Talent Array On Big Show

A talented line-up of the nation's leading rhythm and blues artists and entertainers will be appearing here at the Winston-Salem Memorial Coliseum on Wednesday night, November 10th, at 8 P. M. for the 25th Edition of the Biggest Show of Stars for '66.

Among the top billed artists for the upcoming extravaganza are The Four Tops, well known and outstanding as "class" performers. The Temptations feature five of the most talented artists today. A unique advantage of this group is that any member can take the "lead" and give any soul a heart-warming and soul-stirring extraction.

Martha and the Vandellas all three girls who have made five consecutive releases that hit the top ten list.

Little Stevie Wonder has been a real headliner since the age of 12, despite the handicap of being born blind. Besides his singing, he is literally a one-man band.

Autry DeWalt, known professionally as Mr. Walker, is by no means a J. R. to the music world. He has been singing with his All Stars for the past six years.

The Marvelettes have an impressive list of top recordings, including three albums and six singles.

The Spinners' quintet is an unusual group because they are one of the few groups that possess the ability to run the gamut from rock 'n' roll to the most complex modern jazz-like harmony.

Kim Weston, although young in years, started off with a bang. Her first record, "Looking For The Right Guy", was

McDaniel In Marine Corps

Thomas Allen McDaniel, son of Mrs. D. A. Foster and the late James T. McDaniel, of Coolesmeo, N. C. has enlisted in the Marine Corps, for four years. He began training at Paris Island, S. C. on October 27.
