Charles S. Murphy speak in Raleigh

RALEIGH — Charles S. Murphy, under secretary of agriculture, will address the annual joint meeting of the Farmers Cooperative Exchange and the N. C. Cotton Growers Cooperative Association in Raleigh September 21.

The meeting, scheduled to be held in the J. S. Dorton Arena at the N. C. State Fair, annually attracts between 3,000 and 5,000 farmers from all areas of North and South Carolina, according to G. D. Arndt, general manager of the two organizations.

Murphy, a native North Carolinian, was born in Duplin Co. and attended school in Wallace. He was graduated from Duke University in 1931 with an A. B. degree. In 1934 he received his LL. B. degree from the same institution.

After graduation, he became a law assistant in the office of the U. S. Senate Legislative Council, serving in this capacity for two years. For the next 11 years, he was assistant legislative counsel to the Senate.

As a specialist in agricultural legislation, he helped draft the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, basis of the present farm program, and other farm legislation.

He became administrative assistant to President Truman in 1947 and was advanced to the position of special counsel to the President in 1950. In the latter job, he acted as principal staff assistant on legislation including that pertaining to agriculture.

From 1953 until last year, he practiced law as a member of the Washington, D. C. firm of Morrison, Murphy, Clapp and Abrams.

Murphy operates a 750-acre

What Questions Vets Are Asking

Here are authoritative answers by the Veterans Administration to questions from former servicemen and their families:

Q-What happened to the old Veterans Bureau?

A-The Veterans Bureau was established August 9, 1921, and took over the functions of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance as well as those vocational training duties which had been handled by the Federal Board for Vocational Education and those duties of the Public Health Service that had to do with physical examinations, care and treatment of veterans. Nine years later, in July, 1930, the functions of the Pension Bureau of the Interior Department and the functions of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers were added to the work of the Veterans Bureau and the entire organization was renamed the Veterans Administration.

Q-How much was paid out as a "bonus" to World War I veterans?

A-Under the Veterans Readjustment Compensation Act of 1924, the VA has paid out just over $3.8 billion.

Q-What is the "Peace Time Veterans Education Act"?

A-No act nor law providing Federal aid for "peacetime" service members passed by Congress as of August 15, 1962.
