

line. Her veil of illusion was attached to a flower-shaped headpiece embroidered with pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centered with an orchid. Mrs. Billy Hylton of Salisbury was matron of honor for her cousin, Mrs. William H. Swicegood, sister-in-law of the bridegroom of Lexington; Miss Gloria Perrell of Route 1, Woodleaf; Mrs. Willis Archer of Chapel Hill and Mrs. James W. Rakestraw of Atlanta, Ga., college roommates of the bride were bridesmaids.

The attendants wore street-length dresses of satin peau designed with portrait necklines and short sleeves and had rose-shaped headpieces with circular veils. The matron wore fern, golden and carried long stemmed bronze and gold chrysanthemum. Two wore fern green and two were in gold.

John Thomas Sink of Lexington was best man, William H. Swicegood, brother of the bridegroom of Lexington; Billy Hylton, Salisbury; Junie Fleming and David Fleming, brothers of the bride ushered.

When the couple left for a wedding trip, the bride was wearing a three-piece, light wool suit with black kid accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Swicegood will be at home at 2511 Apartment D, Miller Park Circle, Winston-Salem, after September 26.

CAKE CUTTING
The parents of the bride entertained at a cake cutting in the fellowship hall of the church following the wedding rehearsal on Saturday night.

The bride's table, covered with a white lace-edged cloth, was centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums, roses and ferns, flanked by crystal candelabra holding white tapers. Ivy wreathed the crystal punch bowl at one end of the table. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with white bells.

Miss Sandra Trull of Monroe and Miss Linda James of Mocksville, college roommates of the bride, assisted in the entertaining.

MRS. ALFRED ALDENE SWICEGOOD

... was Patricia Ann Fleming

Swicegood-Fleming Vows Exchanged Woodleaf Church

Miss Patricia Ann Fleming and Alfred Aldene Swicegood were married on Sunday afternoon at the Unity Presbyterian Church, Woodleaf. The Reverend Russell B. Fleming, cousin of the bride of Raleigh, officiated at four o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Fleming's father, the late Rev. Nathan Neely Fleming, officiated at the wedding of the bride's parents.

Jr., organist, cousin of the bride of Mocksville, presented the music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Junius Sidney Fleming of Rt. 1, Woodleaf. She is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Neely Fleming of Woodleaf and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Floyd A. Nail of Coolemeade. A 1961 graduate of West Rowan High School, and a 1965 graduate of Appalachian State Teachers College with a major in English, she taught English at Roxboro High School last spring. She plans to teach in the Forsyth - Winston-Salem School system.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Swicegood of Route 3, Lexington. He is a 1957 graduate of Reeds High School and has served for four years with the United States Air Force. He attended Edison Technical Institute, and is employed by Bell Telephone in Winston-Salem.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of ivory satin peau made with a fitted bodice with a portrait neckline appliqued with lace and pearls. The long tapered sleeves ended in points over the hands and were fastened with tiny self-covered buttons. Appliques of pearls detailed the pleated front skirt panels. The chapel-length train fell from soft folds from a long, flat bow-trimmed waist-
