

The Cooleeemee Journal

VOL. NO. 59

COOLEEMEE, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 23, 1966

CENTRAL CAROLINA TO ERECT MODERN BANK IN MOCKSVILLE

At an organizational meeting last week in Mocksville, Central Carolina Bank and Trust Company, a board of directors was named: they were: Ben C. Ellis, George Hendricks, Robert Hendricks, T. L. Junker, D. J. Mando, Lester Martin, Jr., George Merrell, Jr., Sheek Miller, E. C. Morris, M. H. Murray, W. F. Smith and Paul H. Stroud.

Murray was elected as the chairman of the board, Chas. F. Bahnsen as secretary and Martin and Morris as an executive committee.

Mr. Bahnsen, manager of the Cooleeemee branch bank for many years, will have the responsibility of organization and supervision of the new Mocksville Bank to be erected in the near future at the corner of South Main and Water Streets. He will continue to devote time as needed to the Cooleeemee branch and for the present time will maintain his home here.

Bob Davis Elected Legion Commander

Salisbury attorney Robert L. Davis was elected commander of the North Carolina American Legion Saturday night at the conclusion of the state group's 48th annual convention held at Raleigh.

Davis defeated Jarvis Beck of Cherokee for the top post and succeeds J. Alvis Carver of Dunn.

The new Commander has been active in American Legion work for many years in Rowan County. He is a former chairman of the Rowan County Democratic Party and a candidate for the Ninth District Seat in the U. S. House of Representatives.

ROBERT L. DAVIS

Other officers are: Leroy Lahey of Paw Creek, national executive committeeman; Leslie Brady of Newton, alternate executive national committeeman; Bill Carpenter of Cherryville, Historian; John A. McCray of Charlotte, judge advocate; and W. D. Green of Durham, chaplain.

Veach Gets A Degree At WC

Culowhee -- Darryl Lee Veach of Mocksville was among the 325 who received degrees at Western Carolina College recently in the 77th annual Commencement ceremonies. He was awarded the bachelor of science degree with majors in business administration and history.

Veach was a member of the Society for Advancement of Management and the International Relations Club; was table tennis champion and outstanding unit manager in men's intramurals. He was named to Alpha honor roll during the past spring quarter, which requires a scholastic average of at least 3.5 out of a possible 4.0 quality point rating.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Veach of Route 4, Mocksville.

Episcopal Churchwomen

The Episcopal Churchwomen held their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday evening. They joined together for a meal at the Yadkin Hotel in Salisbury to mark their final meeting this year until September. Those attending were Mrs. Mabel Head, Mrs. Nellie Webb, Mrs. Bessie Barber, Mrs. Margy Wagner, Mrs. Tullie Grimes, Mrs. Martha Jerome, Mrs. Nancy Murphy of Mocksville, Mrs. Judy Lowrance and Mrs. Janie Etheridge of Woodleaf, and Miss Margaret Skinner.

Receive Promotions

E. James Scott, manager of the Fiber Industries plant near here, announced the promotion of 22 men to new positions of responsibility as foremen.

Among the men from this area promoted to shift foremen in production areas were Hayden Benson of Cooleeemee and Graham Rice of Woodleaf.

Named warehouse foreman was Samuel Redman of Mocksville.

Leaves For Overseas Duty

S-Sgt. William E. Cornatzer left Wednesday by plane from Charlotte to New York City and from there to Istanbul, Turkey. He will be stationed at nearby Caramursel Air Force Base. His wife, Mrs. Jean Cornatzer, and sons, Rick and Jeff, are at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Jordan, with sometime in August when they hope to join him there.

Ephesus News

By Mrs. Lois Wilson

Mr. and Mrs. Vestal Myers had as father's day dinner guests, their sons and families, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wayne Myers of Salisbury and Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Myers and family from Kernersville.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Call's granddaughters, Darlene and Katrina Call of Hickory, are spending the week with them.

Mrs. Gail Veach and daughter, Sandra, visited Mrs. Ruth Veach Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Veach and David were Sunday visitors also.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Wilson and children, Mike and Cynthia, and Mrs. Wanda Harris were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wilson Sunday.

Mrs. Lois Wilson and Mrs. Ruth Veach attended the singing at Yadkin Valley Baptist Church on Sunday night by the Rebels quartette from Tampa, Florida. They also visited Mrs. Stella Armsworth of Redland, who has been sick for the past month.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Yountz of Clemmons and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cartner of Salem Community, spent Sunday with Mrs. Kate Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eller of Spencer were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Daniel Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Sink visited relatives near Salisbury one day last week.

LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. James Foster and children of Spartanburg, S. C. and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shoaf and children of Troutman visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Spillman on Father's Day.

J. H. Taylor of Salisbury spent a few days this week visiting his sister, Mrs. Mary Howerton.

Mrs. Odell Bailey returned home Sunday from Davis Hospital after undergoing treatment for several days.

LIBRARY NEWS

The attendance is increasing at Story Hour sessions at the Davie County Public Library but any children who would like to start now are welcome. There are two groups under the direction of Mrs. Charles L. Farthing, Children's Librarian for the summer.

