Woodleaf News

By: C. H. Wetmore

The Salisbury Post of Sunday the 8th carried the headlines of Retirement day held at Woodleaf, all of which is very much so. The write up of Orion M. Click, who has been our Postmaster for over 25 years, and of Harold D. Bailey, who has served as Rural Route carrier for 28 years and 11 months, was well deserving to them. They will be missed around the Post Office. Both have gone out of their way many times to serve their Patrons, now that they have retired we hope they will join the old gang around the stove at the local service station. One thing that was left out in the Salisbury paper was that both were Veterans of War I.

Another retirement was that of C. H. Wetmore, who retired from the Southern Railroad at Atlanta, Ga. December 30. He is now at home with his family.

Miss Anne Bost, is now at her home after several weeks in Rowan Memorial Hospital. She is slowly improving.

Wood Brown, is indisposed at this writing with a heart ailment and "Bee" is slowly improving after an illness of several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fleming have returned from Richmond, Va. where they spent the last 10 days with their daughter, Louise, who is attending school there. Louise is home on furlough, from the Congo where she has been a Missionary for many years and is now taking advanced training before leaving for the Congo this summer.

Olin Myers of Ft. Myers, Florida is spending several weeks here with his son Jimmy Myers, Mrs. Myers and family.

Win's Whims

I'M IN THE MOOD TO EAT
By Wilma Campbell Osborne
Try this to the tune of "I'm In The Mood For Love."

I'm in the mood to eat.
Simply because I'm hungry.
But when I'm hungry,
...I'm in the mood to eat.

Pintoes are nearly done.
Bread on the plate still hot,
I eat them cause I've got to.
I'm in the mood to eat.

Why stop to think of ham now?
That little dream will fade.
I'd even take some Spam now.
Coffee is hot -- it's my last pot.

I think I'll peel an onion.
That is, now, if I've got one.
Hope that it's not a hot one.
I'm in the mood to eat.

President Irvin Aldridge of the North Carolina Jaycees has announced that January 15-21 is "JAYCEE WEEK" and has asked all communities to cooperate in the observance.

He said that the purpose of the week is to focus attention on young men, Jaycees or not, and the work they are doing and emphasize that the State Jaycees have done an outstanding job in the fields of youth activities, community development, public affairs, Americanism, and community health and safety. Some 9,859 North Carolina Jaycees, ages 21 to 35, are serving an important function in solving community problems in all areas of North Carolina. Aldridge concluded that more young men should be urged to join the Jaycee movement which is dedicated to the ideal that service to the community is the best way of life, and that activities build civic leadership.

During Jaycee Week, each Jaycee chapter will be recognizing the "Young Man of 1966" in their respective community. The United States Jaycees will be recognizing America's "Ten Outstanding Young Men of 1966" in Jekyll Island, Ga., with National Jaycee President, Bill Suttle from Greensboro, North Carolina, making the presentation.

The week marks the founding of the Jaycees in 1915, when Henry Giessenbier saw a need for a young men's civic organization and organized the first chapter, according to President Aldridge. The movement spread so that in 1920 the United States Jaycees were formed with 24 cities represented. There are now 250,000 Jaycees in some 5,700 communities in the United States. National Headquarters is in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Greensboro's Bill Suttle, formerly of Marion, North Carolina, was the second North Carolinian to be National President.

The North Carolina Jaycees are 9,859 strong in 217 chapters. The State Headquarters is located in High Point. Bill Reynolds is their Executive Vice President. President Irvin Aldridge resides in Yanceyville, North Carolina.

Senior Citizens

By: Reporter

Inspired by the fact that the Congress of our United States would convene on January 10th the chairman of our program committee, Mrs. Frank Seders got an edge on Congress and planned a takeoff as the sixth annual Congress of the Coolee Senior Citizens club. She started the program by asking for nomination for speaker of the house. Mr. M. H. Ridenhour won a majority over Mr. Fred Murphy for the honored position. The first thing on the agenda was a review of the high lights of 1966. It proved to be quite interesting and amusing as representatives from turkey trot, Goose Creek and other districts were called on for their opinions. Mr. and Mrs. Grady Spry Sr. were recognized as the only grandparents to be honored with turns during the past year. Second on the agenda was suggestions for goals to be reached in 1967. The general conclusion was to continue our good fellowship and South's boys had posted six straight victories before the Christmas vacation, including an 87-78 victory over Davie at South. Davie came into last night's game with a 5-1 record.

Randall Ward and William Carter, Davie's superb pair of guards, inflicted most of the damage, just as they did in the first meeting of the two teams. Ward scored 26 and Carter hit for 21 in last night's game. They had combined for 56 points in the loss to South before Christmas.

South had four players in double figures with Guard Gary Cress leading the way with 16. Center Franklin Rhyme followed with 13, while Guard Jack Goodnight and Forward Lane Parker tallied 12 and 11, respectively. The fifth starter, Forward Ralph Connors, added nine.

But the scoring of Ward and Carter offset South's balanced attack. Only one other Davie player hit in double figures -- Forward Jerry Hendrix with 10.

South jumped off to a 17-11 first-quarter lead, but Davie poured it on in the second quarter, scoring 26 points and moving to a 37-34 halftime lead. The advantage remained at three points after the third quarter as Davie stayed out front by 55-52. Then the home front by 55-52. Then the home front by 55-52. Then the home front by 55-52.

Diane Horton scored 15 points to pace the South girls. Barbara Brown and Brenda Sifford added eight and seven, respectively.

But the game's big scorer was Davie freshman Janice Markland with 22. Jan Jordan added 10 for the winners.

Davie led by 9-6 at the end of the first quarter and 19-15 at halftime. South outscored Davie by 20-18 in the second half, closing the gap to the final two points.

SPECIAL BIBLE SERIES STUDIES TO BEGIN HERE

Scouts View Movie At Library

On Tuesday afternoon, January 3rd, forty girls and their leaders from Junior Scout Troops 29 and 286 met in the multi-purpose room of the library to see the movie, "STORY OF A BOOK".

Before showing the film, Mrs. Huske welcomed the girls to the library and gave them a brief introduction to the film.

This film shows the story of the writing of a book by following a real life author, H. C. Holling, through the process of creating Pagoo, the story of a hermit crab. It showed the steps of his process, getting the idea, doing the research, writing and re-writing, illustrating, planning the dummy, and printing.

The Scouts are working on the Books badge and this film gave them an insight into the creation of a book. They will be doing further work in the library toward finishing this badge.

Library patrons are making good use of their library since the rush of the holidays is over. We are glad to have many new registrations and busy days in the library. No better way to start the new year! You are welcome! Let us help you in any way we can. And a good 1967 to each of you!
