singing "America" accompanied by William Outlaw.

New officers elected were: President, Patsy Sheffield; Vice President, Marsha Jordan; Secretary, Ann Hines; Program chairman, Becky Phillips.

Mrs. W. J. Middleton, Jr. discussed a new "Music Fun" theory and appreciation course which the club will study this year. A program was presented on "How Much Work It Takes to Accomplish Our Goals." Mrs. Middleton asked these questions of the club: Do you know any person who sings or plays very well? Did they always practice because they wanted to practice? Did someone ever make them practice?

She told of the trained circus animals and how it is the trainer who makes them practice day after day so they can perform wonderful stunts. The parents are like the trainer and see that their children practice day by day so they may be trained to accomplish their goals. Anyone who does anything very well has put a great deal of effort and hard work into what they do. It may be fun to what we can do very well; but before it became fun, it was hard work.

Students playing on student recital were: Tanga Jo West, Lau-