Pe-school children have Mrs. Rufus Sanford, Jr. as their leader, assisted by Mrs. Harry Heidelberg.

The older group is entertained by visiting leaders who alternate in story-telling for ages 6 through 8.

So Remember: Story Hour -- Each Thursday 10 to 11 A. M. Davie County Public Library

For Children 4 through 8 Years old.

The Summer Reading Program is off to a fine start, thanks to Mrs. Farthing's good work and the eager interest of the many young people participating. There is still time to sign up for the Reading Program if you have not.

The Cooleeemee Branch Library and the Bookmobile also accept registrations and help with the library's Summer Reading Program.

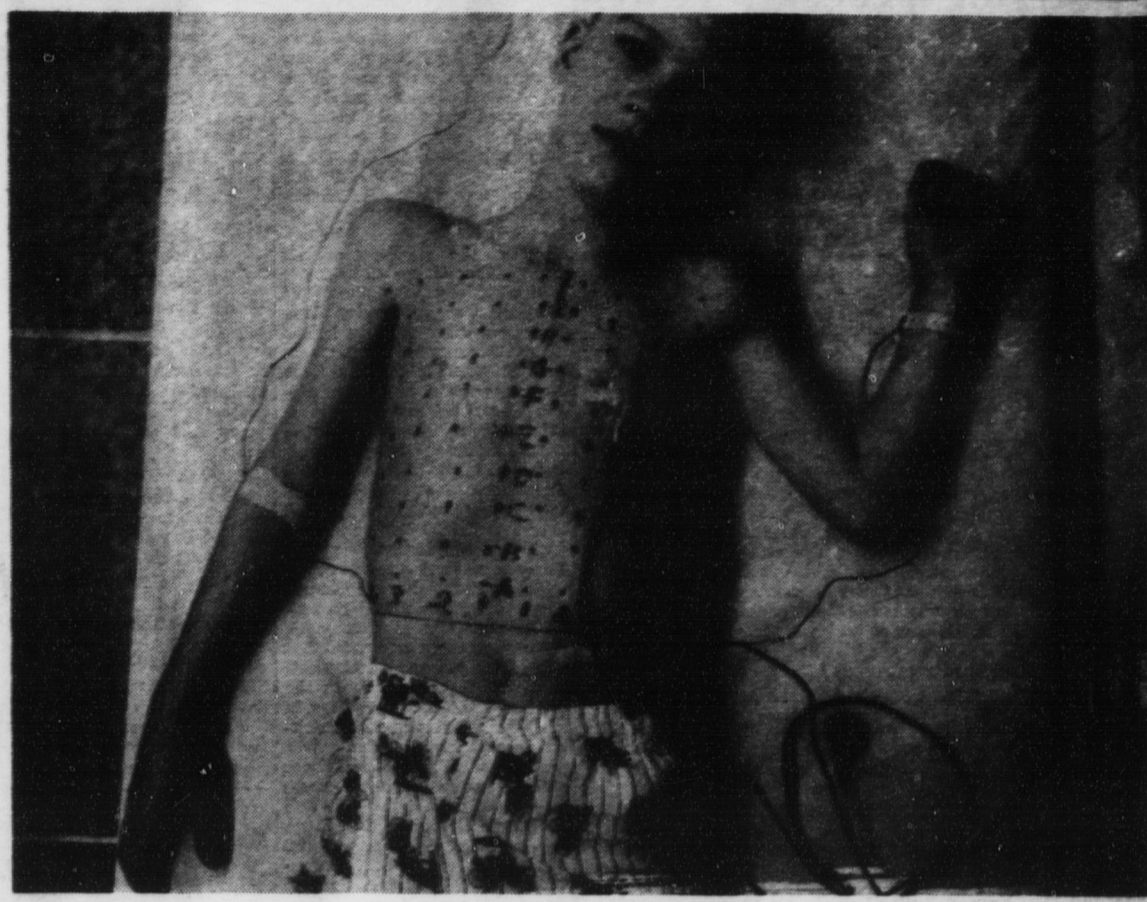

Davie Class To Have Reunion

The Class of '65 of Davie County High School will have a reunion Sunday, June 26, beginning at 4 P. M. at Shelter No. 1 at Tanglewood Park. Supper will be served at 5:30 P. M. Those attending are asked to bring a picnic basket. Drinks will be available at the Park.

Airman Donald R. Jones Assigned To Kingsley Field

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. -- Airman Donald R. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie B. Jones of Route 2, Advance, North Carolina, has been assigned to Kingsley Field, Ore., after completing Air Force basic training.

The airman, a 1965 graduate of Davie County High School, Mocksville, North Carolina, will be trained on the job as an air policeman with the Air Defense Command.

JIMMIE W. HARRIS

Little Jimmie Harris, age 9 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raeford Harris of 625 Salisbury Street, Mocksville, is able to be up and around again after undergoing his second heart surgery at Duke Hospital, Durham, N. C.

The first operation was in March, 1962, when the artery from his heart to his lungs and an enlarged heart valve were repaired. On May 19, the same incision, which required forty stitches, was re-opened in his chest and two holes in his heart and another heart valve were repaired and some tissue was taken from the lower right chamber.

