control. "If we produced all the meat we roduction 7. Woods fire prevention eat, we'd have about $222 million more income a year to agriculture, control. Scouts will be divided into grohe noted. Corpening noted that 77 per cent ups and rotate to the demonstraof all manufacturing and 82 per cent of all payroll in the state are ion areas Friday afternoon is registration time for Scouts. All should check connected with some phase of agri-of $1.00 will be charged to cover insurance and a distinctive patch. CLASSIFIED ADV FOR SALE: 14x14 grave plot is

Photographers will be on hand from Boy's Life magazine and otinecrest Cemetery in Warsaw. Contact: C. K. Scott her publications. Everyone will 306 Boone Trail want to look his best. Bring plenty Fayetteville, N. C. of warm clothing and bedding. Phone Hudson 4-9707 cer Richard Rodgers is Honorary Education Chairman for the American Cancer Soc-iety's 1962 Crusade.

In accepting the chairmanship, Rodgers, who has been cured of cancer of the jaw, pointed out that his partner and close friend, Oscar Hammerstein, II, died of cancer. For both these reasons-Oscar's tragic death and my cure," he says "I have a personal stake in the fight against cancer." Rodgers' latest success is the current Broadway hit Sound of Music.

He is pictured with young Kathy Battle, of Asheville, North Carolina, who has been cured of cancer also.

year many people that use gasoline for non-highway purposes fall to ap-ply for these gasoline tax refunds. Even though the average state re-fund paid to farmers in 1961 amounted to right at a $100 many farmers eligible to apply for a similar re-fund failed to do so. Beginning with January 1 to April 15 farmers can file for their state gasoline tax refunds. Farm Bureau, in each county with an organiza-tion, is making plans to aid farmers with filing. Should farmers need forms or assistance in filing for the refunds, they should contract their county Farm Bureau which will refund.

have an ample supply of forms and someone to aid them if they need help.

When a farmer uses the gas in his farm tank in his bractor and other farm machinery only, his invoices of purchase will be ample

On March 2-3-4. Scouts, lea-ders, parents, and interested farproof for the tax refund,. However when he uses the gas in his farm Camp Tuscarora for the Winter tank in his car, as well as in his farm machinery, it will be neces-Conservation Camporee. This evsary that he have some records as ent was originally scheduled for sary that he have some records as January, but due to bitter cold to how much he used in his tractor or car plus invoices of purchase. A weather and snow, it had to be postponed. It is expected that calendar with the number of gallons of gas put in the tractor or car on more than 400 Scouts will be cam-ping at Toscarora for this full period of the event. Farmers will be welcome for the demonstrathe given dates will be sufficient proof in figuring the number of gal-lons in which a farmer is due a

With the passage of SB 83 in the service, Forestry Service, Wild-North Carolina General Assembly in Resources Commission, and

> Duplin General Patients (Continued From Front)

Higgs, Linda and Baby Boy Futrell, Pamela Dobson, Ruth Bostic, Jessie Ray PINK HILL Williams, Joseph Thigpen, Bernie Stiles, Katie Branch, Arthur (c) ROSE HILL Thompson, Audrey Johnson, Janie Johnson, Nancy and Baby Girl Jones, Fave and Baby Girl FAISON

Watkins, Mayfield and Baby Girl Carter, Joyce Taylor, Elizabeth

MT. OLIVE Clibbons, Emma (c) ALBERTSON Harper, Furney Massey, Sam TURKEY Cavenaugh, Nora MAGNOLIA

s the time to hile for In this age of high cost, a $100

everyone will agree, does not go very far. But isn't this sum of mon-ey worth a few moments of a per-son's time, especially when no in-vestment is necessary to receive this money? Apparently, a lot of folks think not. ale tax re April 15, 1962 - farmers and can apply for the state tax i

All the people that use gasoline for non-highway purposes are eligi-ble for a state 6-cent and a federal can apply soline used for in ses during the call 4-cent gasoline tax refund. Each 961. with the f

July 1 to S at this time, and this time g (for a for only a half year, will be ap

January 1 to June 30, 1962. after, the state and foderal re will be filed for at the same and for a complete fiscal ye Swine Dysentery

Is Big Threat To N. C. Swine

Farmers who bring newly-pur-chased pigs into their herds this winter without taking health pro-cautions are running the change of suffering some heavy losses. A major threat right now is swing dysentery, says the American Foundation for Animal Health. This disease is precoming more and more of a problem, it can affect up to 100 per cen tof the herd, and can caus per cent of th cherd, and can caus goes untreated. What waraing signs of dysentery should a farmer watch for? Scour-ing is one of the major symptoms. But other diseases cause scouring, too, so a first step in controlling an outbreak is to have a veterinarian diagnose the exact cause, and then take proper treatment measures. Farmers are advised to make sure that pips are bought from s headity herd. Newly-purchased pigs should be kept spart from the home herd for a period of weeks, because goes untreated.

herd for a period of weeks, bes infected bogs can be spreade this disease even before they symptoms.

Swine dysentery is now becoming a real threat to hog profits in many areas, and authorities urge produ cers to be more watchful for ft.

4. Chinquapin

consolation

consolation

