Library News

Co-operation is the key word in all that the Davie County Public Library accomplishes, and it shows up again in the float prepared for the library to enter in the Christmas Parade in Mocksville on December 4. Even the theme for the float was carefully chosen to accentuate this point — "Davie County Put Its Shoulder to the Wheel". And it did in securing a new library! And, indeed, it still is in helping to carry on library activities!

Acknowledgment is in order for all the talent and hours of hard work poured into planning and arranging this float by the following people who worked together so beautifully as a volunteer team to serve the library. Our sincere thanks to each one:

Roger Funderburke, Mr. and Mrs. John Jerome, David Reavis, Jr., Peter W. Hairston, Jack Ridenhour, Cooleemee Florists, Trexler Transfer Co. of Salisbury, N. C., I. H. Huske, Weldon Huske.

Prize Winning Floats Named

A crowd estimated in excess of 4,000 people lined the streets along the route to view the floats and marching units.

For the third consecutive year Redland 4-H Club float won the top prize.

In addition to the above, judged the top floats were the Mocksville Saddle Club "Western Christmas" float, and the Farmington 4 - H Club's float.

Davie Florist won the prize as the best commercial float. The Central Davie Band won the prize for the best musical marching unit and the Lorna Rash Majorettes won the prize as the best non-musical marching unit.

The best horse judged in the parade belonged to James Troutman of Granite Quarry. Miss Sue Jordan was judged as the best "Cowgirl", and Clayton Groce was judged best "Cowboy".

Mrs. J. K. McCullough, Jr.'s antique car, which was driven by Andy Smith, was judged the best and won the prize in this category.
