Miss Judy Stancil Named To Who's Who Among College Students

Miss Judy Stancil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Stancil of Warsaw is one of the eleven outstanding seniors of Guilford College who have been named to "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." These students were selected by a student-faculty vote last spring on the basis of character, service to the school, leadership and practical qualities, contribution to extra-curricular activities, potential usefulness to business and society and scholarship.

The Guildfordian states that Judy is a math major and is currently serving as vice-president of the woman's Student Government and is a member of the Woman's Athletic Association, cabinet and Student's Affairs Board. She was a member of Westminster Fellowship (1, 2, 3), the Quarter staff (class editor 2, 3), The S. A. B. (2, 4), the W. S. G. council (2, 3, 4). She was on the honor roll her sophomore year. Judy has been a cheerleader for all four years.

Marriners Celebrate 25th Anniversary With Gala Party At National Armory

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling W. Marriner celebrated their 25th Wedding Anniversary February 23 with a party at the local National Guard Armory. Mr. and Mrs. Marriner were married February 18, 1937.

The armory was resplendent for the gala occasion. White and silver streamers with silver and white wedding bells were delicately suspended from the ceiling and set off gracefully in the center with a net filled with gilt balloons which were dropped at midnight. Silver sparkle sprinkled on the dance floor lent enchantment for the festive affair as a revolving light radiated the colors. The background of the armory was the setting for Woody Hayes orchestra of Raleigh who furnished music for dancing. Large palms and ferns with silver metallic flanked the bandstand.

Inviting guests in the armory at the entrance were Mr. and Mrs. William J. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Dalton West and Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. West introduced the guests to the receiving line composed of Mr. and Mrs. Marriner, Mrs. Bertha West, mother of Mrs. Marriner, and Miss Nell J. Bowden, soloist at the Marriner wedding. Mrs. J. N.
