

MISS ALICE JANE SEAFORD
MARRIES ROBERT N. JONES

Miss Alice Jane Seaford and Robert Nelson Jones were married in a four o'clock ceremony on Sunday afternoon at Fork Baptist Church. The Reverend Roy Young officiated and Miss Jane Craver, vocalist of Advance, and Miss Marlene Boger, organist of Mocksville, presented the music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Seaford of Route 2, Advance. She is a graduate of Davie County High School, Mocksville and completed the beauty course at Central State Beauty College, Salisbury.

She is employed by Margaret's Beauty Shop, Mocksville. She was presented at the 1965 Lexington Sub-Debutante Ball.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jones of Route 3, Mocksville. A 1961 graduate of Davie County High School, Mocksville, he completed barber training at Winston-Salem Barber School and is now employed at South End Barber Shop, Mocksville.

The bride, given in marriage by her mother and father, wore a dress of silk organza over white taffeta. The bodice was embroidered with seed pearls and the bouffant skirt fell into a chapel train. A crown of seed pearls held her veil of illusion and she carried a white Bible with a white orchid tied with satin ribbon streamers.

Miss Dorothy Seaford was maid of honor for her twin sister, Mrs. Henry A. Hendrix of Clemmons, sister of the bride, and Miss Marlene Jones of Mocksville, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They wore sheath dresses of turquoise crepe and carried nosegays of white chrysanthemums. Charm Tussey of Lexington was flower girl.

Clyde Jones was best man for his son, Henry Lee Howell of Mocksville, Henry Hendrix, brother-in-law of the bridegroom of Winston-Salem, Dallas Jones of Mocksville, and Leonard Jones of Advance, brothers of the bridegroom, ushered.

The bride wore a white knit suit with navy accessories and the orchid from her Bible when the couple left for a wedding trip to Western North Carolina. They will be at home on

CAKE CUTTING

The bride's parents entertained at a cake cutting on Saturday evening at the fellowship hall of the church following the rehearsal.

The bride wore a two-piece aqua dress with a corsage of white carnations. The couple took the opportunity to give their attendants gifts.

The refreshment table covered with white lace, was centered with an arrangement of white snapdragons, carnations and chrysanthemums. The three-tier wedding cake was decorated on top with wedding bells.

Episcopal Church Women
Meeting Held

On Wednesday evening the Episcopal Churchwomen held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Lucille Greene at Fork. Ten members from Cooleemee and six from Fork enjoyed the meeting. After separate business meetings, the group was presented a program on the 1st chapter of a book review they are studying, entitled "Church in South America" by Mrs. Grafton Cockrell.

Following the close of the program, refreshments of ice cream, cookies and coffee were served.
