I see where the aftern column writers early for going to cost about 5000,000 to recair none leaks in the Capitol douts. That a heap of money to fit up a few leaks, this what surpressed me is that they still got a done on the Capitol. From what I have reading about them grains stress writing and stode piling uses I have they'd tole the done for the Capitol and was taking the they follow that is sealing from the Capitol and was taking the they follow that is stealing from the Capitol and was taking from the Capitol and to turn a honest dollar with them Guvernment. They is too many ways three days to turn a honest dollar with them Guvernment agencies in Washington. Fer instant, take this teller Dr. Howell, a deatist from Allance Ohio.

I see by the papers where he has wrote to the Agriculture Committee of the Congress and made 'em' a fair proposition. He says his only income is from the manufacture of false teeth and he reports he has now got a big sucess of false teeth. He admits it ain't in the best interests of the taxpayers for the Guvernment to kuy his excess and store he tells the surplus crops on account of the added storage costs.

Guvernment to his his excess and store is with the surplus crops on account of the added storage costs. Furthermen, he wester, it would complicate our fereign policy to ship his excess overseas: The people ever there would git to enting more term on the cob, and while this might help the corn surplus problem, be figgers them foreign dentists and earn growers would git mad and they would turn to Communism if we didn't about 'cin down heavy with reace toreign and the earth has asked on the earth has sent in ching in many direction mea have sought to gat experience of ages, pre-

A Desire to Understand Life Each generation that has lived on the earth has asked questions concerning life. A desire to understand life has sent men searching in many directions. Wise men have sought to gather the experience of ages, precepts to pass on to their own generation in the hope that the wisdom of the past may save them from mis-takes and suffering of those who

The "K" family lived a tur-The "K" family lived a turbulent, unsettled life. Both father and mother worked as domestic servants and their four small sons were cared for by two elderly relatives, both in ill health. Mr. K., an alcoholie, was at of a job frequently and was abusive to his wife and negligent of his family. His drunken bouts chalted up a court record of M agrests on charges that the nged from disorderly conduct and nged from disorderly conduct and gambling, to assault with a deadly weapon on his wife, non-support, and hoally, abandonment. The grandmother and elderly sunt suffered from diabetes and high blood pressure and were unable to care for the children properly. All were undernourished, and the mother weary from responsibility, became ill and was unable to work.

The family was reported to the county department of public welfare. With the help of the caseworker, the family was given both moral support and financial help. An aid to dependent child-ren grant was obtained to help them meet the minimum needs of daily living.

sentence: GOD IS LOVE. Suppose you woke up some morning and found that this sentence is not true? Suppose you had always believed it was true and now discovered you were wrong? It would certainly do away with the Christian religion. It would mean that it no longer made sense for you to try to love your neighbor or is love any one. If God is love, then himman love is (so to speak) going with the current of the universe it is being in harmony with God the Creator. If God is not love, then human love works against the universe, and must eventually
