Msis Peggy Quinn Is Honored

Miss Peggy Quinn, who will marry Burvin Blanchard of Turkey on Sunday, August 26, was honored here recently at two parties.

The first event was a lovely miscellaneous shower given on Friday night July 20th, from 8 to 10 o'clock in the home of her aunt, Mrs. T. P. Quinn on the Sarceta Road. Joint hostesses with Mrs. Quinn were Mrs. John Thomas Matthews and Mrs. Frank Summers.

The honoree was presented a unique bridal corsage upon arrival.

Games were led by Mrs. Geraldine Summerlin. Later the bride-elect was led into the Den where she found a beautifully decorated table with many attractive and useful gifts arranged under a net umbrella topped with a lovely bride doll. After the packages were opened and admired, they were displayed for the benefit of the sixty guests present.

The hostesses assisted by Mrs. R. G. Quinn the bride-elect's mother, served lime punch accompanied with cheese stars, chicken salad sandwiches, cake squares and salted nuts. A color note of green and white with a touch of yellow was effectively carried out by the use of candles in silver holders and floral arrangements in silver bows containing glads, dahlias and fever few.

On the following Friday night, July 27th at 6:30 Mesdames Fannie Jernigan and Macy Brinson were co-hostesses to another miscellaneous bridal shower for Miss Peggy Quinn bride-elect of August. This affair was held in the Fellowship Hall of the local Baptist Church where Miss Quinn is teacher of the Beginner Sunday School Class. Guests present were members and a few former members of that class. They included Wylene Booth, Melenie and Rosemary Brinson, David and Janet Redwine, Brent Stewart, Pam Hall, Mike and Salie Jernigan, Anthony Hatcher, Debbie Heath, also Mrs. R. G. Quinn, mother of the honoree. Mixed summer flowers were used for decorations. After opening the gifts, the hostesses served punch and assorted cookies to the 15 present.
