Senior Citizens

By Reporter
Seventy-six senior citizens and their visitors met at the Recreation Center Monday Morning. The Rev. Charles M. Murray, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, who is leaving soon to continue his studies, brought the devotional. "The Good Shepherd" from John's gospel was his theme. It was most inspiring and his audience listened in worshipful attention. In closing, he read the Shepherd's Psalm—the 23rd. It was Scripture used the first time he brought our devotionals and he thought it fitting as a farewell.

Several visitors were present, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mitchell from Dallas, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kardaras from East Bend, Mr. Ira Broadway and Bob Hoyle, Mark and Jay Seders, little grandsons of Mrs. Margaret Seders and Margaret Hoyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hoyle.

Our program was given by seven teenage girls who get together and sing for their own pleasure, but Mrs. Alice Hoyle thought we would enjoy them and by the loud applause received, we are sure they knew we did. Gwyn Brooks was pianist, Martha Hoyle played the uke, Mary Smith was soloist, and Janet Hoyle, Penny James, Pat Howell and Ruth Hoyle made up the group.

Happy birthday was sung to the following: Mesdames: Walter Shout, C. F. Robb, Etta Click, Cora Kimmier, Ben Jordan, Floyd Daniels' Greenville McCullough, and Messers: Granville Spry, Pearl Gales, Oscar Myers, Will Wetmore and Crea McCullough. The four delicious pound cakes were donated by Mesdames Anna Painter, Lola and Beulah Spry and Bill Messick.
