Li. Col West Graduates Air University

MAXWELL AFB, Ala. - Lieutenant Colonel Robert L. West of Warsaw, N. C., an Air Force Reserve officer, was a member of the graduating class at the recently concluded Command and Staff College orientation course at the Air University.

The colonel, an attorney, is a graduate of Wake Forest College, Winston-Salem, N. C. A member of the Masonic Lodge, he is the son of Mrs. Bertha P. West, College Station, Warsaw.

He is married to the former Anne Van Wyck Pollock of Kinston, N. C.

Colonel West was one of 383 selected reserve officers from a wide range of civilian occupations and professions to be chosen for the special course. He received instruction designed to better acquaint him with the present threat to free world security. The current roles, capabilities and employment concepts of Air Force aerospace components and forces of the other U. S. military services were stressed.

33 Kin Attend Dinner Honoring Mrs. Byrd

Warsaw, W. A. Byrd of Route 2, Warsaw, was honored Sunday with a family homecoming and birthday celebration.

Mrs. Byrd, who will note her 69th birthday on Sunday, July 15, was feted by 33 of her kin: children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Eight of her nine children were present with their families. Only one son, Bill Byrd of Swannanoa who had visited the previous week, was unable to attend.

Children present include Mrs. Ruby Carlton and Mrs. Irene Powell of Hollywood, Florida; Mrs. Madeline Beasley of Goldsboro; Alex Byrd, of Faison; Robert Byrd of Wilmington; Dick Byrd of Garner; Jack Byrd and Mrs. Lot Hostie of Warsaw.

Mrs. Byrd was honored with a large birthday cake and with gifts. The bountiful dinner was served picnic style at the home just off the Warsaw-Kenansville highway.

Methodist Circles

The circles of the Methodist Church of Warsaw met last Monday night in the prospective homes of the members.

Circle No. 1 met with Mrs. Charles Carroll. There were eleven members present. Delicious light refreshments were served.

Circle No. 2 met with Mrs. Robert Lewis. There were six members present. Ice cream, floats, nuts and cookies were served.

Circle No. 3 met with Mrs. M. A. Smith. A frozen fruit salad, crackers and punch were served to the eight members present.

Circle No. 4 met with Mrs. Fred Walton. Chess pie, and coffee was served to the seven members present.

Circle No. 5 met with Mrs. Robert Winders with five present. Ice cream and pound cake was served.

Circle No. 6 met with Mrs. Sanford Packer with Mrs. Lena Carlton presiding. Ice cream in cantaloupe was served to the nine members present.

The Methodist Circles have changed their circle procedure and only have a devotional and short business meeting within the individual circles in the members homes. Following this they all meet in the Fireside Room of the Church for their program. Monday night, Circle No. 2 gave the program which was on "Youth Work Over Seas." The circle contest was won by Circles No. 1, 2, and 3.

Miss Rollins Honored At Dessert Bridge

Mrs. Robert Lewis and Mrs. John A. Johnson entertained at the Lewis home on Plank Street last Friday evening honoring Miss Judy Rollins, a July bride elect at 8:00 p.m. with a dessert bridge party.

The home was decorated with arrangements of white gladioli and shasta daisies with burning white tapers.

White carnation corsages were presented the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Glenn Rollins. Ice cream, nuts, mints and bridal cakes were served upon arrival on tables covered with white cloths and centered with the burning tapers.

Guests playing were Mesdames A. J. Jenkins, Jr. George West, and Misses Sara Alice Fussell, Martha Ann Barr, and Ann Straughan and the honoree and her mother. Mrs. Jenkins won a baking dish for bridge high, and Mrs. Fussell won a coaster set for canasta high.

During progression, punch was served from the dining room table which was thrown with a white linen cutwork cloth and centered with a lovely arrangement of white gladioli.

Miss Rollins was presented with a vegetable dish in her chosen pattern by the hostesses.

Attend Institute

Henry Edwards, of Warsaw, N. C., is attending a National Science Foundation Institute for High School teachers of the Earth Sciences now being held at the University of North Carolina, June 7-17.

Edwards is a teacher at the James Kenan High School in Warsaw, N. C. A total of 38 students are registered in this NSF institute at UNC.

The institute is sponsored by the UNC Department of Geology and Geography under a grant of $38,000 from the National Science Foundation. Each teacher attending receives a stipend of $450 plus an allowance for dependents en travel.

The establishment of the institute was prompted by the work of the North Carolina Curriculum Study Committee which recommended that a course in the earth sciences be taught in the ninth grade, but discovered that few teachers were qualified to teach such a course. Courses offered by the Institute in physical geology, historical geology and physical geography are designed for persons with little or no previous training in the field.

Attend Recital

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Surratt attended the Music Recital of their granddaughters, Pamela Surratt in Goldsboro Sunday afternoon which was held at 3:00 in the home of her music teacher, Mrs. J. V. Riley.

Explorers Scouts To Attend Nat'l Conference

A delegation of five Explorers, and one adult leader will represent the Tuscarora Council, Boy Scouts of America, at the 1st National Explorer Delegate Conference, which will be held on August 28-30, at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Over 3,500 delegates are expected at the conference. These Explorers were elected locally to represent the 300,000 American boys of high school age in Exploring.

The conference program, built around the present theme of Exploring, "Our Best Today - for a Better Tomorrow," has been completely planned by a National Steering Committee composed of high-school age Explorers.

The local delegation, elected by the district and council Explorer cabinets, are as follows: J. Charles Pratt, Jerry Liston Edwards, Wayne District, Goldsboro, Oliver D. Smith, and Johnny Craig Rich, Duplin District, Magnolia, and John Minnich, Sampson District, Clinton. Heading the delegation will be H. Dean Brady, District Executive, Smithfield.

One of the men responsible for the fine Exploring program, said, "One of the key conference events will be the discussion groups. These young men from across the nation will tackle such national concerns as American ideals, free enterprise as President Kennedy's challenge concerning the fitness of American youth. They hope to come up with recommendations for their 300,000 members that will bring about a positive understanding and better
