Music Makers Club

On Wednesday afternoon September 26, the Music Makers held their initial meeting of the year '66-'67, in the home of their conductor Mrs. Glendora Brown, America and singing of "God Bless the Nation" and the business of electing officers for the year was entered into the program. Those elected were:

President, Brenda Blanchard, Vice President, Tony Rivenbark, Secretary & Treasurer, Kathryn Powell.

As this year will be of special emphasis on a Study of John Sebastian Bach and his music, a sketch of his life was given, also some types of his composition were discussed. His Chorales were outstanding and are widely used today. Bach was organ master in the church of Leipzig for twenty-seven years and played new music every Sunday, which was composed by himself. Fame came to him one hundred years after his death, and it is still increasing as musicians everywhere are studying his music and realizing its educational value.

Those singing in the student recital were: Ray Johnson, Kathryn Powell, Mary Cooper Jones, David Allen, Tony Rivenbark, Esna Blanchard, Sue Blanchard, Patti Blanchard, Ira Sutton, Katrina Jones, Sylvia Jones, Nancy Guy, Evelyn Lanier, Nancy Wilson and Faye Blanchard.

Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Johnson served refreshments to the club.
