SENIOR CITIZENS

By Reporter

The Senior Citizens had visitors from Charlotte, Mrs. Mary Duncan, from Salisbury, Mrs. H. A. McDaniel and from Pollansbee, West Virginia Mr. and Mrs. Harry Poole.

Seventy-three members came on the hot morning and enjoyed a program of fun. Highlights of the recent trip to Roaring Gap were told by various members. Those who went, seemed to enjoy it as much as those who did not go. Pranks and wisecracks were the order of the day and it seemed a hilarious good time was had by all. Following was a skit by two of our talented tatters Mrs. Grace Ridenhour and Mrs. Annie Miller. Quite a bit of choice gossip was heard.

Only one of our members was hospitalized until recently. Now, Mr. Frank Penninger has undergone surgery and Mrs. Sidney Benson is taking treatment. Arrangements of flowers adorned our club room. They were brought by Mrs. Guy Foster, Mrs. Ida Massey, Mrs. H. F. Barnes, Mrs. Ida Foster and Mrs. Carl Tatum.

One of our number, Mr. Frank Miller, brought our devotional. His Scripture was Matthew 25th chapter, 1st through 12th verses and his subject was "The Light in the Soul."

Happy Birthday was sung to 14 members born in June and the fun theme was carried out in cutting one of the decorated birthday cakes. Starting with the oldest member, our comedian, Mr. Sam Myers, he was given a knife and told to cut his piece of cake. When he failed, (the cake was made of wood), the next oldest, Chaplain J. F. Jarvis, had a try and from there all the curious took turns.

As is our custom, after the serving of refreshments, our songsters gathered around the piano for a hymn singing. We understand some clubs hasten home, some play checkers, or Bingo, but we sing.

ORDAINED

Key John Grafton Cockrell

The Reverend John Grafton Cockrell, Vicar of Good Shepherd and Ascension Episcopal Churches in Davie County, was ordained a Priest in the Church this past Wednesday in an impressive ceremony in Saint John's Church in Charlotte.

Four men were Ordained as Deacons at the same Service. These were: S. F. James Abbott of Thomasville, Philip R. Byrum of Tarboro, Harold W. Payne of Walnut Cove, and Clay Howard Turner of Rocky Mount.

Along with The Reverend Mr. Cockrell, four others were Ordained Priests. These were: The Reverend Harvey Gerald Cook, Assistant to the Rector at Saint Luke's Church in Salisbury; The Reverend Thomas Joseph Garner, Vicar of Saint Paul's and Saint Philip's Churches in Salisbury; The Reverend James Thomas Prevat, Assistant to The Church of the Atonement in Tenafly, New Jersey; The Reverend Carey Erastus Sloan, III, Vicar of Saint Matthews Church in Rowan County.

Following the custom of the Christian Church from the times of the Apostles chosen by Jesus Christ to be His Disciples, The Episcopal Church has three different kinds of ministers: Bishops, Priests, and Deacons. The function, or job, of any minister is, of course, to tell all who will hear that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God, the Father.

Still, each kind of minister in the Church has a special job, in addition to the one that all have. These are as follows: Bishops are the Chief Pastors in the Church, which means that they serve as Pastors to the Ordained ministers and care for the spiritual needs of the clergy as well as care for seeing that the things which Christ commanded to be done are, in fact, carried out. Priests minister to people where the Bishop sends them, in much the same manner as the Disciples ministered to people when they were sent by Jesus.

Say You Saw It In The Coolee Journal

SENIOR CITIZENS ENJOY MTN. TRIP

By Mrs. Frank Seders

Wednesday morning, June 22, 55 members of the Coolee Senior Citizens Club boarded two chartered buses at the recreation center for Roaring Gap. The first 10 miles were uneventful, but as they reached Joppa Cemetery, the first driver sighted two hitch-hikers waving frantically for him to stop. Both buses came to an abrupt halt and the confusion began as two women with cardboard suitcases and attired in long dresses and sun bonnets demanded free passage to the mountains. The charter passengers just didn't cotton to this type of intrusion and were ready to let both bus drivers have a good piece of their mind for having stopped in the first place. Something had to be done about this—and it was. Seems the high sheriff had been tipped off about two such fugitives and lost no time in accosting them. The sheriff applied his strongest handcuffs and was proceeding to take them in when Granville Spry and Walt Shoaf thought they detected familiar protesting voices. They demanded a closer look at the fugitives and found them to be none other than Mrs. Fred Murphy and Mrs. M. H. Ridenhour, two of their own club members who wanted to go on the mountain trip. When the sheriff observed the club's deep devotion for these "poor old ladies", he was deeply touched and soon all were on their merry way. Arriving at Roaring Gap near the noon hour, signs on every hand read "no picnics". Finally, following the directions of a kind old lady to a small Methodist Church, lunch was spread on the grounds. Miss Vic Byerly quoted some scripture verses bringing to mind the Mercies of the Lord and returned thanks. During the lunch hour, attention was called to the register of the small church. Attendance the previous Sunday was 26, offering $3.02. Mr. M. H. Ridenhour, club president suggested that a free will offering be taken and left for the church at the side of the road — in appreciation for use of the nice lawn. The offering of $10.00 was placed in an envelope and left at a nearby store for the church treasurer. The Senior Citizens on a picnic, had in effect, participated in state missions.

Medicare To Begin July 1

Medicare, the new program of health insurance for the aged, begins on July 1, 1966, for all people over 65 who have signed up for it.

Many people are asking what they should do about their private health insurance plans. While this decision is a private one, R. H. Chapman, district manager of the social security office in Winston-Salem, cautions: do not cancel any other health insurance you have until your Medicare coverage actually begins.

This warning also holds true for people who become 65 in the future. If they apply for Medicare in the three-month period before their 65th birthday, their coverage will not begin until the month they are 65.

Chapman said that it is important that people approaching 65 to do three things:

1. Obtain good evidence of your age well before your 65th birthday, so you will know when your benefits under Medicare can begin.
2. Visit your local social security office as early as possible in the three-month period before your 65th birthday.
3. After you have established your age with social security, get in touch with the agent or company that provides your health insurance.

Local social security offices have pamphlets that describe the Medicare program. You may get one upon request.

The Winston-Salem Social Security Office is located at 533 North Spring Street. The telephone number is 723-7982. Office hours are 8:45 A. M. to 9:00 P. M. on Mondays and 8:45 A. M. to 5:00 P. M. Tuesdays through Fridays.

Since Monday, July 4th, is a national holiday, the Winston-Salem Social Security District Office will be closed. The office will also be closed during the usual Monday evening hours on this holiday.
