Mrs. Leonard Donald Grady
Grady-Barwick Wed At Deep Run Chr.

Miss Janice Athelia Barwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Barwick of Deep Run and Mr. Leonard Donald Grady, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard F. Grady of Albertson, were wed at the Free Will Baptist Church in Deep Run at 4:30 o'clock, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Andrew Hill of New Bern officiated at the double ring rites.

Mrs. Elizabeth Marshall, organist of Kinston presented a program of wedding music. Mr. Alvin T. Hanson, vocalist, sang "Because," "Through The Years," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal silk peau-de-soie gown with jeweled applique lace edging the neckline. Self-covered tiny buttons adorned the back and classic sleeves ending in calla points over her hands. The belt skirt featured an extravagant pouf caught up with a double row of handmade roses extending into a chapel. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a double crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white bridal roses, baby's breath centered with a white orchid.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Kay Davis of Warsaw, cousin of the bride. She wore a lemon peel dress of silk peau-de-soie with a bodice of lace ending in scallops at the waistline. The skirt of unpressed pleats featured a handmade rose and petals in the back. She wore a rose matching hatpiece. She carried yellow roses mounted on an ivory fan.

The other attendants, Miss Violet Barwick, sister of the bride, Miss Carol Jean Kennedy of Kinston, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Rachel Thomson of Kinston, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Alice Faye Barwick, sister-in-law of the bride, Cinda Bunting of Robersonville, and Miss Shelba Grady of Deep Run were dressed identical to the honor attendant.

Mr. Gaston F. Grady of Wilson, brother of the groom, was bestman. Groomsmen were Messrs. Lester Barwick, brother of the bride, Philip Grady, brother of the groom, Wayland Davis of Warsaw, Robert Grady of Newport, Willard Grady of Deep Run, and Gene Smith of Albertson.

The mother of the bride wore a sea green street-length sheath of Matilasse. She wore white accessories and a white Georgian orchid corsage.

The mother of the groom wore a street length dress of mauve lace. She wore matching lace hat and shoes. Her corsage was also a white Georgian orchid corsage.

The ceremony was directed by Mrs. Harold Hardison, cousin of the bride. Miss Pamela Hardison presided at the register.

The bride was graduated from Deep Run High School and Atlantic Christian College where she was a member of Phi Sigma Tau social sorority and the Golden Knot Honor Society. She will be a member of the faculty at Seven Springs in the fall.

The groom was graduated from B. F. Grady High School and attended Atlantic Christian College. He is associated with E. I. Dupont de Nemours in Kinston.
