Accent On Beauty

advertisement we feel disposed to go g with the people who want to beautify the scenery. A very few people bene-fit by this type of advertising, and these are skilled lobbiests. We ourselves, are in the advertising business, and while we hope to appeal to the general public our method of advertising reaches the public through private avenues. There is nothing to offend. Readers can take it or leave it. We do not infringe upon,

> Beauty is as necessary to the enrichment of life as bread is to sustain physical life. Children who are reared in an atmosphere of natural beauty are stealing." — Eff Thomas enabled to develop a whole personality, and find enjoyment in the best things in life. The millions who dislike billboards deserve some consideration.

Sources From Which We Draw For Life

Those who watch TV, a great deal. know that many programs are full of violence, sex, commercials, which draw attention to things of the flesh and little of things that pertains to spiritual values. We tend to blame the producers of the programs, and the people who advertise. Actually, the blame lies with the people who buy the productions and patronize the commercials. It is an admitted fact that producers set up programs to appeal to the mentality of twelve years of age--not a very high compliment to our adult population. All of the news media are filled with stories of crime, delinquency, sex looseness, protest parades etc. How can these things obtain in our world today? The simple answer is that that is what the mass of people buy, and producers and advertisers want to sell. If the public demanded something of better quality they would get it. Touching the pocketbook may not win friends, but it will make people think and change practices. Where there is no market there will be no sales, and salesmen are looking for markets. In the final analysis, it is the mass of people who are responsible for the mess that the world finds itself in

Protection For The Public

It ought not to be necessary for the government to enter so many areas of supervision in order to protect the public from unscrupulous persons. It would seem that by this time the mass of people would be able to recognize people who have gold brick to sell. But the fact remains that every day millions of people are being cheated by high interest rates, carrying charges, excessive profits-to say nothing of the flimflam artists, who talk people into giving them life savings to secure treasures which they will share. They get the money and then disappear.

Recently the Commissioner of the Food and Drug Administration ordered a rescreening of all drugs to prove their effectiveness. This sale of drugs, many of which are worthless, has become a big business. Millions of dollars are spent deal of difficulty imagining drought spread over the land and disaster seemed sure to which may not do any harm, but do a whole population. It is true no good whatsoever. Often, people fail poverty in this country. However, the vision of massive cannot afford the fee. Then pay far hunger and starvation is formore to quacks for remedies that are eign to Americans and something outside their experience. The bounty of American food are men of fine character, honest, dedi-production is so great and our cated, and concerned about their padistribution system is so effective that the problem we tients. If consulted, they would tell the have developed is surplusses patient whether or not an advertised rather than shortages. drug is helpful. The worst part of this unscrupulous business is that it is the stalks some parts of the world tribute to this emergency. The people who can least afford it who are and the probability of starvathe bait for suckers. So, the government occasion a very real prospect has to step in and do its best to pro-tect the people, who will not intelligent-accute in India, that huge and tect the people, who will not intelligently protect themselves. Doctor fees are much better and safer investments.

Religion In The Here And Now

Take another look at chapter thirteen of first Corinthians. Here we find the supreme motive for Christian behaviour. Saint Paul uses the word agape to describe the character of Christian love, and the motivations of behaviour. This kind of love is the kind manifested in Jesus, for God so loved the world that He gave His Son to die for sinful men. Saint Paul enumerates many things which a person could do, but declares that if it is without love they are useless-worth nothing. "I may speak with the tongues of angels, I may have the gift of prophecy, I may have
