Henry Gore Honored On 80th Birthday

Mr. Henry Gore had all his children and their families present last Sunday when he celebrated his 80th birthday in his home in Warsaw.

Present to help him celebrate were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Gore of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Cottle of Turkey and Mr. and Mrs. Wright Gore, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Monk Powell of Warsaw and his wife, Mrs. Gore. Forty-five other guests were present.

A delicious dinner was enjoyed by everyone.

Card Of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. Lester E. Gurley would like to thank their many friends for the many, many kindnesses through cards, flowers and food shown to them during the recent death of their infant son, Bobby Earl, who had been ill since birth.

Mr. And Mrs. Kitchen Honored At Lawn Party

The home of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Kornegay was attractively decorated last Saturday evening as it was thrown ensuite for a special occasion when Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kitchen were honored by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Johnson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John N. Fonville and the J. M. Kornegays with a party on the lawn of their lovely home.

Used as the paramount theme for the decorations was boating. Floating in a pool which marked the entrance of the party area were Hydrangeas, Magnolias and boats. Attractively arranged throughout the area were potted red and white geraniums. A huge arrangement of bamboo and magnolia blossoms were lovely in a wheelbarrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Avon Sharpe greeted the guests. Punch was served from a lovely bowl which rested in a life preserver at one end of the table. A large toy boat accented with red burning tapers marked the other end of the beautiful table along with an arrangement of red geraniums. Hors d'oeuvres were served buffet from a redwood table. The hors d'oeuvres tables were graced with an eight branched candelabra trimmed with a cluster of white gardenias.

A set of outdoor hurricane lamps were presented the honorees by their hosts.

During the evening approximately 65 guests called.

Gardenettes Install Officers

The Gardenettes Garden Club met last Monday evening with Mrs. I. J. Quinn in her home on Pine Street at 8:00.

Mrs. Bill Best presided over the meeting and gave the installation service at which time two new officers were installed. Mrs. Joe Costin was installed as new Treasurer and Mrs. Joe Kornegay was installed as vice-president.

Following the business meeting and installation service, Mrs. Best presented a most interesting program on "Arrangements Through the Years" by the Tulsa Oklahoma Garden Club in Tulsa. It was a program of colorful slides and was most informative.

A delicious pineapple frozen dessert topped with whipped cream and coffee served to the eight members present.

Out Of Hospital

Friends of Brad Minshew will be happy to learn that he has returned home from Duplin General Hospital in Kenansville following an auto accident. He is cared by his mother, Mrs. Belva Minshew, as doing fine and condition is satisfactory. Brad came home Monday.

Renee Carlton Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher Carlton entertained their daughter, Renee, Saturday afternoon from 3:30 until 5:00 with a birthday party on her eighth birthday.

Upon arrival of the little guests, favors of balloons, bubble gum and suckers were presented them. Out-door games were enjoyed.

Birthday cake, ice cream and punch was served to the twelve guests helping Renee celebrate.

Look upon every day as the whole of life, not merely as a section; and enjoy and improve the present without wishing, through haste, to rush on to another.

Mrs. Thomas Brooks Boyette

First Baptist Church Scene of Ceremony Uniting Miss Braswell, Mr. Boyette

Miss Joyce Braswell and Thomas Brooks Boyette were united in marriage at five o'clock on Sunday, May the twenty-seventh, in an impressive double ring ceremony held in the 1st Baptist Church at Warsaw, with the Reverend Delmar Parkerson as the officiating minister. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Troy Braswell of Warsaw, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Boyette of Warsaw.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Paul Britt rendered a program of nuptial music at the organ accompanied by Miss Bobbie Jean Graham who sang two songs with special meaning to the affair, "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

Entering the church to the strains of the traditional wedding march, the bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Rudolph Matthews of Magnolia. She was radiantly lovely in a formal bridal gown of white chantilly lace over tulle, fashioned with a long fitted bodice, a sabrina neckline and the traditional long sleeves ending in calla points over the hand. The luminous skirt featured tulle and tulle cascading into a chapel train.

She carried a bridal bouquet composed of cascades of white roses and pompons ending with a tear drop pearl, and centered with a pure white orchid.

Attending the bride was her sister, Miss Lynda Braswell, serving as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Doris Boyette, sister of the groom, Miss Mary Alice Graham, Miss Gayle Cockroft of Turkey and Billy Kennedy. Miss Connie Lou Rivenbark served as flower girl. They wore blue sheath dresses with white organza overskirts and matching headpieces and each carried a long stemmed white rose.

Mr. Kenneth Lanier served the groom as best man. Ushers were Mr. Glenn Braswell, cousin of the bride, Mr. Joe Boyette and Mr. Billy Knowles, cousins of the groom, Mr. Bill Taylor of LaGrange and Mr. Frank Neilson of Bay City, Michigan.

The candlelit chancel of the church created a lovely background for the wedding party as the couple exchanged their vows before an altar beautifully ornamented with a large white arch candelabra with tall white burning tapers. Green palms and white tapers graced each side of a large center arrangement of white gladiolus, mums, and pompons interspersed with white snapdragons.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, Miss Bobbie Jean Graham, soloist, sang, "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction.

The bride's mother was becomingly attired in a beige dress with matching accessories. She wore a purple orchid. The mother of the groom chose a beige suit with matching accessories. A purple child completed her ensemble.

The bride is a graduate of Dell School of Medical Technology Asheville, N. C. and she is presently employed with the Sampson County Memorial Hospital. The groom is employed with Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp. in Wallace, N. C. Both the bride and groom are graduates of James Kenan High School.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Boyette will make their home at 505 E. College Street in Warsaw.

For traveling, the bride chose a navy blue suit with matching accessories and wore the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Arnold M. Jones directed the wedding.
