

Social Security News

Many widows may be unaware of a change in the social security law and still think they have to wait until they become 62 to collect social security widow's benefits. This is the concern of Robert C. Thomas, district manager of social security in Salisbury.

Until the change in the law, effective September '65, the widow of a man who had worked under social security could not qualify for monthly widow's benefits until she reached 62. Now, she can elect to have her payments start as early as her 60th birthday, but in smaller installments to take account of the longer time that benefits will be paid.

Mr. Thomas pointed out that generally women who choose to take these reduced benefits will collect about the same value in benefits over the years. He urged widows, who may have been waiting for their 62nd birthdays, to call or visit the social security office nearest their homes to find out how the age-60 benefits would work out in their particular cases.

The social security office in Salisbury is located at 105 Carriher Ave., telephone 633-6470. Office hours Monday through Thursday are from 8:45 A. M. until 5 P. M. and from 8:45 A. M. until 9 P. M. on Fridays.

Some medical bills may be counted twice, said Robert C. Thomas, of the Salisbury Social Security office. October, November, and December are special months under the medical part of the Medicare program he explained. These months are special because some bills for medical treatment received during the months of October, November, and December could be counted toward the $50 deductible for this year and next year as well.

Anyone who has $50 or more of medical bills at any time during the year should make a claim with the Pilot Life Insurance Co. on the claim form found in the Medicare Handbook. Many doctors have extra claims forms available for their patients' convenience, or they can be obtained at the local social security office. Anyone who needs help filling out the form or needs more information should contact the social security office at 105 Carriher Avenue, Salisbury, phone 633-6470. Office hours have been extended to 9 P. M.

on Friday evenings for the convenience of those who cannot visit during regular working hours.

Why is it that those who look young want to look old, while those who look old want to look young?
