75 CAKES ENTERED IN CONTEST HERE

Even the standing room was filled to overflowing Friday afternoon at Beth Tartan's pickles and pound cake contest for Davie County. Held at the office of the Davie County's home economics extension agent, Mrs. Ostine West, all 60 chairs were seated and all available standing space used within a short time. A couple dozen people were forced to stand in the hallway outside the office during most of the two-hour contest. Davie County had the largest number of cakes entered in any of the 13 county contests held to date. There were 75 pound cakes entered.

Mrs. Joe Langston, won first prize in both the sweet and sour divisions of the pickle contest. She lives at Route 1, Advance, and her husband works for Western Electric Co. in Winston-Salem.

Miss Ellen Sain and Mrs. C. E. Leagans, both of Mocksville, were runnersup.

There were 29 entries in the sweet pickles division and 12 in the sour pickle division.

There were 62 cakes entered in the senior division and 13 in the junior division.

The cake that was selected over the other 61 cakes in the senior division was baked by Mrs. Dan Lawson of Advance, Route 2. She has won four first-place prizes, and two second place prizes in the Dixie Classics Fair in recent years.

Mrs. Lawson was the only one who got prizes in the division, but the judges selected five other cakes for honorable mention; they were baked by Mrs. Grace Ridenhour of Cooleeemee, Mrs. Charles Lashley and Mrs. Alice Hammer of Route 2, Mocksville, Mrs. Seabon Cornatzer of Route 2, Advance, and Mrs. Paul Blackwelder of Davie.

Libby Butner, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Butner of Route 1, Advance, won the junior division prize for pound cake baking.

Runnersup in the junior division were Lynn Jones and Shirley Gentry.

All of the first-place winners received a copy of Beth Tartan's cookbook, a $25 U. S. Savings Bond, two passes to the Dixie Classic Fair, free tickets to the 200th anniversary outdoor drama, "Till the Day Break," and the chance to compete in the grand finals in Winston-Salem on Sept. 17.

The judges in Davie were Mrs. Carolyn Ely of Mocksville, Rt. 1, a former home economics teacher; Mrs. Eddie Newsome of Mocksville, Rt. 2, a graduate home economist and a science teacher; and Mrs. Thomas Vogler of Cooleeemee, home demonstration leader.

Davie Farmers To Obtain Aid

Davie County was approved this week for a federal government emergency loan program designed to help farmers hit by the drought.

Announcement of the approval was made by Representative James T. Broyhill.

The program will allow Davie farmers to secure emergency loans to carry out their regular agricultural practices when they would otherwise be unable to do so because of damage to crops from the drought. Only established farmers are eligible.

Applications for the loans will be handled and processed by the local Farmers Home Administration office, which is located in the County Building.

Loans can be made for purchase of feed, seed, fertilizer, replacement of equipment, purchase of livestock and other items needed to maintain normal operations. The interest rate is three percent.

Pink Elephant Sale Planned

Broyhill To Be In Davie This Friday

Congressman James T. Broyhill announced in Washington today that he will hold office hours in Davie County on Friday, August 26th, at the County Court House in Mocksville from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Broyhill explained that he will be available on a regularly scheduled basis in each of the counties of the ninth District so that residents can discuss with him their views on legislative matters or problems they are encountering with the Federal government. No prior appointment is necessary. The series visits are being held on week-ends when the Congressional schedule in Washington permits.

This is the second series of formal office hours this year in keeping with Congressman Broyhill's long-standing practice of scheduling such sessions at last twice each year.

In making the announcement, Broyhill said, "I will welcome the opportunity to meet and talk with Davie County residents on Friday and I hope that I can offer advice and assistance in those instances where questions or difficulties have arisen with the Federal government."

Local Captain Is In Viet Nam

Army Captain Joe G. McCullough, son of Mrs. Mattie S. McCullough, Rt. 4, Mocksville, was assigned as assistant movements officer in Headquarters, I Field Forces, Viet Nam, August 2.

RONNIE L. ULREY

After a very wonderful three years with the Corinth Church of Christ, the Ulrey family has moved to Mooresville, N. C. "We have come to love the people in the Cooleeemee, Woodleaf, and Needmore areas and it was hard to make the move but the challenge of this new work far overpowered the persuasion to stay."

Mr. Jesse Condra and family will replace the Ulreys at Corinth and it is certain that the love and respect characteristic of this area will be extended to this fine family also. Any correspondence with the Ulrey family should be sent to 917 East Center Street, Mooresville, N. C. 28115.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jerome and family spent last week visiting friends in Atlanta, Ga. and Birmingham, Alabama.

White Cane Sale

The Cooleeemee Lions Club now has their 1966 White Cane Drive underway. The funds realized from this drive will go to the North Carolina Association for the Blind, which is a Lion's organization.

The Cooleeemee Lions are donating a Winchester Automatic Shotgun to someone making a contribution to the drive. Donations will be accepted by any Lions member.

Contributions of 50c will entitle anyone to a chance on the shotgun. For a contribution of $1.00 (the tickets are three for $1.00) will also entitle the holder to a year's subscription to the magazine of the N. C. Association for the Blind.

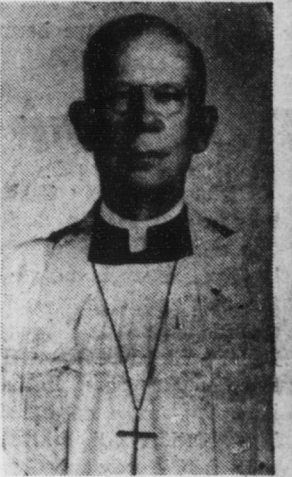

The shotgun will be given away in a drawing to be held at the Cooleeemee Drug Store November 19, 1966, when the fire whistle blows at 12:00 Noon.

Next weeks Journal will carry more information on the North Carolina Association for the Blind.

Cooleeemee Lions Club To Hold Annual Picnic

The Cooleeemee Lions Club will hold their annual outing and picnic for all Lions and their families Monday, September 12, 1966, at the Cooleeemee Recreation Center at 6:00 P. M.

Further details will be furnished in the next issue of the Journal.

School Lunch Cost Raised

In order to maintain the quality of the food services in the Davie County schools, the Davie County Board of Education has authorized an increase of .05c per plate for school lunches for the '66-'67 school term. The cost of student lunches this year will be .30c and adult lunches .40c.

Supt. James E. Everidge said that this increase was brought about by the fact that all lunchrooms in the county operated at a loss last year, plus the recent increase in the cost of milk and food.

Methodists At Liberty Plan Homecoming

The Liberty Methodist Church will observe their annual homecoming Sunday, August 28. Services will begin at 9:45 A. M. when the children of the church will present a special program.

Worship service will begin at 11:00 a.m. Guest minister will be the Rev. Larry Barden, pastor of Shiloh Methodist Church, Lexington, N. C. Included in the worship service will be special singing by the Doss Family Singers from China Grove.

Lunch will be served at 12:30. There will be afternoon singing that will begin at 1:30 P. M. The Royal Quartet from Forest City and the New Life Quartet from Winston-Salem will be the featured singers. The public is invited to attend all services.
