

Orange County

Farm Agent's Column

By Don Matheson & Ed Barnes

START
Orange County farmers ready indicated their will to join with farmers from other surrounding counties to launch two Feeder Pig and Sales next March. The following persons have entered the contest: R. F. Poythress, Ronald Kennedy, Will Walker, C. M. Walker, Jr., Bob Strayhorn, Reid Roberts Cooper Compton, and "Sonny" Sharpe. Other Orange County farmers interested in this show and sale are asked to see their County Agents.

ENTER SWINE
Ann Crabtree, Hillsboro Junior 4-H Club member and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crabtree of Route 3, Hillsboro, entered a pen of three hogs in the Second Annual North Carolina Market Hog Show and Sale held at the State Fair Grounds on August 22.

These three Yorkshire animals were entered as a pen of three in the Junior Division of the show and competed with other entries from all over North Carolina. The show was judged by E. H. Hostetler an A. J. Clawson, Professors of Animal Husbandry at N. C. State College.

Several hundred market hogs were shown in this Second Annual N. C. Market Hog Show and Sale.

TO SEED ALFALFA
Farmers have already begun seeding alfalfa. Indications are that a larger acreage will be seeded this fall than ever before. Here is a list of some of the Orange County farmers who are seeding alfalfa this fall: P. W. Scott, J. M. Snipes, James Snipes, Jr., W. G. Carruthers, C. W. Stanford, Clyde Roberts, Vernon Sykes, D. E. Hollandsworth, Ava P. Mebane, Gaines Liner, Henry Hogan, Charles Snipes, George Lasley, Cecil Crawford, J. I. Dickey, Bill Dorsett, Tom Watkins, W. J. Reitzel, J. R. Webb, A. B. Lloyd, A. W. Womble, and John W. Cates.

SEEN AROUND THE COUNTY
Several farmers in Cedar Grove township are building handsome new homes. Wyatt Phelps and Melvin Ward have already moved into their new brick homes and Jim Monk and Gordon Liner have theirs about one-half completed.

Roy Woods of Caldwell Community has just filled his new 67-ton concrete stove silo with five acres of corn which averaged over 13 tons per acre. Bobby Collins of New Hope Community has recently erected a similar size concrete stove silo on his dairy farm.

HILLSBORO

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mincey and children have returned to their home in Swansboro after spending the earlier part of this week with Mr. and Mrs. Lone Mincey of the Schley Community.

KINDERGARTEN NOTICE
The Patterson Kindergarten will open on September 10. A Reading Readiness program has been prepared for older children who are unable to attend public school, on account of age restriction.

CARRBORO MAN IN PACIFIC
PACIFIC FLEET (PHINC) - Clemeth E. Head, metalsmith airman, USN, of Carrboro, is attached to Patrol Squadron 1, presently based on Kwajalein Island. The unit, which operates the "Neptune" long range patrol bomber, is engaged in "Operation Redwing," the atomic tests being conducted in the South Pacific. After the tests the squadron will return to its home base at Whidbey Island, Wash.

Where flies are DDT-resistant, the most effective sprays for killing flies on the wing contain pyrethrum as an active ingredient.