The picture above was made by Jimmie's nurse while undergoing one of his many special electrocardiograms. This test required 2½ to 3 hours. Jimmie is in the fourth grade at school and with just a few restrictions, he goes about a normal life. He is glad to be back with his family and friends.

Terry Wayne Connell

WINS CONTEST -- Terry Wayne Connell, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Connell of 24 Duke Street, Cooleeemee, was a winner on T.V. in a contest in which his brother, Mitchell, entered for him.

Terry won a free day at "The Tweetsie Railroad" at Blowing Rock, North Carolina for his family. This day consists of free admission, train ride, skyliner to Magic Mountain, Magic Mountain Rides, The Palace Floor Show and lunch for the whole family.

Terry will be a "Special Guest" at the Tweetsie Railroad, along with his father and mother, sister, Donna Kay, and brother, Mitchell.

Mrs. McKnight Dies, Davie Co.

MOCKSVILLE -- Mrs. Tenie Foster McKnight, 81, of Route 1, Advance, died Friday morning at her home.

A native of Davie County, she was a daughter of the late Brainard and Eliza Frye Foster. Her husband was the late J. W. McKnight.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Ellis Howard of Route 1, Advance; five grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Pantha Howard of Greensboro.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 P. M. Sunday at Yadkin Valley Baptist Church by the Rev. Alvis Cheshire and the Rev. Ray Billings. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Woodleaf News

By C. H. Wetmore

The refreshing rains of the past week has brightened the prospect of better crops for the farmers. Corn is looking good, even though the dry spell hampered its growth, and has cut the small grain yield down considerably, this week will find combines running, harvesting barley and oats, and in about 10 days, wheat will be ready to harvest.

Among the young people spending this week at Camp Ambassador at Lake Waccamaw, are Fred and Miriam Bailey, Dirby Holshouser, Susan and Lynn Wetmore, Glenda Greer and Susan Ratledge.

Mrs. Glenn Koontz is a patient at Rowan Memorial Hospital taking treatment for an infected ankle.

Mrs. W. D. Painter has returned home from Chattanooga, Tenn., where she spent a week with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Painter.

Harold Etheridge spent the week-end here with his mother, Mrs. A. G. Etheridge, Harold is now living in Florida.

Mrs. C. H. Wetmore spent the past week in Toccoa, Ga. with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Means.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Gatewood of Asheville and Mr. and Mrs. Lem Bryant of Birmingham, Alabama, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Nesbit. They came especially to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Mary Nesbit.

Mrs. James Dickens has returned from Toccoa, Ga. where she spent a week visiting her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Means.

Mrs. C. F. Milholen is a patient at the Progressive Care Center at the Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem.

HORSE SHOW PLANNED BY GALAX BRIDLE CLUB

Students Earn Honors On Dean's List

BOONE, N. C. -- A total of 494 students achieved grades which earned them honors on the Dean's List at Appalachian State Teachers College during the Spring quarter, according to an announcement from the office of Dr. Kenneth Webb, Jr., Dean of Students.

In order to qualify for the Dean's List, a student must carry a minimum of 15 hours of work, must achieve a grade point average of at least 3.00, must have no grade below a C, and must have no incompletes or conditions in any course.

Among those on the Dean's List were these students from Davie County:

Kenneth Dare Boger, Linda Mae Caudle, Judy A. Creason, and Linda Elizabeth Dull of Mocksville; Linda Ann Essex, Sarah L. Laird, and Linda Gail Platt of Advance; and Barbara J. McDaniel of Cooleeemee.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN TO HAVE MEET

The Republican Woman's Club will meet Monday, June 27, at 7:30 P. M. in the Girl Scout Room in the basement of the Davie County Court House.

Galax, Va. -- Plans are being completed for the Galax Bridle Club's annual Horse Show here in Felts Park Aug. 19-20.

With Joe Crockett, manager of Radio Station WBOB, as ring announcer, the program will get underway at 7 P.M. each day.

Phin Horton of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, will judge the horses, and Wilford Wilson of Galax will be ringmaster.

WHO IS THIS YOUNG MAN? -- Born in Cooleeemee and now in U. S. armed forces. His parents live here.

YOUTH WEEK IN COOLEEMEE

The 4th annual YOUTH WEEK will be held this year at the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd. This week sponsored by the Episcopal, Methodist, Presbyterian and First Baptist Churches is a week our Teen-agers look forward to.

The first session will be held on Sunday Evening, June 26th at 7:00 P. M. with the other sessions being held through Thursday, Evening June 30.

The conference leaders will be Rev. Fred Barnes, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Mocksville, Rev. Grafton Cockrell, Rev. Claude Hartwell and others from our community. The lay leaders of the Presbyterian Church will have charge of the recreation period. The week is planned to deal with the problems our Youth are facing today. Periods of fellowship and Worship help to make the evening activities most meaningful to those attending. It is hoped that the teenagers will find this week as enjoyable as those in past years. We encourage them to attend each evening.