FIRST BAPTIST CHOIRS TO HAVE A CHRISTMAS MUSIC PROGRAM

URGENT THAT YULE MAIL GO THIS WEEKEND

It is urgent that any remaining Christmas mail be sent out over the weekend, Postmaster William C. White stressed today.

In the last three weeks, the nation has witnessed more people mailing gifts, cards and letters than ever before.

The Postmaster said that across the nation every piece of Christmas mail that can possibly be delivered will reach its destination on time. However, at this time of the year, the strain on transportation facilities and the unpredictability of weather can mean unexpected delays.

Mr. White suggested that mailers consider the use of air mail and special delivery, especially for out of town mail.

He noted that holiday schedules will be in effect on Saturday and Sunday, December 25 and 26. Although Christmas falls on a Saturday and many business firms will be letting their employees off Friday, a sufficient number of postal workers will remain on duty to see that all Christmas mail entering post offices in time for delivery will reach its destination. Only Special Delivery and perishable mail will be delivered on Christmas Day.

The Cooleeemee Postmaster thanked all his customers for their excellent cooperation so far.

"We noted that the use of ZIP Code has increased significantly over last year and that most people mailed early. However, there still is an extremely heavy volume of mail to be delivered."

ERWIN HAS PARTY FOR CHILDREN

On Sunday, December 12, 1965, two thousand (2,000) people toured the Cooleeemee Division of Erwin Mills, a Division of Burlington Industries.

Santa Claus was on hand to greet all, while eligible children received treats and gifts. The Christmas Party was held in the Company's Shipping Warehouse, which was appropriately decorated.

Mr. Boyce, Division Manager, stated, "We look forward to this program each Christmas Season knowing that the parents and children can participate as a family in making the season a more joyous one. I was personally pleased in seeing the many fine children of our Company's employees enjoying the party."

The winner of the Grand Prize, a Portable TV, was Wayne Anderson Williams of the Spinning Department.

Senior Citizens Given Program

By Reporter

The Senior Citizens enjoyed a delightful program given by the Cooleeemee Grade School Chorus, under the direction of Miss Mariola Crawford. They were charmed with their year but they surpassed themselves with their performance this year.

After the program, a brief business meeting was held. Rev. Claude Hartsell of the Methodist Church rendered prayer and the club sang a number of Christmas carols before going to the First Baptist Church for their Christmas dinner. Ladies of the Civic Club arranged the food and places were set for over a hundred members and guests. The Reverend Charles Burchette, pastor of the church, gave thanks. All served their plates from the wide varieties of food brought by members and the delicious ham given by some who did not bring baskets.

The tables and the Fellowship Hall were beautifully decorated with lovely arrangements brought by members of the Civic Club. They served coffee and hot bread throughout the meal.

The local mill donated a treat of oranges, apples, tangerines, and candy to each member.

Program Given To Third Grades

On Friday, December 10th, children in Mrs. Giles Sexton's third grade had a very interesting visitor. Mr. W. C. Phelps, who is a well known bee keeper in this area, came to talk to the class about honey bees and the honey they make. He made many pertinent remarks about the habits of bees, and about the work involved in keeping bees.

To make it easier to understand more about the bees, Mr. Phelps showed various sections of the hive that he brought with him. He also showed many pictures from some books and booklets he had.

Following a question and answer period, Mr. Phelps presented a jar of honey to each member of the class and to the teacher. Everyone enjoyed the delicious honey during the weekend.

Mr. Phelps' daughter, Mary Jayne, is a member of Mrs. Sexton's class.

Library News

Since the new library building is so near completion, Miss Phyllis Snyder, our Library Consultant from the North Carolina State Library paid us a visit not long ago. She was very pleased with what she found at the new library, and was indulging in a little musing as to the wonder of having all this so successfully accomplished in a comparatively short period of time.

"You know, I was glad to have a little visit with Mr. John Groce today," she said, "and I do wish that every library planning a new building had a man like Mr. Groce on their board of county commissioners! Everyone in Davie County seems to have had a part in your project, but no one speaks with more conviction of the importance of a library in the development of your people."

As we listened, we were thinking of the comfort, the encouragement—(what can we say?)—the sense of solidity which Mr. Groce brought to us all in the most dubious moments of our planning. We had to smile as, in retrospect, we heard ourselves repeatedly exclaiming, "Where's Mr. Groce? We need Mr. Groce!" And whether the problem turned out to be maneuvering dollars or moving dogwood trees he was always there, with a reassuring nod, an easy air, a quiet voice saying, "We can take care of that. Don't worry! We'll do it." But back to the present — and Miss Snyder adding, "Mr. Groce has already assisted us greatly by informing officials of other counties how Davie County reached its goal, and we will be calling on him to encourage many others. We know no job too big, no detail too small for his willing assistance." We nodded our heads. No one knew better than we how right she was!
